These lines are as follows: FIVE DIFFERENT STYLES OF GOWNS AT $1.00 EACH. They are the newest conceptions of the designers' ideas. CITIZENS MUST BE REASONABLE. Superintendent of Streets Winchester is a busy man these days, seeing that the superfluous snow is removed from the highways and that the sidewalks are kept sanded. In this latter regard he is of the opinion the principal streets should be attended to first, despite the complaints of many who live in isolated residential sections. It is a matter of impossibility to sand the whole city at once, or even in a whole day, and complaining citizens must be reasonable. When occasion demands it the city workmen are called out ever on Sunday to make safe walking, a they did a couple of Sundays ago.
