

duty of such Secretary-Treasurer to give such security for the correct and safe keeping and forthcoming (when called for) of the papers and moneys belonging to the Corporation, as may be required by a majority of the Trustees;* to keep a record of all their proceedings, in a book procured for that purpose; to receive and account for all school moneys collected by rate-bill, subscription, or otherwise, from the inhabitants of such school section; to disburse such moneys in such manner as may be directed by the majority of the Trustees.†

(2) Collector of School Rates and his duties

Secondly. To appoint, if they shall think it expedient, a Collector (who may also be Secretary-Treasurer)‡ to collect the rates they have imposed, or shall impose upon the inhabitants of their school section, or which the said inhabitants may have subscribed; and to pay to such Collector, at the rate of not less than five or more than ten per cent., on the moneys collected by him for his trouble in collecting; and every collector shall give such security as may be satisfactory to the Trustees,§ and shall have the same powers, by virtue of a warrant,§ signed by a majority of the Trustees [and sealed with their corporate seal], in collecting the school-rate or subscription, and shall proceed in the same manner,¶ as ordinary Collectors of County and Township rates or assessments. * For Form see page 32.

† The forty-third section of this Act provides a remedy against a defaulting Secretary-Treasurer. Should the Trustees neglect to take security, they become personally responsible should any loss be sustained thereby. See page 88.

‡ By the twenty-first section of the Upper Canada Supplementary School Act of 1853, School Trustees can appoint one of their own number to act as a collector of school fees. See page 34.

§ For Form of this security, see note b, on page 32. For Form of Rate-bill, &c., see note d, page 33.

(a) POWERS and Duties of COLLECTORS of School Rates.

These "powers" of, and the mode of "proceeding" observed by Township and County Collectors, are prescribed in the Upper Canada Assess-
