Friday, 31st, we exercised horses in morning. At 8 o'clock we all rushed on deck to see Father Neptune come day, 19th, we had an undenominational church service; it was con-ducted by the O. C. detachment, Major Merritt. One of the privates read the on board as we crossed the line. As we reached the deck a colored light was being burned from the bridge, and Merritt. One of the privates read the lesson. The singing was very good, having the assistance of a piano-bought by the officers in Halifax. The first horse died today and was prompt-ly thrown overboard. In the afternoon from the bow came a loud cry asking the name of our ship, captain, cargo, destination, all of which information was given from the bridge through the hats were put down on the horse deck and horses taken out of stalls and exmegaphones. A few minutes later Father Neplune, his wife, secretary and staff, proceeded aft to receive the ed. This exercising of the horses sea is one of the advantages of the homage of the captain of the ship and Manhattan over the old Milwaukee. Of officer commanding the detachurse it is only carried on in very ment. Neptune himself, I need hardly say, was a fine specimen of a man: On Monday, 20th, we started clip-ing the horses; some of them seemed a enjoy it and they certainly feel bethis wife (one of the ship's boys) was of radiant beauty; his attendants, though not handsome, looked very serviceable. The barber, especially, with his great razor, made those who had not "crossed the line" begin to ter after getting rid of a long winter coat. On that part of the back where the saddle rests we leave the hair unclipped. This is called a base issiess match." It is claimed a horse issiess wonder. The secretary, after a short table to have a sore back with this speech, proceeded to call the names of. the King's victims as follows: Lieut. Mackay, Lieut. Ashmead, Lieut.

On Wednesday, 22nd, we were fairly Clarkson, Lieut. Farrell, Lieut. Grainto the tropics, and a good many of ham, Lieut. Rodden, Veterinary Lieut. James. Then followed a long list of names from squadron sergeant-majors down to the stowaways (of which we have four). After the names had been the officers and men are sleeping on leck. We passed a bark named Am-zona, bound south. She crossed our vs about a mile away, and several kodaks were at work. LONDON, March 18.—Every department of the King's household is buildy engaged in the stupendous task of preparing for the coronation ceremonies. So very long is the list of foreign princes and ambassadors who will be present that the court officials are at their wits' end to decide how to dispose of His Majesty's guests. Every available room in Buckingham Falace and the other royal residences is already pre-empted and the lord chamberlain is gladly availing him-self of offers of many of the finest residences in London. The Begravia and Buckingham Falace hotels have been requisitioned in their entirety, four houses in Grosvenor square have been taken, and in addition the lord chamberlain has thankfully accepted the profier of Dorchester House, Chesterfield House, Harcourt House and Wimberne House.

The Maharajah of Jeypoor, one of the many Indian notables coming to the corona-tion, today chartered an Anchor line steam-er to convey himself and his suite to Eng-land.
