A Threatened Blow.

Mr. Frye, of Maine, introduced a oint resolution into the United States Senate at Washington, on Thursday last, providing that the operation of urticles 18 to 25 and article 30 of the Treaty of Washington, relating to Fisheries, terminate in accordance with article 33 of the Treaty. The last named article reads as follows -"The foregoing articles (18 to 25 inclusive and article 30 of this treaty), shall take effect as soon as the laws reat the end of the said period of ten years, or at any time afterward."

The Treaty, so far as these articles are concerned, took effect July 1, 1873. As Congress will not be in session when the limit of time expires that notice may be given, the object of Senator Frye is to anticipate by passing the joint resolution requiring the President to give the earliest notice that can be given of the desire of Congress to terof the resolutions will be important to fits more by the Treaty clauses referred to then the Miramichi. Indeed, our salmon, smelt and bass fisheries would be comparatively unprofitable if the American market was not open to them and we can, therefore, only hope that Congress will not retaliate upon Canada by seeking to abrogate the tishery of American fishermen.
