NOVA SCOTIANS IN HAWAII (Sackville Post)

Edgar Wood, M. A., 1894, was in the city for a few hours between trains Friday. After graduation Mr. Wood sent a couple of letters at Cornell University, taking the B. A. and M. A. degrees, and then, helped by the recommendation of the university authorities, secured the position of Principal of the normal school at Hawaii and has successfully held it for the intervening seven years. In addition to his principalship he is chairman of several important educational boards, and is thus at the head of the educational system in the Hawaiian Islands. He has been granted a year's leave of absence to be spent in travel with the view of securing fresh views and additional information about things educational. His brother, Hubert, who was with Mr. Allison with him, but did not complete his arts course, is a doctor in Hawaii. These gentlemen hail from Cumberland county, N. S., and are sons of Mrs. D. D. Scott, so well known in St. John.

Montreal, Sept. 19—Empress of Russia sailed from Yokohama Thursday, Sept. 18th.
