

Wyatt Johnston, M.D., Assistant Professor in Public Health and Preventive Medicine, was appointed Assistant Professor of Hygiene.

N. D. Gunn, M.D., Demonstrator in Histology, was appointed Lecturer in Histology.

In the Faculties of Arts and Applied Science:—

H. M. Jacquays, M.A., M.Sc., was appointed Lecturer in Mechanical Engineering.

F. W. Draper, S.B., was appointed Lecturer in Metallurgy.

Nevil N. Evans, M.A.Sc., Lecturer in Chemistry, was appointed Assistant Professor of Chemistry.

J. E. LeRossignol, M.A., Ph.D., was appointed Lecturer in Economics.

S. B. Leacock, Ph.D., was appointed Lecturer in Political Science.

SCIENCE.

J. B. Segall, Ph.D., was appointed Lecturer in French, in the place of M. Ingres, B-es-L., resigned.

Miss M. L. Milhau was appointed Resident Tutor in French and German in the Royal Victoria College.

Miss Vendla M. Holmstrom was appointed Director of the Gymnasium in the Royal Victoria College.

L. R. Holme, B.A., was appointed Tutor in English.

Howard T. Barnes, D.Sc., was appointed Lecturer in Physics.

A large number of Demonstrators have also been appointed in the several Faculties.

FACULTY OF LAW.

The number of students registered in this Faculty is 62, all of whom are taking the full course.