Head of Dominion Government Declares Every Effort Will Be Made At Special Conference To Bring About Better Relations Between Employers and Employees - Lockouts Nearly As Destructive As War, Says Borden.

Ottawa, July 14.—Sir Robert Borden has communicated to the press 'he following with respect to industrial and labor conditions:

"As announced in the governor-general's speech at prorogation, it is the intention of the Government to summon, within a few weeks, a representative conference for the purpose of an intimate and friendly discussion of the relations between employees and employers and for consideration of the report of the industrial relations commission. The provincial governments will strikes occasioned by differences which ought to be composed by peaceful methods and without constant interruption of the nation's task. Meantime, it is most important that actual world conditions should be fully realized by the Canadian people. For five years the world has been wasting the productive capacity of about fifty million men actually engaged in war-like activities. The remainder of the producing population has been to a conlike activities. The remainder of the producing population has been to a considerable extent occupied in producing munitions and implements of destruction. Millions of men must now resume the normal activities of peace. The business of the world has been completely disorganized and a long period will probably lapse before it can be completely re-established. After the present period of inflation has passed Canada will probably face a period of depression.

"To meet the possible imminence of such conditions, the Government has pledged the credit of the country to a pledged the credit of the country to a very large extent in order to provide employment for the gallant men returning to our shores from war service, and for those engaged in war industries which have now ceased. Many employers of labor have undertaken work at little or no profit in order that their lines of industry might afford every possible opportunity for employment. Up to the present such opportunities have been fairly abundant, but this conditions, A recurrence of lockouts or strikes will make it exceedingly difficult if not impossible to pass successfully through the perilous period.

This country is second to none in its opportunities to recover speedily from the effects of the war and to attain a prosperity even more marked than that of the past; but Canada cannot expect wholly to escape trying experiences, which certainly must result from the waste of the last five years with its inevitable inflation and its widespread disturbance of industrial conditions, A recurrence of lockouts

Vienna, Friday, July 11.-King Ferdinand of Rumania, according to reports received here, is endeavoring to find mong the European princesses a wife for Crown Prince Charles. Among those mentioned in this connection is Princess Yolando, the eldest daughter of the King of Italy.

Crown Prince Charles last September married Miss Zysiz Lambrino without the sanction of the king. He was disciplined for his morganatic marriage, and it was reported at the time that the crown prince said he would rather lose his throne than give up his wife. A report received in Paris on June 11 said that the crown prince had shot himself in the leg because his father insisted on his leaving Rumania for six months in an effort to forget his morganatic wife, from whom his parents had forced him to obtain a divorce. The dispatch added that Charles was still deeply attached to his former wife.
