Urge City Council to Pay Cost of Removing

A meeting of the Byng Boys' Club was held today to obtain the opinions of the members regarding the proposed are all ex-soldiers. It is unique in that theirs is believed to be the only organization in Canada which confines its membership to those who belonged to some combatant branch of the various services in the late way.

The expression of opinion penned in he resolution is as follows:

"Resolved that in the opinion of the members of the Byng Boys' Club, the war memorial to be erected in King square should be given the premier ocation in the city and that this organization attroordy, urges the memorial ization strongly urges the memor that directly at the head of King

DAMAGED BY FIRE

Department Men Have Morning Call to Prince Edward and Exmouth Corner.

The upper portion of the wooden building at the corner of Prince Edward and Exmouth streets was damaged by fire this morning. An alarm from box 15 at 7.35 called the firement to the scene. Good work was done and the flames were drowned out before 9 o'clock. The building was owned by Lipsett and Corbett and was occupied on the top floor by Robert Addison and on the floor below by a family named Gould, with a grocery store on the ground floor. Mr. Addison had removed the greater part of his furniture to a new dwelling and little of his goods remained in the building. Mr. Gould suffered water damage, as did the store below.

Local News

Three men charged with drunke ness were fined $8 or two months by Magistrate Henderson in the police court this morning. Four others allowed out on deposit forfeited their deposits when they failed to answer to their names.

noon at the Old Ladies' Home. Miss Nettie Hatfield, their teacher, was in charge and the ladies expressed hearty thanks for the pleasure the young ladies' visit had given them.

Gordon's arrest followed a collision with a car in-Douglas avenue about 7.15 o'clock last evening. The street car, in charge of Motorman W. Huggard was proceeding towards Fairville while Gordon was coming into the city. A short distance west of Bentley street, Gordon, according to the evidence swerved into the car track, colliding almost head-on with the street car. The Addresses Gathering in Prayer Meeting Room of Centenary Hall.

Meeting Room of Centenary lisation strongly, urges the memorial committee to consider no other site street, and they do more definitely suggest a location of the present W. C. T. U. monument (said monument to be removed) with paths to form a semi-circle around the war memorial joining the walk now leading to the bands and in the centre of the square.

"And further resolution is not been stated in the cost of removed of the said w. C. T. U. monument, its re-location, and the new walks and memorial, the cost of removed of the said w. C. T. From Hartford to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas.

Sad news has come to the home of longer period than allowed by law and also for having his car parked wrongly, said he did not understand the regulation. The matter dropped. Magistrate Henderson expalined that only in authorized parking areas was an automobile allowed to be parked at an angle of 45 degrees. In all other places it must be parked with both right wheels parralel to the curb. A similar report has been made by Officer Young against Frank Donnelly and this will be taken up later.

Sad news has come to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas, 29 St. Patrick street, in a letter telling them of the death of their grandson, Donald Edward Thomas, only child of Frederick James Thomas and Mrs. Thomas, of Hartford, Conn. The boy, who was a ged seven years, was instantly killed by an automobile, but particulars were not received in the brief letter.

Master Thomas was a bright child who had won the hearts of all in the neighborhood in which he lived. "The little man" is what they called him His death has caused deep sorrow, and to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will go out deep having liquor illegally on his premises death has caused deep sorrow, and to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will go out deep sympathy from many Saint John friends. Mr. Thomas moved to Hartford from here some 15 years ago.
