

BATTLE ROYAL OVER PLANS OF STEEL MERGER

Sir Thomas Gouin Called.

Sir Lomer Gouin was asked to become a director, but just before the meeting, made a definite refusal. However, it may now be taken for granted that he will be one of the leading members of the new board of the British Empire Steel Corporation, and rumor is already coupling his name with the presidency, on the analogy, perhaps of Judge Gary, a lawyer, as head of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

Senator Beaubien represents indirectly, large shareholders, and adds to his rapid advance as a director of industrial companies. Within a very short time he has been appointed as director of the Toronto Railway Company, the Canadian Car and Foundry Company, Atlantic Western, and the Ames Holden McCready, Ltd., and other companies.

In answer to the criticism of L. J. Forst and Co. (Canada) Monday declared that the non-cumulative preferred stock would pay 1, 2 or 3 on every per cent. earned, even if the whole 7 per cent was not.

New Directors

The new Board of Directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation, elected at the annual meeting here Friday, are as follows:
Viscount Furness, London, Ho. Sir Clifford Sifton, Sir Henry Dallas, Sir Wm. McKeen, Sir Wm. D. Reid, Hon. Fred Nichols, Stanley Kilbride, M. P., Hon. Chas. Beaubien, Edmond Bristol, K. C., M. P., J. W. Norcross, Major General, Hon. Sir Newton Moore, Benjamin Talbot, J. S. M. Stewart, H. B. Smith, Roy Wolvin. The directors eliminated from the board are Mark Workman, Wm. McKeen, Hon. J. Forst, Sir H. Montague Allen, whose resignation had been sent in some time ago but not accepted. Gov. Cavell, J. H. Plummer, Toronto, Hon. B. Dandurand, Hector, Halifax, E. R. Wood, Toronto. The advisory committee is Col. Grant Morison, Michael Furness, Sir Wm. D. Reid, Sir Newton Moore, Henry Steel, Benjamin Talbot, Sir A. Trause Dawson. These elections took place without any objection on the part of the disgruntled associates, but not until some time had been indulged in for two hours.

Prior to the adoption of the annual report, J. H. Plummer strongly opposed the negotiations being carried on with so little information furnished to the Board of Directors and the shareholders, and refused step by step the course of these negotiations from the time when President Wolvin assured the Board that no intention of forming a merger was implied in the acquiring of fifty thousand dollars of interest in the company by the London interested parties to the absence of the committee appointed by the Board of Directors to obtain all information possible respecting the company's condition and the merger. The members of the Board, he said, only acquiesced partially in the project, and exercised partial powers in the understanding that the members of the London Board were fully acquainted with and entirely in agreement with the proposal. This idea, however, was destroyed by the telegram from Mark Workman stating he had only just been advised of the proposal, and was opposed to any amalgamation and that Beaubien, Furness and Steele were in agreement with him. The result was their opposition to the project, and the London directors had been carefully investigating the action for injunction, defeated to the courts Thursday. Their position was that as trustees of the shareholders they could not and would not let the matter go further on its present basis.

Wm. McMaster asked that all the cards be laid on the table. He reviewed two points with regards to statements of assets of the British Empire Steel Corporation which could only mean assets and liabilities of the companies entering the merger by a comparison with Nova Scotia unde-

SUPREME COUNCIL TO BE IN SESSION TO-MORROW

Conference Expected to Deal With Constitutionality of Treaty of Versailles—Repatriations Chief Subject.

Montreal, June 20.—Tomorrow's meeting of the Supreme Council here will be held in the Chateau de la Bellin, on the site of the ancient chateau De Tries, where the French and British plenipotentiaries in 1859 signed the treaty by which England gave Boulogne back to France. This fact adds to the sentimental interest which Boulogne takes in the conference.

First of the participants to appear was Viscount Chinda, the Japanese Ambassador to Great Britain, and addressed at the evening service of the Queen Square Methodist Church last evening. The subject of her address was "Unity and Service."

She spoke of the many problems that we have to eliminate from our national life if we are to attain that position that has been proposed for us. She made a stirring plea for all to strive to eradicate the evils that are retarding our spiritual growth and to lay the foundation for a cleaner and better Canada. She paid a tribute to the worthy laboring man and said that we should lay stress on the dignity of honest toil.

She gave a short resume of conditions throughout the country and spoke of the growth of the Peace Movement not only in our spiritual but also in our material life as exemplified by better working and living conditions, the improvement of schools, etc. In referring to the high child mortality rate in Canada she made a strong plea for more clinics for the children and more attention to the child welfare.

Mrs. Allan besides being president of the Local Council of Women in Moose Jaw is also a member of the School Board in her native city, a member of the executive of the board of trustees for the Province and last Vice-president of the Social Service Council.

CANADA-WEST INDIES CONFERENCE ENDED

Statement Issued Gives Evidence of Great Benefits to Result from the Get-Together.

Ottawa, June 20.—A statement issued Saturday afternoon regarding the Canada-West Indies conference said: "The labors of the Canada-West Indies conference have been brought to an end after a session of some days. All the Colonial Governments have been represented which marks a notable advance over the conference of 1912, when some of the most important administrations were not included. The conference was also attended by the Hon. Lt.-Col. Amery, M. P., on behalf of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and by Major J. Edwards, British Trade representative in Canada.

The subjects considered divided themselves into three on the following order of importance: Trade, steam service, transport and cable communication. "Committees were struck to deal with the second and third of the subjects named. On transport Hon. Mr. Ballantyne and Sir George Foster, represented Canada on the subject of cable service, Hon. Mr. Harrell assisted the work of the committee. In both these committees valuable assistance was rendered by Admiral Sir Allan Evershed and some of his staff who, opportunely, happened to be in Ottawa at the time.

The delegates held two sessions daily and, with the exception of a weekend visit to Toronto, Hamilton and Niagara, were steadily at work up to Saturday, June 19, when the conference came to a close.

"An agreement touching the three subjects considered, was concluded and signed by all the representatives to the conference. This agreement is subject to the consideration and approval of the different legislatures, and the approval of the governments represented. This report to the various governments before publication is given. Lt.-Col. Amery's advice and counsel contributed very materially to the success of the conference.

"On the whole it is hoped and believed that the outcome of the 1920 conference will mark a distinct and significant advance in the development of trade and social relations between these two divisions of the British Commonwealth."

Stirring Address On Social Welfare

Mrs. MacDonald of Edmonton, Alberta, Delivered Eloquent Appeal to Congregation in Carleton Methodist Church Last Evening.

A stirring address on Social Welfare and what is being done in that line of endeavor in her own home town was delivered in the Carleton Methodist church last evening by Mrs. MacDonald of Edmonton, Alberta, a delegate to the National Council of Women.

Mrs. MacDonald delivered a most interesting and eloquent appeal to the large congregation, Christ, she said, was the best and most established of social service and it was the duty of all to endeavor to the best of their ability, to live up to the standard He had set. It was not enough that one should save one's self, another duty remained that of saving one's fellow. The greater the sacrifice the greater the reward. Service was not judged by quantity but rather by the sacrifice made in the work.

An essential which should be required of every candidate for public office should be experience in social work. He who possessed not a knowledge of humanity did not know through association what the masses feel, and how they live, was not fit for office.

She urged religious instruction in the school. A Catholic woman had said to her that the public school of Alberta was the only place in the Province in which God was not allowed to enter. It was the duty of the Church to see that the ears of children who had never heard His name but in blasphemy, should learn of His love and their debt to Him.

The head of the Catholic Social Service of her Province, Bishop Legault, had said that it was of no benefit to place delinquent girls in institutions to feed them and clothe them alone, their souls, too, must be fed. Mrs. A. New, leader of the Protestant Social Service said that girls who knew of nothing but wrong and who had lived lives which were absolutely wrong, after being taken into the Home, guarded and protected from evil, returned to the outer world good citizens and changed girls.

An important department of social work had been established in Edmonton in a home for children with broken homes, children who had been deprived of one of their parents. Children in that home had never before the police court. The work was one of prevention, for at the present time the state takes no heed of fatherless or motherless children until they have broken the law, the aim of the home is to care for the children and prevent them from ever breaking the law. It is an object lesson to the State.

The W. C. T. U. was another institution with a power for much good. They had established a home for the center of the foreign population and appointed a nurse to instruct the chil-

Special Sermons By City Clergymen

In Accordance With Request of National Council the Subject Dealing With Women's Work Was Referred to Yesterday From the Pulpit.

In accordance with the request of the National Council, that yesterday sermons should deal with women's work, a number of the city clergymen took this subject dealing with it in various ways. In many of the churches special sermons were preached while in others the subject was referred to in the course of the usual discourse.

In Trinity, Rev. J. H. A. Holmes, rector of St. Jude's who preached in the morning in the absence of Canon Armstrong, took for his text Judges 5-7. "I Deborah arose that I judge a mother in Israel." The central thought of the excellent sermon was that the test of motherhood should be applied to all social service work. Mothers will see that children are fully educated so as to include in their training, spiritual, mental and physical development, in the industrial world the test of motherhood will lead to fairness of wage and fairness of labor. In the home, the mother spirit will teach by example and precept the principles of economy and that thrift when practised rightly will reduce the high cost of living in all phases of life the test of the mother spirit may be applied. Mr. Holmes spoke in St. Jude's in the evening on the same subject before a large and deeply interested congregation.

St. John's Stone Church. At St. John's (Stone) Church the rector, Rev. Canon Kahring at the evening service preached upon "Women as Mother, Wife, Sister and Friend" and in an able sermon dealt with the opportunities of women for good in these various relations of life. Two texts were taken, one from Isaiah 66-13 "As one whom his Mother comforteth" the other St. Matthew 23-13 "Wherever this gospel shall be preached there shall also be told for a memorial of her."

The preacher dwelt very eloquently on mother love, its sacrifice its unselfish character regardless of the worth of the recipient, and how it follows most nearly the Master's commands being exceeded only by God's love.

It is the mother spirit which is working in the reconstruction of the world. It is behind all movements for the care of the sick, aged and little children. While institutions are often organized or built by men, they frequently depend upon women to foster them.

After speaking of the wife's sphere Canon Kahring referred to the sister saying how much can be done by sisters in the home to hold up before their brothers a right ideal of womanhood and that they can be a powerful and uplifting influence.

St. Mary's. Rev. R. Taylor McKim in the evening sermon took the subject of Purty with the text "He that is pure in heart for he shall see God," and referred to woman's influence in the carrying out this command.

COURT DECISION AGAINST AMALGAMATED WORKERS

Grants Permanent Injunction to Michael Sterns Clothing Co. and $100,000 Damages.

Rochester, N. Y., June 20.—Justice Adolph J. Rodenbeck, Saturday, handed down a decision sustaining the Michael Sterns Clothing Company, of that city, in its suit against the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America for a permanent injunction and $100,000 damages. The decision declares that no labor union had the right to make itself into a labor monopoly, and says that the Amalgamated tried to do so by outwitting to undermine, secretly, the United Garment Workers of America of the American Federation of Labor which was recognized in the Michael Sterns factory.

Justice Rodenbeck declared the manner in which the strike of the Amalgamated against the company was conducted was made a conspiracy by the use of threats, intimidation and violence.

Developed deposits being capitalized at one hundred and ninety five million. Dominion Steel should be worth three hundred million in shares. Grant Morison made a "vicious denunciation" of the Amalgamated, and his opponent's argument inaccurate. Roy Wolvin moving adoption of the report took no part in the argument but said the directors had been carefully investigating the action for injunction, defeated to the courts Thursday. Their position was that as trustees of the shareholders they could not and would not let the matter go further on its present basis.

Wm. McMaster asked that all the cards be laid on the table. He reviewed two points with regards to statements of assets of the British Empire Steel Corporation which could only mean assets and liabilities of the companies entering the merger by a comparison with Nova Scotia unde-

Syracuse Oarsmen Won Feature Event

Won by Length and Half Saturday in International Collegiate Regatta; Cornell Second, Columbia Third and Pennsylvania Fourth.

Ithaca, N. Y., June 20.—Syracuse oarsmen won the feature event of the Inter-Collegiate Regatta here on Saturday by a length and a half, after one of the greatest rowing duels ever witnessed in the history of the sport. The race was a grueling contest between Cornell and Syracuse. Columbia was third and Pennsylvania fourth at this stage.

At the one and one-half mile mark Cornell was rowing a 33 stroke, and Syracuse was hitting 32. Within the eight of thousands of spectators grouped near the finish, Stroke Ramit, of the Syracuse crew, called for a spurt. The Syracuse power increased, and 75 yards from the finish the Cornell boat passed the Cornell variety, which was rowing its first race of the season.

The Cornell crew could not regain its lost lead and Syracuse finished across the finish line a strong winner. The freshman race was won by Cornell, who finished four lengths ahead of Syracuse. Pennsylvania was third and Columbia fourth. Time 10:55.

The junior variety event went to Cornell, one and one-half lengths separating them from Syracuse, who finished second. Pennsylvania was third and Columbia fourth. Time 10:55. Perfect weather and water conditions featured the regatta, which was witnessed by crowds of spectators estimated to number from thirty-five thousand to fifty thousand.

The Cornell crew could not regain its lost lead and Syracuse finished across the finish line a strong winner. The freshman race was won by Cornell, who finished four lengths ahead of Syracuse. Pennsylvania was third and Columbia fourth. Time 10:55.

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. What is CASTORIA?

DISCOVER CURE FOR DREAD CANCER

Scientists at Toronto Hospital Believed to Have a Cure and Preventive.

Toronto, Ont., June 20.—What may be the long sought cure and preventive of cancer has been discovered by Dr. T. J. Glover, of St. Michael's Hospital. Members of the hospital staff were reticent about the nature of the cure, which is in the nature of a serum which is injected into the diseased part, and the experimental stage, although proving so far to be effective.

Dr. Glover has been experimenting on the cure for about two years. It is reported that after the first injection, the patients have been relieved of pain and that further treatment has brought about wonderful improvements.
