THE NEW GRAMMAR SCHOOL IN SUSSEX

(Special to The Telegraph.) Halifax, N. S., Sept. 7.—Probably the greatest crowd that has ever been admitted to the exhibition grand stands, witnessed another splendid day's racing this afternoon. Every seat in the grand stand was sold, and hundreds paid for the privilege of standing in the paddock, and in the central enclosure.

The withdrawal of Peachering, the Halifax mare, from the 2.15 class, deadened the interest in this event, as Laura Merrill took the race in straight heats, only one of which was ever in doubt. Major Wilkes, after making a neck and neck finish with the winner in the first heat, broke badly during the second, and was beaten out for second position by Estill Boy.

Sleepy Jack after finishing last in the first heat of the 2.40 trot, went out and won the next three heats and the race. Maiden King getting second money by virtue of winning the first heat.

The 2.30 class trot and pace was called under the sundown rule at the end of the fourth heat, when Queen Marie had the race practically won, having won the third and fourth heats. The final heat of this race will be trotted tomorrow.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Halifax, N. S., Sept. 7.—A crank, armed with an antiquated "bulldog" revolver, was caught near the president's house at Sagamore Hill, by the secret service guards this afternoon.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 7.—A crank, armed with an antiquated "bulldog" revolver, was caught near the president's house at Sagamore Hill, by the secret service guards this afternoon. The man described himself as John Coughlin, a detective, and when stopped by the secret service men, presented a card upon which was inscribed his name and the word "Officer."

Coughlin is supposed to have reached Oyster Bay on the 12.15 train. He walked the three miles to Sagamore Hill, appearing in the grounds shortly after two o'clock. The secret service man tried to order out. The secret service man tried to order out. The secret service man tried to order out.

According to the secret service men, Coughlin told them that he had been fined for three years in an asylum for insanity at Walpole, Mass. He declared that his enemies had placed him in the asylum because of his cleverness as a detective work by graduating from a law school.

At this point, Charles Oberwager, a former president of the Central Federation of Labor, was introduced. He denounced the preceding speakers, declaring Dr. Reisman had preached the doctrine of anarchy.

Alexander Berkman in the Toils Again for Preaching Anarchy—Young Woman Supporter Also Nabbed—Emma Goldman Didn't Wait for Like Treatment.

New York, Sept. 7.—An attempt was made today to turn a meeting of unemployed workmen into an anarchistic demonstration and for half an hour the big meeting hall in Cooper Union, where the meeting took place, was the scene of wild excitement, during which red flags were raised, the police denounced and incendiary speeches made.

Dr. Ben Reisman, who calls himself "King of the Hoaxes," and who was one of the first speakers, announced that his speech had been written by Emma Gold, a woman who present her name as "Mary Smith" fought her way to Berkman's side and urged him to take the platform to defend the anarchistic doctrines in which he believes.

Several bluecoats surrounded Berkman, Emma Goldman tried to reach his side but she was stopped and the police told her to leave the hall or she would be arrested. She obeyed. Then the young woman who present her name as "Mary Smith" fought her way to Berkman's side and urged him to take the platform to defend the anarchistic doctrines in which he believes.

Montreal, Sept. 7.—The Bishop of Fredericton, who has been attending the Pan-Atlantic conference in London, arrived today on the Vancouver from Liverpool. The bishop expressed himself as assured that the results of the conference of men from all corners of the Empire would prove satisfactory to the well being of the church.

ST. STEPHEN CARNIVAL DRAWS GREAT CROWDS

Amherst Firemen Capture First Prize from Many Contestants.

(Special to The Telegraph.) St. Stephen, N. B., Sept. 7.—Today has been real carnival weather, the town has been thronged with visitors who began to arrive on early morning trains, boats and by teams from the surrounding country and continued to come until one of the largest crowds ever seen in town was moving on the streets.

Amherst, Sept. 7.—The annual match of the Amherst Fire Association was held on St. Mary's Range, today, with a gathering of about twenty-five competitors. John E. Page won the Edger Cup match, with a score of 88, at the King's Range. The Association Match, ten shots at 800 yards, was won by William Taylor, of Fredericton, with a score of 44. Page also won the Grand and St. Stanly Cup between teams of five representing Fredericton and Marsville, was won by Fredericton, with a score of 275 to 240.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 7.—Mrs. W. T. Whitehead and a lady friend were thrown from their carriage in front of the Queen Hotel this afternoon, but fortunately escaped without injury. The accident was caused by one of the wheels of the carriage colliding with a hydrant.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 7.—The wool house and fertilizer plant of Armour and Company, in the Union Stock Yards, were destroyed by fire last night. The building was a five-story brick structure, covering an entire block. The fire was the fiercest experienced in the stock yards in seven years and attracted an immense crowd of spectators. The damage is $500,000.
