SPRINGFILLO, O., Feby. 28, 1877.

This is to certify that I have used VEORTINE, manufactured by H. R. Stevens, Esson, Mass., for Rheumatism and General Prostration of the Nervous System, with good success.

VEORTINE as an excellent medicine for such complaints.

YOUR YOUNGERIFT, C. W. VANDEGRIFT, C. W. VANDEGRIFT, man, is a well-known business man in this place, having one of the largest stores in Sprinfield, O. Dear Sir.—Three years ago I was suffering terribly with Inflamatory Rheumatism. Our minister's wife advised me to take Vegetine. After taking one bottle I was entirely relieved. This year, feeling a return of the disease, I again commenced taking it, and am being benefited greatly. It sho greatly improves my digestion. Respectfully, MRS. A. BALLARD. to the wintry looking North.

MR. H. K. STEVENS.

In 1872 your Yeartine was recommended to me; and yielding to the persuasion of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemel to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under i s persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hestated to give Veoritxe my most unqualified endorsement as being a safe, sure, and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Veorities is the only medicine I use, and as long as I live I never expect to find a better.

His Gov-Trustees are the most peaceful and loving ernment did not see any grounds for individuals existing. But the illusion is dispelled among those who know even two of them, for harmony cannot reign where they dwell. "One of Them" alludes to the tearing of a flag. This is an unfortunate allusion for him. It is not to the credit of "One of Them" that while labouring under an attack of frenzy when volition but by the advice of his ministers to take the responsibility his act and the country sustained them. He did not dissolve the House of his own volition but by the advice of his ministers. bouring under an attack of frenzy when the news came to his ears that the "late lamented" was defeated, he tore a flag.

Let "One of Them," two of them and three of them understand that I will give no factious opposition, nor will I be sneak enough to run from house to house tealing to make the property of the purpose of sitting in judgment on the Lt. Governor. Parliament had tried the case once, and was a man to be on trial twice? Sir John did allege last year that Letellier should be dismissed. He had been in If they do wrong I will give them a chance to defend their wrong doing. And "One of Them" can again preach what is furthest from the thoughts of three of them,—peace. Since my last letter I do not hear of certain seconder of the motion that the people should rule, and the people had decided parties getting the contract for repairing the school until money is voted, or until this case. The proof of it was the fact each and every ratepayer has a chance to compete for the job. If you will oblige for patriotic reasons was fallacious. The action proposed here now was unparliamentary and dangerous. Where were we to stop? Whenever a majority of parliament were opposed to any one of the ed.
