CONVENTION CONCLUDES

Revelstoke, Nov. 2.—The closing ses sion of the Eastern British Columbia Sunday School Association conven which has been sitting in the Methodist church, was held Frida vnight.

On Wednesday reports of the several districts were taken up. On the general theme of "Officers and Their Work," four brief, practical and interesting addresses were given by Rev. J. R. Robertson, J. J. Wallace, J. A. doors, despite the bad weather and the attraction in the theatre.

It will be no disparagement to the rest of the artists who took part in last night's concert to say that Miss Cocker, Mrs. Switzer, Mrs. Reid, Mr. Morrison, tendent, which was greatly enjoyed. tendent, which was greatly enjoyed. The afternoon session was largely taken up with business, the most iminteresting and practical address in the work of the primary deputation while he took up the work of the junior de

At the evening session Stuart Muir head took up a resume of the Sunday school work of British Columbia, and showed how great the work has be? come in the province. Powell, of Nelson, gave a forceful address on the boy problem. All claims of the Sunday School Association were presented by Mr. Pearce, and a liberal offering asked to support this work;
