DROP EBBETTS AND TAFT INTO DISCARD; BRING FEDERALS' BACKERS INTO NATIONAL LEAGUE—THAT'S NEW PLAN TO END WAR

CENTERS OF THE BASEBALL TANGLE.

(By Hugh S. Fullerton.)
Elimination of Charles P. Taft from baseball both in Chicago and in Philadelphia; the retirement of Charles Ebbetts from the National League; the elimination of the Cincinnati crowd from the national game, is the latest move toward the solution of the baseball tangle. It is proposed that the Wards of Brooklyn take over Ebbetts' interests and that Charles Weegman and his financial allies buy the Taft interests; that men now in the Federal League replace the discordant elements in the National; that the Federal League ceases to exist and that the National continues with the strongest of the Fed leaguers taken into the fold.
The powers of baseball have been holding meetings in Cincinnati and in Chicago striving to solve their big problem; the Federal League.
The situation is this: The Federal League has cost its backers approximately $300,000 over receipts this season. The National League has had a hard expensive year, and the American League will be lucky to break even. Perhaps five of the twenty-four big league clubs have made money.
There are thirty-seven minor leagues. Five leagues went smash during the season. Others curtailed their seasons and several others changed their circuits to finish.

Trying to get a good boxer under his wing, he evidently picked up a good heavyweight in Sam Grande of California. Grande recently secured the decision over Tom McMahon, a Pittsburgh heavyweight, in a twenty-round bout at Vallejo, Cal., and the reports are that Grande had McMahon almost out on several occasions.
Is After Gunboat
George Lawrence, of Australia, manager and backer of Colin Bell, Australian heavyweight champion, the Antipodes, now in New York, writes to the Boston Globe as follows:
"It had been my intention to go over to Boston, taking Colin Bell, Australian heavyweight champion, with me, to be at the ringside and challenge the winner of the Langford-Johnson contest. As Bell has only just arrived in this country, and has gone into strict training at Woodlawn Inn, I have to resort to the mail with my challenge.
"My particular reason for coming to the United States was to force Gunboat Smith into a match, he having run out of a meeting at the Sporting Life office in London. I had $25,000 posted some time to make a match with Smith, and it was to have been raised to $50,000 at the appointed meeting. August 22, I posted my name and posted my full amount, which fact is verified by all the English newspapers, but Jim Buckley left for Liverpool and sailed for New York two days later.
"I shall keep after Gunboat Smith until I force him into a match, and I will add that I am willing to take the side issue of amount up to $25,000, a side, so Smith cannot dodge a match by reason of money. Mr. Buckley knows that I am a perfectly responsible man, and when I talk money to the amount named, he knows that I mean it and that my word is good.
"In the meantime, I mention the fact that Bell has a 15-round draw with Sam Langford, made when the Australian was little more than a novice, and the opportunity is offered Langford for a contest in this country if he beats Jim Johnson. If Johnson wins, the offer is open to him."

BRITISH LITERARY MEN TO ANSWER GERMANS
Sir James M. Barrie Leads Trio on Way to United States
London, Sept. 17.—The Morning Post says Sir James M. Barrie, dramatist; Alfred E. Mason, author and dramatist; and T. Gilmour, formerly secretary to Earl Rosebery, sailed for New York on Saturday on the steamship Lusitania to advocate in the United States the British viewpoint of the war. Their mission has been undertaken with the knowledge and encouragement of a number of English literary men, who see that, while the British white paper admirably covers the British case, there is need of less formal advocacy of the British position to answer the German press campaign in America.
According to the Morning Post, the enterprise is a private one, and the plans will be largely determined by the course of events. The members of the party do not propose to deliver lectures, but will answer the Germans through the press and get in touch with the leaders of public opinion. They will avoid anything like solicitation that the United States shall depart from its neutral position.

TORTURED BY CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Paralyzed Bowels and Digestion

St. Boniface De Shawinigan, Que., Feb. 2nd, 1914.
"It is a pleasure to me to inform you that after suffering from Chronic Constipation for 2 1/2 years, I have been cured by 'Fruit-a-tives.' While I was a student at Berthier College I became so ill I was forced to leave the college. Severe pains across the intestines continually tortured me and it came to a point when I could not stoop down at all, and my Digestion became paralyzed. Some one advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and once I felt a great improvement. After I had taken four or five boxes, I realized that I was completely cured and what made me glad, also, was that they were acting gently, causing no pain whatever to the bowels. All those who suffer with Chronic Constipation should follow my example and take 'Fruit-a-tives' for they are the medicine that cures."
MAILED IN MAILING.
"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

C. Ledingham, of E. C. MacMichael & Co., city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, minister of St. David's church, at 12 o'clock very soon after the arrival of the up-river boats. The house was tastefully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. HERS'S BOSTON BRAVES
NO-HIT HERO

Geo. Davis
This is the youngster who blanked the Phillies 7 to 0, in a no-hit game the other day and helped keep the Braves on top. He is George Davis, a Williams College boy, and he now possesses the enviable distinction of being the first recruit to break into the big leagues with a no-hit game. Stallings figures he can give the youngster his regular turn in the box, and Tyler, James and Rudolph, who have carried the team to the top of the National League will undoubtedly welcome his aid.

CANADIAN DOCTORS AND NURSES FOR WAR
Two general, or base, hospitals, each with a staff of some twenty doctors and more than forty nurses, will accompany the Canadian troops to the scene of war. Although last to be organized, this branch of the service will by no means be least in importance and it is very far from being the least interesting of the units which form a complete army division.
The base hospitals do not, under ordinary circumstances, lie very near the actual firing line. In a well-populated country such as France, Belgium or Germany, where railways run practically everywhere, it will be possible to establish them in towns or cities, using large hotels or other buildings for the purpose. The chief base hospitals of the allies of present, for instance, are in and about Paris.

Good Thing for Our Industries
Calgary, Sept. 17.—Made in Calgary, Canada or the Empire? is to be the demand of Calgary shoppers if the present agitation for the patronage of home industries is successful. Local manufacturers unanimously support the movement, while wholesalers and retailers, appreciating the trend of public opinion, are not at all backward in announcing that they will certainly cater to the wishes of the buyers. The outlook for incoming manufacturers is considered to be more promising than ever before.
