

MAJESTIC DRY

"Took Best Efforts of Passengers" to Consume the Stock Before New York Reached.

New York, June 18.—S. S. Majestic arrived today after a record run from Cherbourg bone dry except for thirty-six gallons of brandy, required by British law for emergency medical use. Although she had started with her usual smoke room supply of liquor and, in addition, private stocks which some passengers had ordered in England, the entire supply was gone before the three mile limit was reached, and there was none to be thrown overboard.

"It took the best efforts of the passengers to do it," said one ship's officer.

Members of the crew said the prospect of a dry voyage home was "terrific" but they said it with smiles. The fact that they had consumed the stock indicated they had hopes of one sort or another. The bar steward declared that many passengers competed for the honor of taking the last drink in the stores.

PETTY WORK AT THE GOOD ROADS CONVENTION

Toronto Mail's Report of Ontario Delegates' Action

When Nominating Committee Overridden, Effort was Made to Give Vice-Presidency to Hon. P. J. Veniot But T. P. Regan Withdrew Premier's Name.

The following is the Toronto Mail and Empire's report of the Canadian Good Roads Association meeting and the election of a president:

Hamilton, Ont., June 18.—Russell T. Kelley was elected president of the Canadian Good Roads Association this afternoon when Central Ontario delegates outvoted representatives of all provinces in the Dominion 28 to 24, defeating the Hon. P. J. Veniot, Prime Minister of New Brunswick, whose name the nominating committee submitted to the convention without Premier Veniot's consent. Ontario also carried the position of first vice-president when the Hon. F. C. Biggs was recommended by the nominating committee and endorsed by the convention. E. J. James of Toronto urged Mr. Kelley to retire in the interests of the association and prevent a serious split, but he turned a deaf ear to these proposals. The supporters of the new president gathered up all supporters and they filed in just before the vote was cast in numbers just large enough to win by the small majority of four.

Wm. Findlay, as chairman of the nominating committee, presented his report, stating that the ten members representing every province were unanimous in their decision.
A. P. MacAllum, Ottawa, moved Mr. Kelley's name, seconded by W. L. McFaul of Hamilton, and Mr. MacAllum charged that a clique was operating within the convention and thought it was time a halt was called. The statement was resented by several speakers and finally it was agreed to withdraw the motion.
Delegates supporting Mr. Kelley said that it was only fair that he should be raised from first vice-president to president, but this contention was pointed out that Mr. Kelley, as chairman of the nominating committee, recommended the appointment of Hon. Mr. Perron, ignoring which he, as Ontario representative, pleaded for fairness to the other provinces, resented the criticism of a clique, stating that had one been in the future development of these undertakings in Asiatic Turkey.

So far the French have not replied, but the Italians have agreed to a meeting taking place in London in a couple of weeks.
About 500 miles of line are affected. The principal railway is from Haider Pasha, opposite Constantinople, to Konia. A branch line runs to Angora, the new Turkish capital. The Bagdad railway is a continuation of the Anatolian railway.

WITH HEAD IN HEDGE.
Clergyman Found Dead Seated on His Bicycle.
London, May 26.—(By Mail).—A Guernsey message states that the Rev. Francis Woodgate Mosley was found dead on Sunday, sitting on a bicycle with his head in a hedge. The fourth son of John Mosley of Derby, he went up to New College, Oxford, as a scholar, and took his degree with classical honors in 1869. He was formerly a master at the King's School, Rugby, and afterwards at Bedford Grammar School, and from 1896 to 1919 was vicar of South Muskharn. Mr. Mosley was the author of "David the Psalmist," 1890, and "The LXX Psalm, compared with the Hebrew," 1905.

Amendments were put as various amendments were voted down, in an attempt to oil the troubled waters, but the vote was finally demanded. Regret was expressed by T. P. Regan of New Brunswick, who stated that no authority had been given to any delegate to suggest Mr. Veniot's name, and it was added that he had refused to accept the office when the proposition was made to him. When the Ontario delegates offered to drop the name of Hon. Mr. Biggs, and elect Hon. Mr. Veniot, the first vice-president, Mr. Regan objected, and on the Premier's behalf withdrew his name from the convention.

WOMAN ASTROLOGER SEES CIVIL WAR IN 1942

Miss Evangeline Adams Says Also That the Stars Are Against Prohibition.

The stars portend grave events for this country, including a civil war about 1942 or 1944, according to Miss Evangeline Adams, an astrologer, who arrived in New York from Southampton, As proof of her right to qualify as an expert Miss Adams said that she had already given her opinion on information regarding the death of King Edward and Enrico Caruso, the Windsor Hotel fire in New York in 1907 and other events.

Just at present, she said, the stars were all cooperating in the effort to defeat efforts to enforce the prohibition laws.

The stars, headed by Jupiter, will soon stop the bearish trend of the stock market, according to Miss Adams. The sign of Jupiter has been retrograding for the last eight months, and so has the market. When Jupiter starts the other way it is going to carry the market with him. Such is Miss Adams' theory.

Somewhere about 1943 Uranus will be in the sign of Gemini, a condition that repeats itself every eighty-eight years. It was just in that position during the Revolutionary War and again when the Civil War was fought. So, Miss Adams asserted, about 1942 the United States will be engaged in a civil war.
