SUPPERTIME IN THE VALLEY MEADOW LANDS—A STUDY IN BLACK AND WHITE.
Pastoral scene on a big farm near Toronto. The lazy herd are grouped near the winding cow-track at sunset, reluctant to leave the deep clover beds for the uphill climb to the barnyard.

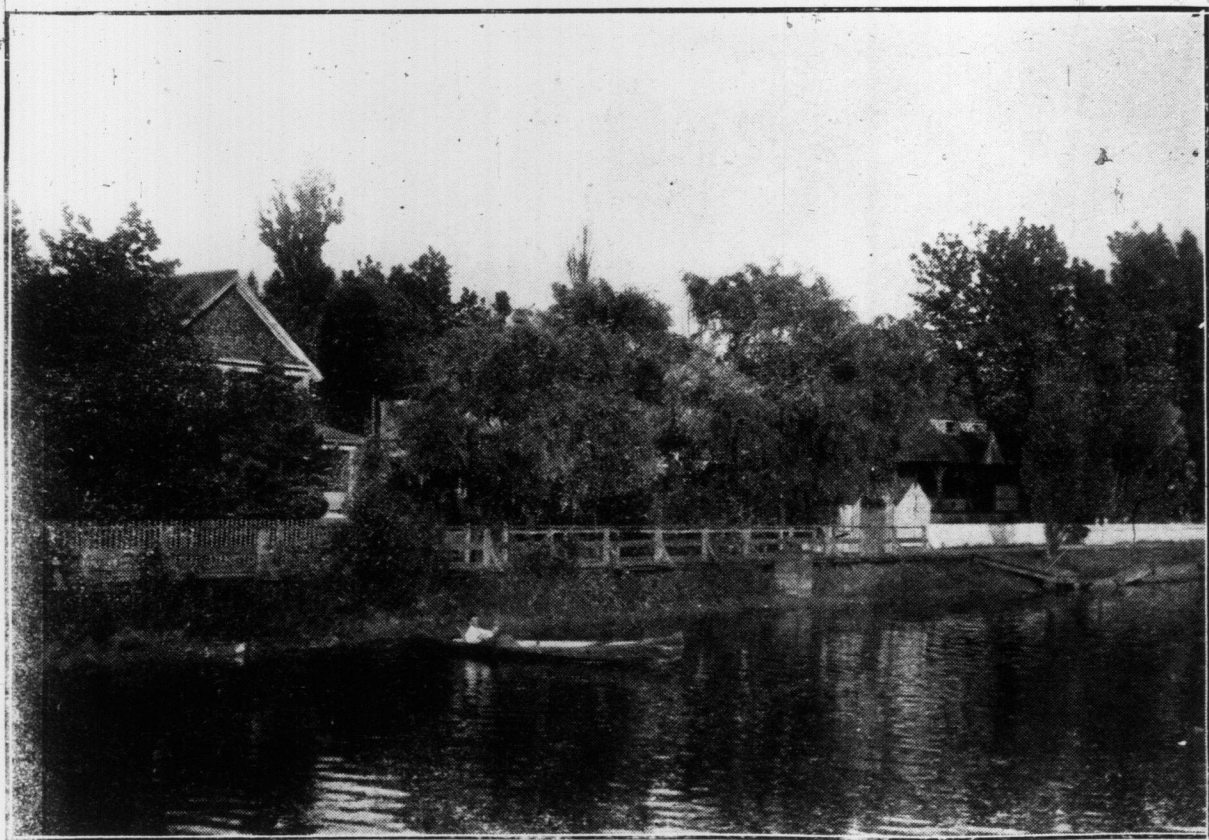

A COLUMN OF FUN.
Miss Jessie Davidson, Euclid-avenue, and her brothers Charles, Fern and Gordon.

A PAIR OF "HAS BEENS."
Friendly contest for the right of way on the narrow Humber between two ex-members of the Toronto Rowing Club.

YOUNG CANADA RESTING ON HER ARMS.
Toronto family enjoying the Saturday afternoon in one of the city parks.

WHERE WATER SONGS AND TREE SONGS MINGLE.
West shore of the beautiful St. Clair River, opposite Port Lambton, Ont. The river is swift and deep and blue and the scenery along it ideal.

"GOT A BITE?"
Three good chums hooking a fish supper from the perch shallows off River St. Clair, near Port Edward, Ont.

IN THE SHADE OF THE WILLOWS
Beautiful spot on the shore of neighboring lake much enjoyed by Toronto people.

A TORONTO FAIRY.
Little daughter of Mrs. Bridgen of Delaware-avenue.

CUBS PLAY-TIME.
Baby lions of the zoo romping on the green.

TINY MARATHON RUNNER.
Young Italy about to start on his first race. Note his smile of confidence.

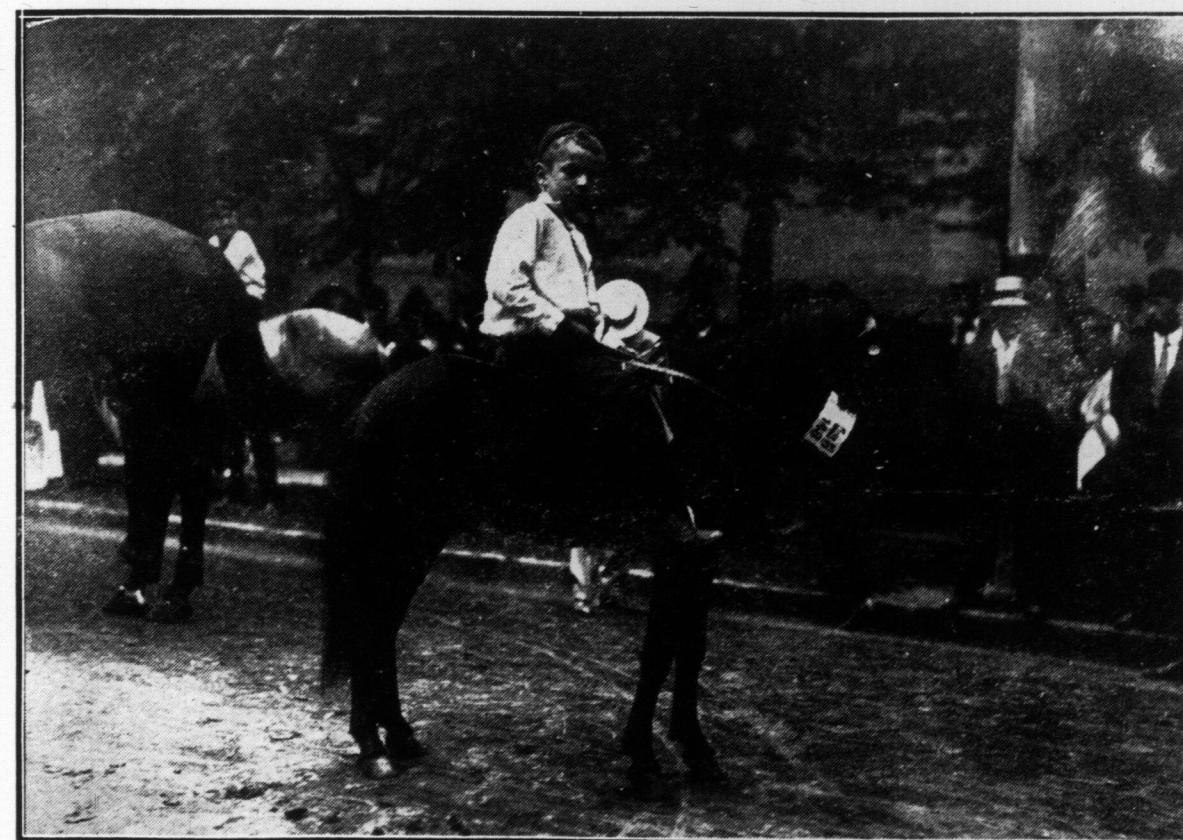

"THREE MEN IN A BOAT."
Followers of Isaak Walton on their way to "where the fish hang 'round."

PLEASANT DAYS ON THE WATER.
Launch party cruising about the Island, pausing to listen to the sweet strains of the band.

A COMING ATHLETE.
Clarence H. Montgomery who captured the medal at Toronto Public School Games, June 4th.

PAIR OF PRIZE LITTLE FELLOWS.
Young Toronto horseman and his pony "Pigmy Jack," winner of first honors in the pony class at the recent horse show.
