

GRADUATION WILL LIKELY WRECK DOMINION RUGBY CHAMPIONS

QUEENS LOSES TEN REGULARS OF 1925 TEAM

Queens Favored to Defeat McGill at Kingston Today

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 24.—Queen's University footballers are traveling on a high wave at present, but Coach Bill Hughes faces a task after this year, according to his own statement made here today. Queen's enters McGill here and is favored to repeat its victory of last Saturday at Montreal. Next fall the tri-color squad will be literally ripped asunder through the graduation of stars whose departure the university in the forefront for the past four years.

According to Hughes, he will lose next spring the following: Pep Leach, Harry Batstone, Curly Lewis, Bud Thomas and Jack McKelvey, all of whom have been outstanding in the past four years. Bill Mulhead, an inside wing for the past four or five seasons, is another who will go, while the younger players to graduate from this year's crop of regulars are Bert Airth, Tiny Adams, and McCormick.

Hughes will have to build his 1926 squad around the following first-string men of the present crop: Peave Chantler, Carl Yess, Glib McKelvey, half-backs; Bubs Britton, flying wing; Chick Mundell and Baldy Baldwin, quarters; Lis Walker and Jimmie Wright, outside line, and Sieton, a line player. The half-back division is well taken care of by the Glib McKelvey-Voss-Chantler combine, but the tri-color will be absolutely clean in the complete new line. The brainy play of Batstone and Leach, however, will be his main line of attack, and he is expected to lead the team.

In the Inter-Provincial Union series today, Tigers play at Argonauts while Ottawa is at Montreal. Big crowds are expected at all these games.

King Solomon Loses 10-Round Decision In Boston Last Night

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP.

WINDING up the world series in a driving, raw rain, while the players wiped their bats with towels and Walter Johnson slipped and splashed about the pitching mound has set the experts thinking about shortening up the season's campaign and getting the big games away by October 1. The move has received the official O. K. from Judge Landis, Tear of Baseball, and what the Judge usually wants, the Judge usually has. The All-Highest of the fabled Jock says that the last Sunday in September should be the final date of the season in order that the big games will not conflict with the football opening. Not that baseball seriously affects attendance at the big football games as they do not come until November but it does affect the opening games. The magnates, of course, are somewhat opposed to this as it means less Sunday games and in their heroic effort to keep the wolf from the door, the owners send up a pitiful moan not to be too hasty on this matter. But the Judge says that he is going to bring the matter before the annual meeting of both leagues in December and that settles that. Landis is an arbitrary cuss and if he movement can gain sufficient support between now and meeting time to convince him of his wisdom, don't be surprised to see the schedule makers turning out different copy in the spring.

THE NEXT big game in the college world hereabouts is set for next Thursday when U. N. B. goes to Acadia. Beating Acadia on its home grounds is like trying to house an elephant in a dog kennel.

WHAT IS SAID to be the first basketball game ever played on horseback was staged the other day before a crowd of 3,000 persons at the Crescent A. C. grounds in New York. Two teams of soldiers, reds and whites, from the 105th Field Artillery, rode their horse bareback up and down the field and played a furious match during which most of the players were trampled and stepped on by their mounts. A leather ball, stuffed with soft material so that it would not bounce was used. When the ball fell to the ground, the rules required a player to get down and get it. He could hold for a certain time but then must pass it. The melee, which followed the riding down of a dismounted player, were harmless, so they say. The game was won by the Red, 4 to 1. It seems to us that such a game is about as gentle as romping with two tigers. Not being of the heroic mold like policemen who stop runaway horses etc., we confess the prospect of a dozen horses tearing down upon us is rather appalling. We don't think we'll send in an application for guard on one of these teams. It's a good game for soldiers.

A FOOTBALL expert denies that western people say that "Red" Grange rides around the field on a motorcycle. What they did say was that he used two motorcycles. Grange is the fastest man in American football today. He scored an eighty-yard touchdown from kickoff the other day.

WITH WHAT is considered by many to be the greatest three-quarter line University of New Brunswick has produced in many moons, a good fullback, halves that are like bees around honey and a well-balanced scrum that plays consistent football, there are some who are not backward in telling us that U. N. B. has a truly great team this year and one that will give the powerful host from Dalhousie University a fearful tussle on November 7 at the capital. In Captain Paul Fraser, U. N. B.'s 1925 team has the greatest kicking back ever developed at a Maritime institution and no small part of his team's remarkable 27 to 0 victory over Mount Allison can be attributed to the long and effective drives from Fraser's boot. One long kick into touch is worth a dozen scrimmages and Fraser is continually keeping the morale of his own team at a high pitch while pestering the life out of the opponents back line. His reputation in this regard is well-known and he is a marked man throughout the game but despite that he can get those annoying drives under way in some difficult situations. Dal is going to have plenty of trouble from young Mr. Fraser.

The Amateur Question

In an article in McLean's magazine, Lou E. Marsh, Toronto sport writer, goes into the question of amateurism quite fully and reaches certain conclusions with respect to revising the amateur code that are interesting. Mr. Marsh says in part:

"The amateur law in Canada must be enforced or amended to suit the trend of the times. Amateur sport in certain fields in Canada as well as the United States has become a business and the modern 'we must win' spirit has sapped the foundation of all amateur sport which is 'the game for the game's sake.' Being so, the situation must be recognized as belonging to the times and the amateur rule amended to meet the situation.

"You often hear the old story of some 'fifteen minute eggs' star athletes in some of our most popular and money-making sports care as little about the amateur code as One Eyed Connolly cares about the innerworks of Homer Cayenne. Tune in on station M.O.A. N. with them, and they will come mightily close to convincing you that real amateurs among the star hockey, rugby, lacrosse and baseball players are as scarce in Canada as skate sharpeners are in Central Africa. Trying to tell them anything else is about as easy as making a bull a birthday present of a red parrot.

"If you believe in the real spirit of the amateur code as it is, the modern Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, the 'lily whites' are really scarce among the 'big boys' of the games which drag down big gates. Those who even live up to the letter of the code are few and far between. But to convict amateurs of breaches of the amateur code is about as easy as it is for an elephant to kick a flea in the shins. Everybody who is mixed up in amateur sports knows that there are plenty of things going on which are not according to Hoyle, but for the amateur moguls to prove them is a horse from a different stable.

"Well most of the boys concerned will swallow affidavits with all the gusto of an ostrich dining on golf balls, and the folks who have the goods on them dare not cut loose because, in most instances, they are mixed as deeply as the players concerned. If they did spew up the mess the neighbors would show them the adjacent scenery from a splintery rail with hot tar and feathers thrown in free. The trouble is that nine out of ten people interested consider the amateur code a joke.

"The Joker that causes all the trouble is this little phrase down in the middle of Clause 8—'receives any consideration whatsoever for any service as an athlete.' 'Is a good job any 'consideration for service as an athlete?' 'It's setting up a college graduate who is a smart player in some game, in a dentist's office with half the rent guaranteed and the equipment furnished

CAPITAL SQUAD MISSES CHANCE TO WIN TITLE

Rothsay College Holds Fredericton to a 3-all Score Yesterday

WITH a chance to nail the 1925 title to the mast against Rothsay College yesterday afternoon at Rothsay, Fredericton High was forced to be content with a 3-3 score and were lucky not to lose the decision. Their lone try resulted from a fumbled attempt to return a long kick into Rothsay territory and they were forced to touch for safety three times during the game. Rothsay touched once.

Following the game, Fredericton High came into Saint John and last evening were entertained in the Y. M. C. A. The toast to the visitors was proposed by Richards Petrie, captain of the local team, and replied to by Andrew Douglas, Fredericton captain. Hugh Kennedy proposed the toast to the ladies.

THE FIRST TRY.

The first try went to Fredericton, a foolish attempt to catch a punt by one of the three-quarters on the Rothsay team resulting in a fumble that gave Wishart a chance to get across. The ball went nearly to the Rothsay fullback on a long kick, and he was all set to pick it up when one of his own three-quarters rushed across from behind him, fumbled the ball and let the Fredericton forward cross the line near the goal. Douglas failed to convert.

Rothsay threatened to score several times and twice drew kicks narrowly missed the posts. The home fifteen seemed to lack the precision in passing needed to get the ball out to the wing. The ball was in time for them to cross the line. Fredericton started out with another rush in the second period and got the ball close to the Rothsay line before a long kick by Puddington sent it back down the field. The play went back and forth for a few minutes. The ball was kicked over the Fredericton line. An attempt to run it back was stopped about the five-yard line and the ball was kept close to the goal line for a while.

ROTHSAY SCORES.

It went over again on a mass dribble play, the Fredericton fullback passed it and it was fumbled, minutes later the Rothsay team, falling on it near the touchline for a try. Puddington failed to make the convert at the difficult angle and another good chance was lost. Puddington had another good chance for a drop kick in this period but the ball went wide of the goal. The Fredericton team had the ball on the Rothsay line for four or five plays; but good tackling kept them from scoring again.

The Capital fifteen had a little the edge in handling the ball, but made some costly fumbles when on the attack. Some of the Fredericton forwards split half the game offside.

The lineup follows: Rothsay—Forwards, Matheson, Anderson, Montgomery, Smith, Clark, of Fredericton; Half-backs, Clark, of Fredericton; Full-backs, Fisher, of Fredericton; High-Forwards, Wisheart, Trites, S. Douglas, Rowan, Clark, of Douglas, captain, Woods; Halves, B. Currie, Clark, Thompson, three-quarters, Clark, Hewitt, Miles, Douglas, fullback, Jones, Reserves, Fowler, Maxwell, backs, H. Currie, Whitman and Hanson.

YOUNG DEMPEY AND JACK REDDICK DRAW

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 23.—Young Jack Dempsey, Tacoma light heavyweight, and Jack Reddick, Canadian title claimant in the middleweight and light heavyweight divisions, battled six grueling rounds to a draw decision in the main event of the boxing program here last night. ## Sport For Red-Bloods Only

A sport for real red-bloods only is the game of parachute jumping. This Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, picture shows Lieut. J. R. Tate, U. S. navy, with his heels in the air and a thousand or two feet of space below him—but a parachute opening safely to ease his tumble. A second jumper is climbing from the plane's rear seat.

JIM MALONEY IS VICTOR OVER PAN-AMERICAN

Hub Fighter Takes Lead in The Fourth Round of Bout

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—Jim Maloney, Boston heavyweight, won the decision over King Solomon of Panama in their 10-round bout here last night. In the fourth round Maloney cut Solomon's left eye with a hard right and throughout the remainder of the bout the Boston fighter played for the injured member.

Solomon assumed the aggressive at the start, and bothered Maloney considerably with left jabs to the face, and an occasional right cross. The battling was even for the first two rounds and Solomon had a shade in the third, but after Maloney's terrific blow in the fourth, the Pan-American appeared to slow down. The cut over the left eye bled profusely throughout the six rounds that followed.

In the last two rounds, Maloney strove to land a finishing blow, but Solomon proved too shifty, and escaped serious punishment.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 24.—Tiger Flowers, Atlanta negro, middleweight, outpointed Jack Malone of St. Paul here last night, newspaper men decided, after Malone twice refused to accept the decision on fouls.

MONTREAL, Oct. 24.—Sandy McDougall of Scotland earned right to meet Ed. "Strangler" Lewis here next Tuesday night, when he took two out of three falls from George Desloges, local grappler, here last night.
