THE NOMINATIONS. Rival Candidates Speaking in York Theatre This Afternoon and Evening.

News From Dorchester, Fredericton and Woodstock—General Notes of the Campaign—Telegraph Ignores Tweedie—Dirt Throwing Begun.

Keep them on the run. The Liberal Rally in North End. The Liberal Rally in Carleton.—Frost. We won't hear anything more about the "four trust" Mr. Purdy's in it.

David Russell is expected here today.—St. John Telegraph. Got onto the ill-fingered gentry who are denouncing the labor candidates.

Mr. Blair made another savage attack on Senator Ellis and the Globe last evening. The minister is worried.

An opposition rally will be held in Temple of Honor Hall, north end, on Monday night, when the candidates will speak.

Mr. Lantulum doesn't like Mr. MacAlpine's attack on the "editor" of the Globe. Mr. MacAlpine should sit down and give Mr. Lantulum a chance to speak.

At Hampton, End Man Sproul, of the opposition minstrel troupe, will be expected to do a turn at political burlesque.

Speaking of the opposition ticket in Westmorland County the Moncton Transcript says:—"Taking the former gentlemen on the ticket as a whole they are four well-to-do business men, of unquestioned integrity, of good business ability, and personally agreeable, and as such the electors without doubt will unanimously wish them every success."

What a dramatic and historic scene was that which was witnessed by the faithful few in Carleton City hall last evening. The Telegraph thus thrillingly describes it:—"Mr. McKeown was addressing the audience. A ringing cheer, accompanied by a great hand clapping, announced the appearance of Mr. Blair on the platform. Mr. McKeown paused and, waving his hand towards the minister and addressing the people said, "There's the man himself." With the words, a great shout went up from the people.

WOODSTOCK, Feb. 21.—Nomination day sees the opposition thoroughly well organized, every man at his post, and with the utmost confidence of electing the entire ticket. Reports from up river are most encouraging, and the town is well looked after.

FRIDERICTON, Feb. 21.—Nomination day passed off very quietly here. A large number of farmers were in town. Sheriff Sterling opened his court at 10 o'clock, and a goodly number of spectators were present.

WESTMORLAND IN LINE. DORCHESTER, Feb. 21.—Large crowds are in attendance at the nomination proceedings at Dorchester today. Reports from all parts of the county are of the most cheering nature.

ST. JOHN NOMINATIONS. York Theatre this afternoon is packed by the crowd in attendance to hear the speeches of the several candidates nominated in the city and county of St. John for election on February 23 to the New Brunswick legislature.

LIBERAL OPINION. Speaking of the opposition ticket in Westmorland County the Moncton Transcript says:—"Taking the former gentlemen on the ticket as a whole they are four well-to-do business men, of unquestioned integrity, of good business ability, and personally agreeable, and as such the electors without doubt will unanimously wish them every success."

WHOOPER UP. What a dramatic and historic scene was that which was witnessed by the faithful few in Carleton City hall last evening. The Telegraph thus thrillingly describes it:—"Mr. McKeown was addressing the audience. A ringing cheer, accompanied by a great hand clapping, announced the appearance of Mr. Blair on the platform. Mr. McKeown paused and, waving his hand towards the minister and addressing the people said, "There's the man himself." With the words, a great shout went up from the people.

THE CORRECT VIEW. (St. John Globe.) The government of which Mr. Tweedie is the leader is on its trial. It is not the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier which is on its trial directly, or indirectly obliquely, diagonally or in any way. It is not the liberal party which is in the campaign as such, although some liberals in some places have vigorously espoused Mr. Tweedie's cause, and are loudly abusing other liberals who are not. This does not look like very good liberalism, nor does it appear to be wise in action; the fact that it is done proves that the liberals are not united in this matter. The real issue before the country upon which the people have to pronounce is whether Mr. Tweedie and his colleagues shall be continued in power. There is no other issue. The people ought not to be self-deceived nor allow themselves to be deceived. Those who are elected out of the candidates nominated tomorrow will range themselves when in the house of assembly on the one side or the other though they had neither education, intelligence or common sense? Why should our young men be treated like "dumb, driven cattle," and with about as little respect as would be shown to the cattle shipped from port to port? Why endeavor to make honest Christians of our sons, good, temperate, educated citizens of them, and then allow political men to make them intemperate and corrupt? Why do good Christian men and fathers look on today and allow this thing to continue without such a protest as would make our city ring? Why do not the young men of our province in the cause for right and good government in our city and province today? Why should the Hon. A. G. Blair or any other of the cabinet ministers be allowed to go through the last federal election over again and insinuate that the men respected in our province, and those not in the present contest, and behind their backs, are sneaks and liars, and then ask a large St. John mass meeting, educated and otherwise, to sanction it? Why not our citizens treat this kind of thing as it should be treated, too small for a fair political provincial fight? Why should every man who is not a liberal or a supporter of liberals be a traitor or a sneak? Why not judge both parties on their own merits, and provincially, instead of on the results of the last federal election? An admirer of a FAIR FIGHT.

FULL TICKET IN YORK. FRIDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 21.—Nomination day passed off very quietly here. A large number of farmers were in town. Sheriff Sterling opened his court at 10 o'clock, and a goodly number of spectators were present.

WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

John L. Carleton's Melodrama, More Sinned Against Than Sinning, Produced by Bangor Amateurs.

Says yesterday's Bangor Commercial: The drama given by the members of the Emerald Literary Society in St. Mary's hall, Thursday evening, scored one of the biggest successes ever experienced in an affair of that kind in Bangor.

The play is a stirring Irish melodrama in a prologue and three acts by John L. Carleton. Taken as a whole it was a most ambitious thing for the society to undertake, but by their production Thursday evening the members were in every way justified for such a pretentious undertaking.

Taken altogether it was perhaps the best amateur performance seen here in many years.

Great praise is due to Rev. M. F. Fehey, who has had charge of the affair, and through whose efforts it was so successfully carried out.
