MARKS OF SUSPECTS MAY BE WITHHELD

Points of Those Under Suspicion of Exams. Thefts Likely Delayed

FREDERICTON, July 9.—The investigation by a commission of members of the Provincial Government under the Inquiries Act into midnight rifling of a box of examination papers at the Provincial Normal School during the recent provincial teachers' license examinations will not prevent announcement of the general results of the examinations, it is stated at the Board of Education office.

Results of the examinations are sent out to the individual candidates and the general results are given out for publication usually early in August.

This policy will be followed this year, as usual, except that it appears a list of "suspects" in connection with the examinations has been established and results in their cases will probably not be included.

British Racing Men Claim There Are Too Many Derbys

LONDON, July 10.—British racing circles are again clamoring for the extinction of all the "secondary" Derbys in the world.

There are now, according to the records here, seventeen races throughout the world which call themselves "Derbys"; that, according to pundits, is exactly sixteen too many.

There is only one real, genuine "Derby" and that, it is maintained, is the one founded by the 12th Earl of Derby in 1780 on the great downs at Epsom.

But Scotland, Ireland and Wales have each its own "Derby" and even the King of England has, in the past, called one of his pet races during his own private race meeting at "Royal Ascot" by the familiar and affectionate name; he has up to this year, called the third race in his private program on Ascot Wednesday, "the Ascot Derby." Yielding gracefully to the purists, King George this year called that race the "King Edward VIII Stakes."

In each of the Dominions there are two or three "Derbys" and in the United States there are the Kentucky Derby, the Latonia Derby, the Brooklyn Derby, and the Chicago Derby.

WILLIAM WEBSTER AWARDED SECOND HONOR IN ENGLAND

Worth 300 Pounds For 3 Years For Original Scientific Research

SHEDIAC, July 9.—Dr. J. C. Webster has received word from England that his son, William, has been awarded a scholarship by Cambridge University because of the value of the original scientific investigations carried on by the young man during the last three years he has been a student at the institution. The scholarship has an annual value of £300, tenable for three years.

William Webster, who is but 22 years of age, was recently given the degree of doctor of philosophy by Cambridge University. He is the youngest man in the history of the institution to receive that degree.

RESIDENCE RAZED ON MONCTON ROAD

Mrs. Mary Davidson Loses Home Near Shediac; Loss, $1,500

SHEDIAC, July 9.—The home of Mrs. Mary Davidson, located on Moncton road about nine and a half miles from here, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The dwelling of Edward Davidson, former highway patrolman, caught fire several times, but was saved by neighbors with pails of water. Mrs. Davidson's furniture was saved. The loss is estimated at about $1,500.

HOSPITAL REQUEST FOR GRANT SHELVED

York Council Defers Action to Give More to Victoria Institution

FREDERICTON, July 9.—The York County Council this afternoon deferred action on a request of Victoria Hospital to pay an additional amount of $1,400 in aid of the hospital until next January. The amount is claimed for free and part patients. The council will conclude its meeting on Saturday.

350 FIGHT FIRES ON SEVOGLE RIVER

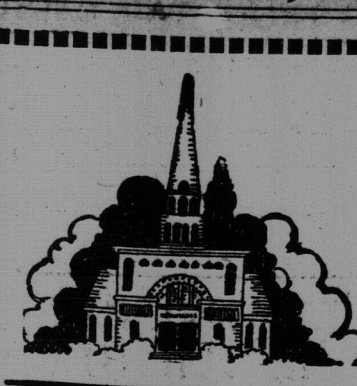

Change of Wind Has Partly Removed Danger of Settlements

NEWCASTLE, July 9.—The forest fire situation remains unchanged. More men have been sent up to the fire on the Sevoogle making about 350 fighters in that locality. The change of the wind has altered the fire's course and it is hoped that none of the settlements will be burned, but the fire is raging as fiercely as ever.

RAIN IS ONLY HOPE

FREDERICTON, July 9.—Provincial Forester, L. S. Webb tonight stated that the day had been a better one for fire fighting. The Sevoogle fire should be fought fiercely and causing considerable trouble, and there was a large fire on the Nipisiquit near the Bathurst mines. On the Donagorvon the fire had spread much today. The only hope for any great change in the situation, Mr. Webb said, would be in rain. Immediate rain, if the wind should fall, and if the humidity should rise fire fighting would be easier.

ITALIAN COURT BANS ALL BOBBED GIRLS
Mussolini Blamed in Move to Bring Back Old-Style Debutantes
LONDON, July 9.—Benito Mussolini, energetic Italian premier, has tackled the hard job of trying to bring back the old-fashioned girl by banning the modern ones from official functions, according to society gossip here.
Surprise was caused in London when it was announced that Queen Elena of Italy had banned bobbed and shingled debutantes from the forthcoming Italian court functions.
Princess Yolanda, her eldest, and Princess Mafalda, her second daughter, are both bobbed.
It is said now that Mussolini was behind the ban. The fact that the daughter of his own finance minister, Count Volpi, is shingled and therefore banned, is said to have made no difference to the premier when he backed the new edict.
