MEMORIAL DAY

The annual observance of Memorial Day, of the three local Lodges of the Knights of Pythias, will be held on Thursday of this week, when the Knights will parade to the cemeteries, and decorate the graves of their departed brethren. This year there will be additional interest in the day, on account of the fact that the plot recently bought by the order in Fernhill will be dedicated. The Knights will be glad to receive flowers from their many friends, and the same may be sent to the Queen's Rink, Charlotte street, on Wednesday afternoon or evening, or early Thursday morning. Any that are sent in from the country by the boats or trains may be addressed to the Knights of Pythias, and will be collected at the warehouses or station, as the case may be.

Bighty-one graves in all are to be decorated with the exception of five. All of these are in local cemeteries. Outside lodges and friends will act for the local Knights who regards those of their comrades who are buried outside of the city.

MAGISTRATE REFUSES TO

ruce McDougall Must Remain in Jail-Wanted to Get Out Until Fridag-Length Discussion.

In the police court yesterday afternon J. C. Sherren, counsel for Bruce Mc-Dougall, made formal application for bail for his client, but after a lengthy discussion between counsel on the matter his honor decided that he would not grant bail to the prisoner in view of the existing conditions.

Mr. Sherren in making the application stated that it was only asked that the prisoner be allowed out on bail be made at any agency, on conditions, by father, mother, son daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties,—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, faughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing razy pre-empt a quarter-section alongsice his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. If sites,—Must reside its months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A hemesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may time a purchased homestead in best ain districts. Price has been decided by him or by his father, mother, son, faughter, brother or a new steamer to be and and cultivate first and control of the city representation of the prisoner should be mentioned in the application. Unless he grant ball, before the court that the names of the prisoner, application, he said.

TORONTO, Aug. 23.—The Great Northern passenger train plunged through a burning bridge near Vancouver, B. C., yesterday and dropped into the gulch 40 feet below. Strange to say there were no fatalities and no one was even seriously hurt. The whole train is a complete wreck and the loss will exceeed twenty-five thousand dollars. The train was going from Grand Forks to Spokane and ran on the bridge before the fire was noticed. A letter has been received at Vernon, B. C., from a man who claims Vernon, B. AMUSEMENTS

NICKEL'S MUSIC BILL A MARVEL opera house seemed to be the effect of sitting out the Nickel's programme last night, for seldom have St. John people been privileged to enjoy so magnificent a list of numbers. Living up to its promises in every particular the management supplied a perfectly lovely evening of music, the Bush Family Quintette vying with the Nickel's Own Orchestra and then the two organizations joining forces in magnificent emsembles. The Quintette played Schumann's "Traumerei" (Dreams) splendidly, and Master Melvin Bush was accorded nothing short of an ovation for his rendering of De Beriot's bolero dance from the Scene de Ballet suite. This lad of sixteen years is certainly a wonder and critics promise him a brilliant future. Together with the orchestra, which was seated on the stage in evening clothes, Suppe's "Poet and Peasant" overture was played, Miss Mary Wylie Bush rendering the 'cello solo in the first part of the overture with exquisite taste and technique. Upon the brilliant finale of this number Conductor Alfred Jones and his fifteen players were accorded a flattering tribute. The Turkish Patrol by Michaelis was the encore number, a dainty bit of descriptive music. In a word the Nickel excelled all its former musical efforts, and those who heard the programme will unquestionably say so. The pictures were brand new and specially good. Same show today. The return of Mr. DeWitt Cairns for a limited engagement was a pleasant item, and his love-song "Because," by D'Hardelot, brough forth unstinted plaudits.
