With an unshaken belief in divine clemency and the good sense of the Russian people, we shall expect from the new parliament a realization of our efforts by their introduction of legislation in connection with the requirements of regenerated Russia.

Both Father Koyarkoff and M. Harlamoff distinguished themselves by preaching revolution from the rostrum of the parliament, the latter being especially bitter in his denunciation of the use of his people in massacring their Russian brethren.

On July 24—The tone of the bourse to-day was again animated, but the Russians held their own during the first hour. The indications were that the demoralization of yesterday would not be repeated.

Wholesale Arrests Are Being Made in the Russian Capital.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—It is already certain that consternation is apparent in the upper house at the magnitude of the task they have assumed, even the Czar with startling rapidity having made a decision to sit on the safety valve.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—The government's midnight coup d'etat is already having the effect of uniting all the discordant elements of the opposition and it requires little perspicuity to see that an era of repression and all which it entails will drive Liberal and Revolutionary alike to support the most desperate measures.

MEMBERS OF LATE DUMA ARRESTED

Authorities are Taking Action Against Deputies Who Preached Revolution--Sixty Thousand Troops Hold Capital.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—Following is the text of the imperial manifesto dissolving parliament: "We called the representatives of the nation by our will to the work of productive legislation, confiding firmly in their wisdom and faithfulness, and in the great and brilliant future of our people. We expected benefits for the country from their labors. We proposed great reforms in all departments of the nation's life. We have always devoted the greatest care to the removal of the burdens of the people by facilitating the conditions of great work.

"The peasants, disturbed by such anomalies, seeing no hope for the amelioration of their lot, resorted in a number of districts to open pillage, destruction of other people's property and disobedience of the law. But our subjects ought to remember that improving the lot of the people is only possible under conditions of perfect order and tranquillity. We shall not allow arbitrary, illegal action, and shall impose our imperial will on the disobedient by all the force of the power of the state.

"Our will on this point is unshakable and Russian husbands, without other thought being entertained upon, will be supplied in cases where peasants' lands are too small, with legal and honest means for the enlargement of their property. Representatives of other classes will, at our request, devote all efforts to the realization of this great task, which will be supported definitely in a legislative manner by a future parliament.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—During the night the members of the outlawed Russian parliament received word that two of their number had already been arrested, namely, Father Koyarkoff, at Voznesensk, and a Cossack deputy, M. K. Harlamoff, at Rostov-on-the-Don.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—The way has been prepared for a military dictatorship by a proposition now under consideration at Peterhof to create an advisory council to assist the Emperor. Premier Stolypin, General Treppoff and others are to-day conferring with His Majesty upon this subject. On the surface the scheme is to form such a council out of the members of the council of the empire and Conservatives and Liberals like M. Shipoff and M. Guchkoff, and also possibly some Constitutional Democratic leaders with the purpose of reassuring the population of the sincerity of the government's intentions. M. Stolypin evidently believes sincerely that the plan is achievable, but there is little hope that either M. Skipoff or M. Guchkoff will in any way make themselves responsible for the energetic measures of reform which the Emperor's coup d'etat entails, and it is certain that M. Shipoff's opinion of Canada has declared a dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. on its capital stock, payable on August 1st. The capital is $5,500,000, but there is about $800,000 still in the treasury. This is the second quarterly dividend for the year. The company early in the year announced that it would pay quarterly dividends at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum.

London, July 23.—The fourteenth conference of the inter-parliamentary union was opened in the royal gallery of the Palace of Westminster to-day. Adherents of international peace from all the parliaments of Europe as well as several of those of the western hemisphere were present.

St. Petersburg, July 23.—Although much rioting continued in the outskirts through the night it is practically quiet this morning, but ominous forebodings of a coming storm are apparent on every hand.

Sosnowic, Russia Poland, July 24.—Simultaneously at dawn yesterday bombs were thrown into four stores of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, located here, at Bendin and at Sosnowic, wrecking each of the shops and wounding many persons. The bomb throwers were agents of the Polish Socialistic party which had made the Singer company an example of what may happen to others for refusing to contribute to the revolutionary cause. In each instance a man entered the stores and ordered the women and clerks to leave. Details are still wanting, but it appears that in some instances the employees refused to leave, and the bombs were thrown without any further utterances.
