

FROM ALL THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, March 27—Among Rothsay residents in Boston for Easter and who returned home this week were Mr. Harry F. Piddington and his son, Mr. Elmer Piddington, who arrived by noon train yesterday.

Mr. Tom Gilbert, of the Halifax branch of the Royal Bank, who has been here for a few days visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gilbert, returned to Halifax on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey, two children, and Mrs. Skinner, of St. John, were here by automobile on Sunday and visited their summer home in the park. The party had dinner at Kennedy's.

The public school reopened yesterday with Mrs. Murray returning from St. John, where she spent the holidays. Mr. Scott, the principal, remained in Rothsay for Easter vacation.

The Willing Workers' Circle met last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. G. H. Burnett, at her handsome new residence, Fair Vale.

Miss Pitcher, of Netherwood, left on Tuesday to visit friends at Ottawa.

Rev. W. R. Hibbard and Mrs. Hibbard, College Hill, came home yesterday from Boston, where they spent Easter.

A dainty luncheon was given on Tuesday by Mrs. Frederic Foster, whose guests were Mrs. Herbert Schofield, Miss Hinton and Mrs. J. L. McAvity, of St. John, and Mrs. Andrew Blair and Miss Christie, Rothsay.

A wedding of much interest here took place in St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Fredericton, on Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Kathleen Hodge, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hodge, of Fredericton, was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson, of Rothsay. Mr. Davidson is the new manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary, Alberta, and was for some years resident here. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Smith. Among those attending as guests from Rothsay were Mrs. H. J. Davidson and Miss Alice Davidson, mother and sister of the groom; Mr. John H. Davidson, a brother, and Mrs. Davidson, Miss Nan Brock and Mr. John Brock who was groomsmen. Many friends here are expressing hearty good wishes for a happy marriage.

Mr. John H. Thomson returned home on Tuesday from a pleasant visit to New Glasgow, where she was the guest of Miss Carmichael. Mrs. Thomson is planning a trip to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Daniel, of St. John, were guests of Rev. A. W. and Mrs. Daniel on Friday.

Miss Lorna Pitt, of Bermuda, pupil of Netherwood, spent the Easter holidays at the Kennedy House.

Miss Ethel Kennedy received a warm welcome home on Friday after an absence of some months spent with friends in New York and Boston.

A very successful tea, sale and concert was held last evening in the hall at Netherwood under the auspices of the Hammond River branch of the Women's Christian Association, and among those going from Rothsay being Rev. A. W. Daniel, Mrs. Cecil West, Miss Georgie Treuman, Mr. John D. Purdy, Mr. West and Mrs. West, Mr. and Mrs. George Treuman, which were most enjoyed.

Rothsay Collegiate school reopened yesterday after the Easter vacation.

at present a student at Acadia College, Wolfville, spent part of the holidays in Shediac, the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moore, Mr. Chas. Moore, of Moncton, was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Moore for Easter.

Miss Lena Tait has returned from St. John, where she spent the holidays with friends in Halifax.

Master Robert McQueen, who recently returned from the Moncton hospital, where he was undergoing an operation for his throat, is improving nicely.

Miss Fraser, professional nurse, who spent the week for Boston, where she intends undergoing hospital treatment.

The ladies of the Presbyterian sewing circle are being entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. Chas. Harper, at the home of Mrs. George Coffey, who spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Conductor and Mrs. John Coffey in town. She returned on Wednesday to her studies in Moncton.

Ferdinand Robidoux, M. P., was the guest for the Easter vacation of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Robidoux, returned from St. John, where he spent the holidays at the home of Mrs. Robidoux.

Miss Cameron MacDougall, who has been spending the past fortnight at her home in town, returned to Sussex this week.

Mr. A. McEneaney was recently the guest of relatives in Moncton.

Miss Eleanor Tait and Master Allan Tait, who have been enjoying the past week at their home in town, have returned to their studies at Sackville.

Mr. J. W. Murray spent Sunday with friends in Moncton.

Miss Mabel MacEneaney returned to Newcastle on Monday from a few days spent in town, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry O'Neil.

Miss Fraser, professional nurse, at Mt. Allison, and Miss Hawley, of the local department, were guests for the holidays of Mrs. J. Livingstone, returning to Sackville on Wednesday. Mrs. F. Knight, of Moncton, and her sister, Mrs. Livingstone, for a short while recently.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, March 27—Mrs. Volckman, of Millerton, spent a few days of last week in town, the guest of Mrs. William Sinclair.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, March 26—H. F. Paine, of Regina, is visiting his mother, Mrs. C. H. Paine.

Mr. Eisenhart and little daughter, who has been spending some weeks with Rev. David and Mrs. Hickey, have left for their home in Boston.

Mr. Frederick Prescott, provincial director of manual training, has returned to Fredericton after spending Easter at his home in Port Elgin.

Miss Nellie Copp is spending a few days with her parents in St. John.

Mrs. David Allison, Jr., and Miss Jennie Richardson are visiting friends in Fredericton this week.

Mr. Charles Stewart, of Dalhousie, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Woodworth.

Mrs. William Campbell is the guest of Mrs. William McLeod, Sussex.

Miss Campbell spent Easter Sunday in Shediac, occupying the pulpit of the Methodist church in that town.

Miss Kate Ford has returned from St. John where she spent the holidays with friends.

Lieutenant Governor Wood, Mrs. Wood and F. B. Black, A. D. C., spent the Easter season at their home here.

The death of Mr. Harry Crooker occurred on Wednesday afternoon at the age of 35 years. He was a victim of tuberculosis, being ill for over a year. He had spent the past few years in Hartford (Conn.), where he was a typewriter operator. The funeral services on Friday afternoon were largely attended and conducted by Rev. H. Cam.

David Burke passed away at her home in Shediac on Tuesday at the age of 82 years. She is survived by a husband, son and daughter, who mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Miss Helen Wiggins has taken a position as stenographer at the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Mrs. F. B. Black was at home to a large number of her city friends on Saturday afternoon. Her handsome new home in York street, recently purchased from Mr. Fred Ryan. The previous and present room decorated with spring flowers, presenting a charming appearance and the occasion was a delightful one.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Fawcett, who have spent the past few weeks travelling in England have returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Knapp are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter.

R. G. Henderson has purchased the Powett-Copp block in Bridge street, one part of which he carries on his drug and book business.

Mr. George Ford, of Toronto, was the guest of Mr. Lord's father at Lord's Hotel.

The young ladies club of St. Paul's church was entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Gates Fawcett. The party was enjoyed in the evening by a number of young gentlemen friends and a delightful time was spent in dancing.

Mrs. Margaret, of Moncton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. Atkinson.

Mrs. Ness, who has spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. H. Miller, is now at her home in Moncton.

Miss Lucy Logan left last week to join her mother, H. J. Logan at Amherst on her return from the west.

Miss Ruth Thurber, of the Hampton Consolidated School staff, is the guest of friends here.

Miss M. A. Weldon, of Moncton, is re-novating her home.

Mr. Geo. W. White, manager of the Bank of Montreal in town, returned Monday evening from a trip of a few days to Woodstock.

Mr. Claude Moore, of Moncton, who is

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

HAMPTON VILLAGE

Hampton Village, March 27—Misses Cora Bennett, Anna Ganong, Hilda Gallagher and Gladys Smith, teachers, spent the Easter holidays at their homes here.

Miss Joan Adams, of Newcastle, has been the guest of her sister, Miss Mary Adams.

Miss Dorothy Gowily has been spending a few days in St. John.

Miss Hubbard, of Burton, is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hieks, of North River, have been visiting Rev. I. B. and Mrs. Coteau.

Miss Ora Fisher, a student at Mount Allison University, spent the holidays at her home, Lakeside.

Miss Florence Robertson has returned to Hartland after spending her holidays here.

Mr. Walter Scribner, of St. John, spent Sunday at his home here.

Mrs. Harry P. Cowan was hostess on Tuesday afternoon at a five o'clock tea. The invited guests were Mrs. Beard, Mrs. J. W. Murray, Mr. S. King, Mrs. J. W. Murray, Miss Jeffrey, Miss Hubbard, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. J. H. Chipman, Mrs. H. Seely, Mrs. T. B. Colwell, Mrs. W. S. Morrison, Mrs. J. W. Murray, and Mrs. J. W. Murray, by her niece, Miss Madeline Fiewelling, and in serving by Miss Lida Bailey and Miss Hieks Howard.

Mrs. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

ad to these young ladies by presenting them with handsome pieces of lingerie. Those present were Misses Edith Treuman, Alice Lord, Jessie Knapp, Nellie Copp, Edna James, Violet Keldop, Dorelle Hamilton, Jean Howard, Grace Avarid, Jean Rainnie, Clementine Picard, Minnie Thomas, Neta Chartiers, Edna Humphrey, Glennie Hanson, Emma Fillard, Violet Richardson, Mabel Filmore, Kathleen Smith and others.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

draughtsman in the crown lands department, has resigned his position and will leave for Toronto, where he will open an office as land surveyor. He was a capable official and his departure will be much regretted.

Mr. G. G. Grimmer is here on departmental business.

Fredericton, March 26—Lieut. Dawson, of St. John, and Lieut. Sprout, of Hampton, who have been taking a special course at the Military Academy, completed their duties this morning. Lieut. H. F. G. Woodbridge of the 71st York Regiment, returned this morning for a special course at the Military Academy.

Before Judge Barry, argument in the appeal brought by the St. John and Quebec Railway Company from the arbitrator's decision in the matter of the right of way over the Odell estate property in this city was heard today. The arbitrator in the case were Edward Bates, St. John; Ald. Moses Mitchell, of this city, and John Connor, of Woodstock. They made an award of $3,000 to the railway company. Mr. Connor, the company's arbitrator, did not join in the decision. This morning, J. B. M. Baxter argued on behalf of the company in favor of the appeal, contending that the evidence as produced did not justify the decision which the arbitrators reached, and that the right of way was not in the railway company. $1,000, M. G. Tied argued on behalf of the Odell estate against the appeal.

The city council met in committee last Friday night and fixed the amount of the assessment for 1913 at $90,000, an increase of $3,000 over last year. On the casting vote of the Mayor, a publicity grant was fixed at $2,000, a reduction of $1,000 from the previous year. The assessment on the Odell estate was reduced to $1,000 and the work attended to by one of the city officials.

The ice in the main river at Ormiston broke up and ran out several days ago. The river is rising steadily, and it is believed that the ice opposite the city will go in the course of a few days.

The estate of the late James Burden was probated Friday at $1,500 personal property.

Frederick Smith of Lincoln, died Friday night from pneumonia after a week's illness, aged ninety-four. He was a justice of the peace and was widely known. His wife, three sons and two daughters survive.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, March 26—St. Paul's church was on Tuesday afternoon the scene of a brilliant wedding and one of much interest socially on account of the popularity of the bride, Miss Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hodge, who was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Cameron Davidson, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Diebary (Alta.) and son of Mrs. W. J. Davidson of Rothsay.

The ceremony was officiated in the presence of a large congregation. The handsome pulpit platform was almost hidden with the wealth of spring flowers and garlands used in the decorations. The bridal party, entering the church was preceded by the ushers, Mr. H. W. Binning, of this city, and Mr. Alex. Turner, of Chipman, the bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Hodge and Miss Marjorie Massey, following. The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked very sweet and winsome in a lovely gown of ivory crepe charmeuse trimmed with Brussels lace and a beautiful bouquet of carnations and roses.

The groom, Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, was supported by Mr. John Brock, of Rothsay, and Mr. J. H. Wood and Mrs. Drummer, of St. John, are spending a few days in Hampton, the guests of Mrs. A. W. Hieks.

Miss Margaret Adams has returned to Fredericton to resume her studies at the university. Miss Helen Desmond also returned this week to Fredericton, where she is attending the Provincial Normal School.

Miss Lida Bailey has returned from a visit to her home in Newcastle.

Mr. Bayard Colwell spent his holidays with relatives in St. John.

Mrs. Campbell, of St. John, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belding.

Mr. Douglas Dixon, principal of the superior school at Hopewell Cape, spent the holidays here.

Mr. James William Hammond, who accompanied the remains of his father, Mr. J. B. Hammond, here for burial on Tuesday, returned to Boston today.

Professor W. S. Raymond, of the U. N. B., was in town this week.

Miss Fowler and Miss Laura Manning visited the latter's home in Norton this week.

town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Alexander, and returned to Chatham Tuesday morning accompanied by Mrs. Hope W. Wesley McDonald, of St. John Business College, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McDonald.

Miss Adelen McInnes, of Moncton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. T. LeBlanc, in Montreal.

Mrs. J. J. Bruce has returned from a visit to New Mills.

Mrs. Mary Alexander spent Tuesday in Dalhousie, the guest of Mrs. Thomas Scott.

Miss Hazel Lindsay, of U. N. B., Fredericton, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Langley.

Mr. Jack Malcolm, of St. Andrew's College, Toronto, spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Malcolm.

Miss M. J. Jones, of Mount Allison, spent the holidays at her home here.

Mr. Douglas McInair has returned to Wolfville to resume his studies.

Mr. E. O'Donnell left last week for a trip to St. John.</