They fill the Hansard columns with a large and spacious dullness, and the editorial writers—to prove that they are not imperious to dullness, and the editorial writers—to prove that they are not imperious to dullness—write still more badly than the politicians talk. A dull debate is a more tragic thing than a dull article, for the article you are not compelled to read, but to the debate the members are compelled to listen: and now Sir Wilfrid Laurier very unkindly reminds an opponent that it is the duty of members are not only be to look carefully over the votes and proceedings every day. This, we take it, means that the poor members are not only to live. The Anglo-Saxon, on the other hand, starts with an ingrained conviction that the city should do just as little as compelled to listen to a dull speech but to read it afterwards. This makes parliamentary life very serious, if not, indeed, tragic.

A Richibucto School Teacher Once a Dyspeptio-Now Well, Thanks to Father Morriscy's No. 11.

Richibucto, N. B., Nov. 17th 1909. Father Morriscy Med. Co., Ltd., I have been teaching school for up-wards of thirty years, during the last twenty-five of which I have suffered seriously with stomach trouble, indigestion and dyspepsia.

I have tried many remedies, and while I would get temporary relief from some of them, yet the old trouble would return, and with it the sufferings only of them, known to the chronic dyspeptic Last year I had made up my mind to abandon my profession, feeling that in my condition I could neither do justice to myself or to the many pupils under my charge. A friend suggested to me that I try Father Morriscy's No. II Stomach Tablets; I did so, and have continued to use them with the result that my stomach trouble is cured—my indigestion and dyspepsia gone and I feel as well as I ever did. I have, thanks to the Tablets, been able to continue in my profession, and work and am able to give justice to the fifty-four pupils under my care.

Yours Gratefully,

(Signed) MARY CHRYSTAL.

Are you one of the many thousands who, like Miss Chrystal, are prevented from doing their best work, or really enjoying life, by stomach trouble?

If you are you cannot do better than she did—take Father Morriscy's No. 11

Each No. 11 Tablet, when dissolved in the stomach, will digest 11/2 pounds of food—a good, hearty meal—so that no matter how weak your stomach may be No. 11 Tablets will enable you to get the nourishment out of your food and build up your strength, while the stomach, thus relieved, recovers its vigor, 50c. a box at your dealer's or from the Pather Morriscy Medicine Co., Ltd.,

> Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

I went to roost without a dime, and there I lay for hours and dreamed that I was John D. Morganheim, and wealth into my coffers streamed. I watched my speedy minions flee to dump the bullion in the banks, and sleuths forever walked with me, protecting me from wicked cranks. The world sent forth its host of bores, and mendicants in serried squad filled all the landscape out of doors, and tried to get my coin away; they poked me sorely in the slats, and kept in humping night and day: In solemn state I seemed to sup, and sleep less tossed upon my bed; and interviewers called me up and twiste everything I said: I had no pleasant hours to while away at gan loved before; I mounted guard upon my pile, and counted sach of gold and swore. I had no friends; I had men's hate, and I pected other men of low down schemes to swipe a crate of my green, and then again. I had no comrades; uncles, aunts, and my kindred eyed my till, and changed to cringing sycophants that they might figure in my will. And O, the joy when from this dream to cheerful poverty I woke! I uttered one long gladsome scream, an cried: "Thank heaven, I am broke!"
