WILD RUNAWAY.

A mad runaway occurred this morning at the Union Depot. A team in charge of Melbourne Watson, of Spruce street, was standing on the eastern side of the depot as a freight train from the West pulled in. The horses became frightened and, as the driver did not manage to stop them, they started forward, cutting across the front of the station. The wagon which was heavily laden, was dragged with violence across the concrete ridges forming the margin of the lawn in front of the station and was banged against a telegraph post, detaching the horses. The horses now free, bolted along Mill street, and turned into Main at a gallop. They had not gone far up Main street when they were stopped.

The body of the wagon was almost broken into splinters and two of the wheels were rendered past future use.
The load of boards was spilled all over the street. The horses were uninjured.

Mrs. Munro wishes to thank the members of the Carpenters' Union for their kind sympathy in her present bereavement and is grateful for the way in which it was conveyed to her last evening by Mr. Wells and Mr.
Johnson, members of the union.

The death occurred yesterday afternoon of Mrs. John S. Elliott at her residence, 37 High street. Mrs. Elliott was thirty-seven years old and belonged to Salmon River. She is survived by her husband and a family of four children.

E. J. Dennett, formerly employed as a C. P. R. telegraph operator, has been compelled by ill-health to give up that work and has opened a book and stationery store at the foot of St. John street, West End. He keeps in hand all the leading periodicals and papers, including, of course, the Sun and Star.

Robert Moore was thrown from the seat of his wagon on Ward street yester-which was decorated with flowers, and plants and cut flowers, with tables, lounge, chairs, etc. The dining room, where refreshments were served, was most artistically arranged, the color idea being white and green, with splashes of crimson in the corners.

Music was furnished by an orchestra from St. John under Prof. Eville.

PRICES JUMP.

The depressing reports of this year's wheat crop in the west has had its natural effect on the Chicago market in a sharp advance in price. Yesterday the market closed at a new high, and quarters the impression seems to prevail that no cheaper wheat may be looked for this fall. In sympathy with the price of wheat, Ontario millers have advanced their prices ten to fifteen cents on all grades of flour. The Ogilvie's brands have also recently advanced twenty cents and although the Lake of the Woods Company have not yet fallen in line, it is expected they will soon do so. The wholesale prices now quoted are on Ontario patents $5.30 to $5.40; Ogilvie's, $5.75; Manitoba, $5.65 to $5.75. It may be worthy of remark in this connection that the highest point four reached last spring was $6.00 a barrel, in February, and in April it dropped to the price at which it is now held. The scarcity of raw sugar in New York, which it may be difficult to make good till the crop of beet sugar comes in October, there was an advance of ten cents per hundred there recently. In sympathy with this the local market announced a rise of five cents on all grades.

—Alleged Cruelty—Butter Thief Remanded.

common drunks were fined four dollars each. Dennis Sullivan, an old offender, was fined eight dollars or two months. Bernard Andersen was fined eight dollars or one month for using profane language on Market Wharf.

Fred Watson was fined $2 for violating the rules governing hackmen at the L. C. R. depot. Dennis McEwen who was charged with a similar offense was not present.

James McFarlane accused a young lad of calling him a liar. The youngster admitted his guilt and was given a warning and after promising not to have anything more to do with McFarlane was allowed to go. McFarlane had a lad named Neeves up the other day on charges of stealing pillions, but the case was dismissed.

Leslie Watters, who was reported for abusing a horse on Brunswick street, was in court this morning and admitted hitting the animal three times with the whip, but considered he was justified in what he had done. He did not hurt the animal, which had previously jumped in such a way as to bring John Edges comb, who saw the affair, said that he had not intended to make any complaint against Watters. What he did intend to ask the officer to speak to the driver and warn him against striking the animal again. Watters was allowed to go with caution.

John Kerby, alias John Johnston, who is accused of stealing a tub of butter from the country market, was again in court this morning. Several witnesses were heard. Judgment will be given in the case tomorrow.

INQUEST WILL BE HELD.

Coroner Roberts Will Examine Into the Circumstances of James Fraser's Death.

Coroner Roberts impelled this morning the jury who are to hold an inquest into the death of James E.
Fraser, drowned at Ashburn Lake yesterday morning. They are: Indish Holder, foreman; Herbert Farley, John Salmon, Charles Colwell, Robt. McConnell, Jr., and James Bond.

About noon, Coroner Roberts and the jury viewed the remains at the Fred Powers' establishment of T. Underwood.

The body of the deceased was recovered about six o'clock yesterday afternoon. Around his neck was the anchor line which he attached to himself before taking the fatal plunge.
Earlier in the afternoon R. J. Armstrong, of the York Theatre, made an unsuccessful effort to locate the body by diving.
The inquest will be held on Monday evening next, beginning at 8.30 o'clock, in the photographic studio of John Salmon, Main street.

A SPAT IN POLICE COURT.

Rival Counsel in a Petty Case Liven the Proceedings with Personal Remarks.

There was some little fun in the city court yesterday afternoon when the case of Edward S. Dibble, against one Pooley, a driver of one of the Mc-Clary's Company's teams, came on.
That some time last winter Dibble was down Dorchester street and near the corner Sewell met Pooley driving up with a heavy load on his sled. Dibil-ble's pung collided with the heavy sled and the dash board of the latter was damaged and Mr. Dibble sued for three dollars. Witnesses testified that Pooley knew as much as the man on his side of the road as was possible and that his impression was that Dibilble, thinking he was in the way, made an attempt to pass him. The judge, who pulled sharply to the right thus causing the accident. Judgment was given for the defendant.

During the hearing the counsel, A.
Wilson, for the plaintiff and C. S.
Harrington for the defendant, got into a lively spot in the course of which Mr. Wilson intimated that his opponent had not, with heredity or training, local men of the title of gentleman.
The dispute arose over Mr. Wilson's treatment of one of his own witnesses and in reply to the intimation quoted Mr. Harrington replied that a gentleman in Mr. Wilson's place would apologize for his conduct toward the witness, and since the plaintiff's counsel refused to apologize, said Mr. Harrington, the inference was obvious.

CIGARETTE CAUSES FIRE.

Blaze in Mill Street This Morning—Little Damage Done.

Shortly before five o'clock this morning an alarm was rung in from Box 8 for a fire in the new building of T. H.
Estabrooks, Mill street. The firemen were quickly on the scene and by means of ladders gained an entrance to the building at the second story from Mill street. It was discovered that the fire had worked its way through the floor, but beyond that had occasioned no damage to the building.
It was speedily extinguished.

The fire is said to have been due to a burning cigarette left in a spittoon the night previous.
