outside of the first innings was in rare form. Sandow Mertes was out of the game on a three day holiday, at the re-quest of President Powers over his rumpus with Conway on Thursday. Wiedy played left field and Rudolph right. The kid twirler had a hit and two stolen bases to his credit. The visitors started the scoring in the first, Devore singling with Mullen out of the way. Frick made a grand effort to get Devore's liner, but failed. Devore puriohed second, going on to third when Brown threw wild to second. Mcliveen at third, while Baerwald failed to get on. Carisch threw to centrefield. Cock-man was passed up and stole second, but Frick failed to get on. In the second Mahing singled, stole second, going to third on Carisch's out, scoring on Pardee's slow bound-er along the first base line. Toronto tied the score in the third. Gettman and Schafly singled. Wiedy neatly sacrificed, while Grimshaw's slow bounder to second tallied Gettman. Grimshaw was retired at first, also
