

SIXTY-SIXTH REPORT OF THE

lible in its teaching. We still trust that He will supply like-minded successors who may be leaders in the work of this our greatest national society until the earth is filled with the knowledge and glory of God.

The choir sang an anthem, "Days and moments quickly flying," when Rev. Geo. Bruce seconded the Resolution.

The choir then sang the hymn commencing

Belov'd and honor'd, fare thee well,
Go, in thy last long home to dwell;
Softly our loving hands prepare
Thy narrow bed—sleep softly there!

Rev. Robert Wilson moved the second Resolution as follows:

Resolved, That the report, an abstract of which has been read, be received, and that the following gentlemen constitute the committee for the ensuing year: T. B. Barker, Hon. John Boyd, Joseph Bullock, Joshua Clawson, J. A. Estey, J. E. Irving, Charles F. Kinnear, Jas. Logan, Wm. Peters, Joseph Prichard, Geo. Robertson, T. S. Simms, G. W. Whitney, James Barber, A. G. Bowes, R. W. Crookshank, John March, Wm. J. Parks, James Woodrow.

The choir led the hymn commencing—

Still with Thee. O my God,
I would desire to be,
By day, by night, at home, abroad,
I would be still with Thee.

The collection was taken up, during which the Arion quartette, composed of Messrs. Fowler, Smith, Olive and Binning, sang a beautiful piece.

Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite moved the third resolution, as follows:—

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be tendered to the Branches and different Agencies for their valuable assistance in the Bible cause.

This was seconded by Rev. A. J. McFarland, and carried.

The hymn commencing:

Now thank we all our God,
With heart, and hands, and voice.

was then sung, also the Doxology, after which the benediction was pronounced by Rev. A. Gollmer.
