MRS. THAW IN CANADA

MOTHER OF HARRY THAW RESTING IN MUSKOKA

Buffalo, N. Y., August 3. — Mrs. William Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, now in the Tombs prison in New York City, awaiting his second trial for the murder of Stanford White, accompanied by Mrs. R. S. Christy, and Miss Christy, of Allegheny, Pa., were at the Iroquois Hotel over night. They were on their way to Muskoka.

Great secrecy was maintained relative to Mrs. Thaw's presence here, she having requested that the fact be kept quiet. Mrs. Thaw did not register, but on the register appeared the name, "Mrs. R. Christy and one," and "Miss Christy, Allegheny, Pa."

The party left this morning for Muskoka where Mrs. Thaw goes to rest. It is said the great strain under which she has been obliged to go for the past fifteen months has unduly affected her health and that it was upon the advice of her physician that she decided to go to the Muskoka resorts.

During her stay in Buffalo she maintained the strictest silence, and would talk to no one outside her intimate friends.

Efforts of newspaper men to secure an interview with her previous to her departure were unavailing.

STONE RAILING GAVE WAY

Railway Disaster at Angers—Locomotive Jumped Track Dragging Cars With It—Conductor and Firemen Escape—Passengers Had No Chance For Their Lives—Were Caught as In a Trap.

Angers, France, Aug. 5.—Forty passengers in a third-class railroad car and the engineer of the train were drowned yesterday afternoon in a railroad accident, three miles south-east of this town.

The locomotive of a crowded local train jumped the track when entering the bridge over the River Loire at Des Ponts-de-Ce. The stone railing gave way, and the engine plunged into the river, 50 feet below, dragging down with it its tender and the baggage and third-class car.

Fortunately no other cars went into the water, as the coupling between the second and third cars broke.

The conductor and fireman were the only persons whose lives were saved. They escaped by swimming.

The third-class car was filled with passengers, but, although part of the roof was blown off by the confined air as it sank, not a single passenger escaped.

The engineer perished beneath the locomotive.

FIFTY YEARS

A GO

From The Chronicle, August 7, 1857.

The crosses of the "Order of Valour" recently distributed by Queen Victoria to the heroes of the Crimea were made of gun metal from cannon taken at Sebastopol.

The steamship Persia, on her last voyage from New York to Liverpool, made the passage in nine days and three hours.

A wise man will speak well of his neighbor, love his wife, and take home a newspaper and pay for it in advance.

It is reported in London that Her Majesty the Queen intends going to Cork to witness the departure of the telegraph fleet, which is to take place in a few days hence.

Under the new postal law, which came into operation on Saturday, newspapers not sent from the publisher's office must be prepaid by a copper stamp, or they will not be forwarded. Let the public bear this in mind.

A lady of high rank and exquisite taste having read an advertisement in a London silver-smith in which it was stated that by the electrolytic process waiters and other articles might be plated so that by no possible test they could be distinguished from real silver, sent her three footmen and page to be electrolyzed by the advertiser.

Many of our three year subscribers have forwarded us $2.00, which pays for the Chronicle up to August, 1858. This is as it should be. There are many yet, however, who have taken no notice of our call, whose names are unobtainable to repeat, will positively be struck off the list at the close of the volume 21st inst., as intimated in today's paper, unless the $2.00 be sent us in the course of a fortnight. Those who have answered our call, as well as all paying subscribers, will please accept our thanks. We shall endeavor to make the Chronicle still more acceptable to them.

In noticing in our last, the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the Baptist Chapel, we omitted mentioning the name of the respected pastor, Rev. W. C. Beardsall, through whose indefatigable exertions the congregation has been increased tenfold. We were in error in printing that Mr. Robinson provided the tea. The honor and praise is due the ladies of the Baptist denomination. We are desirous that they should not be robbed of their well-earned laurels for we well know that they, the ladies generally, do not receive half the praise they should.
