"Indigenous Bitters"

*The most economic and at the same time
the most effectual stomachic, and aid to digestion.*

The INDIGENOUS BITTERS owe their popularity to the most important qualities which any medicinal preparations could have: an efficiency at all times certain, the absence of any dangerous ingredients and a moderate price.

The INDIGENOUS BITTERS consist of a combination in exact proportions of a large number of roots and barks, highly valuable, on account of their medicinal virtues, as tonics, stomachics, digestives and carminatives.

HEADACHE, DIZZINESS, NAUSEA and GENERAL LASSITUDE, are most frequently the result of derangement of the stomach, and in such cases the INDIGENOUS BITTERS never fail to afford prompt relief, and most frequently even a perfect cure.

The INDIGENOUS BITTERS are sold in retail, in all respectable Drug Stores in the Dominion, in Sets, boxes only, containing sufficient quantity to make three or four 3 half pint bottles
