The Brampton Excelsiors have the Oakville Clippers to blame for their humiliating 21-5 loss to Mississauga Sullivan Homes Friday night at Clarkson Arena.

The supercharged Sullivan Homes entry into the Central Ontario Junior B Lacrosse Association were still sizzling from their 19-12 debacle in Oakville 48 hours earlier and took out their frustrations on

After the usually potent Excelsiors jumped into a quick 2-0 lead, Mississauga decided that was enough and took complete control of the game.

"I think our guys were disappointed to lose in Oakville. That definitely had something to do with our play against Brampton," analysed coach Ron Wannamaker.

Even though the triumph came on home turf. Wan-namaker was elated to see his charges put it to Brampton. "After Brampton scored the first two goals, we started playing lacrosse like we can play the game," offered Wan-
