

Weekly Tribune. WITH SUPPLEMENT. ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 16, 1874.

To Our Friends.

The success of the Weekly Tribune, since its first issue, has exceeded our most sanguine expectations, and we feel compelled to make some acknowledgment to our many friends for the kind interest they have taken in extending its circulation.

The Government organs put the Cabinet wangle over the successor to Mr. Dorion mildly. Mr. Smith, we are told, declined the portfolio of Justice because the portfolio of Marine must be held by a Member of the House.

Westminster politicians are lively, as will be seen by the correspondence from that County. The struggle seems to be a personal one entirely, as two of the Opposition are staunch non-sectarian.

The defeat, in every English County, of every man identified with the opposition to the Common Schools Act, and of every man, no matter how sound on the educational question, whom the repealers and separatists supported, should be a lesson needing no repetition.

The Standard, in advocating the resurrection of the St. Andrew's party, is not only a member of the party, but interested in wishing the company re-organized.

Thursday was a non-election day in York. The eight candidates already announced as candidates, two full tickets, were nominated, and speech-making of the usual kind was indulged in.

Copier Earle held an inquest on the body of Master Fred. Allan, Saturday afternoon. From the evidence it was proved that the shooting was entirely accidental.

The Calais Advertiser says: "The busiest, hardest working and most successful lawyer at our late term of Court was Hon. Joseph Desautels."

In Lowell, Mass., Mary Robinson, aged 29 years, was sitting on the floor with her head resting on a chair. Death was the result of an epileptic fit.

The editors of the Hamilton Spectator and Dundas Banner are sagely telling each other what they know about the construction of a new church since the collection box mysteriously disappeared one evening, and a few days afterwards appeared in public with a new paper shell.

A Macon negro philosopher, discussing the relations of the sexes, said: "You know de turkey, he roost on de fence, and de goose he roost on de ground. You will de turkey of de fence, and you will get up again. You crop his wings, and somebody or sadder he's gine to get back on de fence. Now you put the goose on de fence as he will fall off; he don't belong dar. De turkey an de white man. He's down now, but he's gine to get up again. He bigger an de goose. He better stay whar he belongs."

The Cause of a Victory. "Honor to whom honor is due." The victory in Queen's is undoubtedly the result of the speech made at the meetings, in that County, on nomination day, by the Hon. Edward Willis, M. E. C.

vince." Mr. Willis's speech dispelled all fears, removed all doubts, and aroused an enthusiasm in behalf of "the Ticket, the Whole Ticket and nothing but the Ticket" that swept away the obstacles in its path.

The Government organs put the Cabinet wangle over the successor to Mr. Dorion mildly. Mr. Smith, we are told, declined the portfolio of Justice because the portfolio of Marine must be held by a Member of the House.

Westminster politicians are lively, as will be seen by the correspondence from that County. The struggle seems to be a personal one entirely, as two of the Opposition are staunch non-sectarian.

The defeat, in every English County, of every man identified with the opposition to the Common Schools Act, and of every man, no matter how sound on the educational question, whom the repealers and separatists supported, should be a lesson needing no repetition.

The Standard, in advocating the resurrection of the St. Andrew's party, is not only a member of the party, but interested in wishing the company re-organized.

Thursday was a non-election day in York. The eight candidates already announced as candidates, two full tickets, were nominated, and speech-making of the usual kind was indulged in.

Copier Earle held an inquest on the body of Master Fred. Allan, Saturday afternoon. From the evidence it was proved that the shooting was entirely accidental.

The Calais Advertiser says: "The busiest, hardest working and most successful lawyer at our late term of Court was Hon. Joseph Desautels."

In Lowell, Mass., Mary Robinson, aged 29 years, was sitting on the floor with her head resting on a chair. Death was the result of an epileptic fit.

The editors of the Hamilton Spectator and Dundas Banner are sagely telling each other what they know about the construction of a new church since the collection box mysteriously disappeared one evening, and a few days afterwards appeared in public with a new paper shell.

A Macon negro philosopher, discussing the relations of the sexes, said: "You know de turkey, he roost on de fence, and de goose he roost on de ground. You will de turkey of de fence, and you will get up again. You crop his wings, and somebody or sadder he's gine to get back on de fence. Now you put the goose on de fence as he will fall off; he don't belong dar. De turkey an de white man. He's down now, but he's gine to get up again. He bigger an de goose. He better stay whar he belongs."

The Cause of a Victory. "Honor to whom honor is due." The victory in Queen's is undoubtedly the result of the speech made at the meetings, in that County, on nomination day, by the Hon. Edward Willis, M. E. C.

The Cause of a Victory. "Honor to whom honor is due." The victory in Queen's is undoubtedly the result of the speech made at the meetings, in that County, on nomination day, by the Hon. Edward Willis, M. E. C.

The Cause of a Victory. "Honor to whom honor is due." The victory in Queen's is undoubtedly the result of the speech made at the meetings, in that County, on nomination day, by the Hon. Edward Willis, M. E. C.

The Cause of a Victory. "Honor to whom honor is due." The victory in Queen's is undoubtedly the result of the speech made at the meetings, in that County, on nomination day, by the Hon. Edward Willis, M. E. C.

THE LOST PEN. Oh, that I were a pen! Oh, that I were a pen! A pen that would write me: And that I could be a pen! Prepared by that "Heavenly Being" The Head of that "Heavenly Being" This young man had a pen. An pen which I could not lose. For once I had it, I had it. To write the words that I would say. To write the words that I would say. To write the words that I would say.

Dr. Gershom drew his weeping niece to his bosom and gently whispered: "Stay with me, Mary, and give him hope, strength and courage. While I give him such medicine as I have to give, be it yours, my dear child, drive away from his labors what you can, and make his labors light. Let us do this and let us do it well."

UNLOCKING A HEART. At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

At the age of thirty Allan Moore married, taking for his wife pretty Mary Gershom. He had been waiting until he could open his heart to the girl who came to him like a new life and independence, and when he said "independently," he meant that he would not be dependent on others for a home.

Three elections were held on Saturday and resulted in the triumphant return in every instance of Free School men. In Northumberland Messrs. Kelly, Tweedie, Davidson and Swin were elected. The returns are: Kelly, 1250; Adams, 1108; Tweedie, 1269; Gough, 1102; Davidson, 1269; Gillespie, 1004; Swin, 1267.

Four male prisoners were supported on the night and left by female in the dock on Monday. The females, Mary, Mary and Ellen Hill, were discharged of first. Both confessed to having been in the room in Carmarthen street, and were fined 50 or two months gaol; the latter in King street, fined 25.

Michael Driscoll confessed to being drunk on Saturday in the dock. It was his first appearance and he said he was sorry for it. He was fined 10 or 14 days. He was allowed to go on promising to take the pledge.

Wm. McVade, of Nova Scotia, objected to being fined 84 for drunkenness on his own recognizance, as he had no money to pay the required fee. In default he was committed to the workhouse for 14 days.

A broken creel in the old 24 inch main near Donovan's, on the March bridge, on Saturday afternoon. One of the pipes, by the pressure of the water, was split from end to end and the water poured out, throwing up the road and forming a miniature ocean.

Shipping News. The brig Omber of this port, which put back to Norfolk some time since in distress, was sent, June 10th, by the U. S. Marshal, for $3,100, to Lord, Claridge & Co. of Baltimore, who will employ her in the West India trade.

The Police Magistrate's in Dorchester, and Justice McVade's in quickly disposed of. An Nickerson was charged with being drunk and disorderly in Sheffield street, and was committed to the workhouse for two months in the penitentiary, where also he had been before.

Justice McVade again presided at the Police Court, and had a few cases to dispose of. John Bourke disturbed the sanctity of the dock by indulging in a drunken slumber. As this place is reserved especially as a resting place for sailors and children, a fine of 25 was imposed on John for daring to invade the sacred precincts.

Patrick Murphy acknowledged a like offence in Carmarthen street, and must also pay 25. Hugh MacKinnon was charged with assaulting Peter Smith and denied it. The evidence of the complainant fully proved the charge, and a fine of 25 was imposed.

John Sweeney went to the station for protection and was let go. Before going he related what might be called a checkered life. Born of wealthy but respectable parents at the Cape of Good Hope his father holding an important Government office there, he left home to seek his fortunes in the United States.

Alfred Fitzpatrick, who is evidently a nice young man to have the care of valuable horses, took a $600 mare and a $900 buggy from his father's stable Sunday, and drove out to show the animal's speed and his own skill.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

Three elections were held on Saturday and resulted in the triumphant return in every instance of Free School men. In Northumberland Messrs. Kelly, Tweedie, Davidson and Swin were elected. The returns are: Kelly, 1250; Adams, 1108; Tweedie, 1269; Gough, 1102; Davidson, 1269; Gillespie, 1004; Swin, 1267.

Four male prisoners were supported on the night and left by female in the dock on Monday. The females, Mary, Mary and Ellen Hill, were discharged of first. Both confessed to having been in the room in Carmarthen street, and were fined 50 or two months gaol; the latter in King street, fined 25.

Michael Driscoll confessed to being drunk on Saturday in the dock. It was his first appearance and he said he was sorry for it. He was fined 10 or 14 days. He was allowed to go on promising to take the pledge.

Wm. McVade, of Nova Scotia, objected to being fined 84 for drunkenness on his own recognizance, as he had no money to pay the required fee. In default he was committed to the workhouse for 14 days.

A broken creel in the old 24 inch main near Donovan's, on the March bridge, on Saturday afternoon. One of the pipes, by the pressure of the water, was split from end to end and the water poured out, throwing up the road and forming a miniature ocean.

Shipping News. The brig Omber of this port, which put back to Norfolk some time since in distress, was sent, June 10th, by the U. S. Marshal, for $3,100, to Lord, Claridge & Co. of Baltimore, who will employ her in the West India trade.

The Police Magistrate's in Dorchester, and Justice McVade's in quickly disposed of. An Nickerson was charged with being drunk and disorderly in Sheffield street, and was committed to the workhouse for two months in the penitentiary, where also he had been before.

Justice McVade again presided at the Police Court, and had a few cases to dispose of. John Bourke disturbed the sanctity of the dock by indulging in a drunken slumber. As this place is reserved especially as a resting place for sailors and children, a fine of 25 was imposed on John for daring to invade the sacred precincts.

Patrick Murphy acknowledged a like offence in Carmarthen street, and must also pay 25. Hugh MacKinnon was charged with assaulting Peter Smith and denied it. The evidence of the complainant fully proved the charge, and a fine of 25 was imposed.

John Sweeney went to the station for protection and was let go. Before going he related what might be called a checkered life. Born of wealthy but respectable parents at the Cape of Good Hope his father holding an important Government office there, he left home to seek his fortunes in the United States.

Alfred Fitzpatrick, who is evidently a nice young man to have the care of valuable horses, took a $600 mare and a $900 buggy from his father's stable Sunday, and drove out to show the animal's speed and his own skill.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

By Telegraph. Canadian, British and Foreign. (Special to the Tribune.) OTTAWA, June 9. Both branches of the Free School Society have decided upon union terms.

At a meeting of the Kirk Synod to-day Gavin Lang submitted a proposition from the Free School Society for the formation of a Church Temperance Society, to which moderate drinkers should be admitted. The proposition was accepted.

Burned Out—The Reconstruction of the Cabinet. OTTAWA, June 10. Lesser's block, Wellington st., containing five stores and a large public hall, was burned last night.

The Cabinet met at an early hour yesterday and remained in session nearly all day without succeeding in settling the differences that have arisen respecting the filling of the vacancies and the redistribution of portfolios.

It affords me great pleasure to bear testimony to the benefits I have received from using Farrow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. I have recommended it to many of my friends, and it has proved an excellent curative for nervousness and general debility.

A broken creel in the old 24 inch main near Donovan's, on the March bridge, on Saturday afternoon. One of the pipes, by the pressure of the water, was split from end to end and the water poured out, throwing up the road and forming a miniature ocean.

Shipping News. The brig Omber of this port, which put back to Norfolk some time since in distress, was sent, June 10th, by the U. S. Marshal, for $3,100, to Lord, Claridge & Co. of Baltimore, who will employ her in the West India trade.

The Police Magistrate's in Dorchester, and Justice McVade's in quickly disposed of. An Nickerson was charged with being drunk and disorderly in Sheffield street, and was committed to the workhouse for two months in the penitentiary, where also he had been before.

Justice McVade again presided at the Police Court, and had a few cases to dispose of. John Bourke disturbed the sanctity of the dock by indulging in a drunken slumber. As this place is reserved especially as a resting place for sailors and children, a fine of 25 was imposed on John for daring to invade the sacred precincts.

Patrick Murphy acknowledged a like offence in Carmarthen street, and must also pay 25. Hugh MacKinnon was charged with assaulting Peter Smith and denied it. The evidence of the complainant fully proved the charge, and a fine of 25 was imposed.

John Sweeney went to the station for protection and was let go. Before going he related what might be called a checkered life. Born of wealthy but respectable parents at the Cape of Good Hope his father holding an important Government office there, he left home to seek his fortunes in the United States.

Alfred Fitzpatrick, who is evidently a nice young man to have the care of valuable horses, took a $600 mare and a $900 buggy from his father's stable Sunday, and drove out to show the animal's speed and his own skill.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

By Telegraph. Canadian, British and Foreign. (Special to the Tribune.) OTTAWA, June 9. Both branches of the Free School Society have decided upon union terms.

At a meeting of the Kirk Synod to-day Gavin Lang submitted a proposition from the Free School Society for the formation of a Church Temperance Society, to which moderate drinkers should be admitted. The proposition was accepted.

Burned Out—The Reconstruction of the Cabinet. OTTAWA, June 10. Lesser's block, Wellington st., containing five stores and a large public hall, was burned last night.

The Cabinet met at an early hour yesterday and remained in session nearly all day without succeeding in settling the differences that have arisen respecting the filling of the vacancies and the redistribution of portfolios.

It affords me great pleasure to bear testimony to the benefits I have received from using Farrow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. I have recommended it to many of my friends, and it has proved an excellent curative for nervousness and general debility.

A broken creel in the old 24 inch main near Donovan's, on the March bridge, on Saturday afternoon. One of the pipes, by the pressure of the water, was split from end to end and the water poured out, throwing up the road and forming a miniature ocean.

Shipping News. The brig Omber of this port, which put back to Norfolk some time since in distress, was sent, June 10th, by the U. S. Marshal, for $3,100, to Lord, Claridge & Co. of Baltimore, who will employ her in the West India trade.

The Police Magistrate's in Dorchester, and Justice McVade's in quickly disposed of. An Nickerson was charged with being drunk and disorderly in Sheffield street, and was committed to the workhouse for two months in the penitentiary, where also he had been before.

Justice McVade again presided at the Police Court, and had a few cases to dispose of. John Bourke disturbed the sanctity of the dock by indulging in a drunken slumber. As this place is reserved especially as a resting place for sailors and children, a fine of 25 was imposed on John for daring to invade the sacred precincts.

Patrick Murphy acknowledged a like offence in Carmarthen street, and must also pay 25. Hugh MacKinnon was charged with assaulting Peter Smith and denied it. The evidence of the complainant fully proved the charge, and a fine of 25 was imposed.

John Sweeney went to the station for protection and was let go. Before going he related what might be called a checkered life. Born of wealthy but respectable parents at the Cape of Good Hope his father holding an important Government office there, he left home to seek his fortunes in the United States.

Alfred Fitzpatrick, who is evidently a nice young man to have the care of valuable horses, took a $600 mare and a $900 buggy from his father's stable Sunday, and drove out to show the animal's speed and his own skill.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.

James Orr confessed to drunkenness in Mill street, and was fined 25. Dennis Flynn, a youth of 16, confessed to the same offence, having been found lying drunk on the North Wharf, and had the same fine imposed.