

Rivers crossing boundary, 23; under treaty, 30; under Gibbons-Clinton draft, 31,38

Rivers flowing from boundary waters, 23, 38

Rivers tributary to boundary waters, 23,30,31-35, 38

Root, Elihu (Secretary of State), negotiations with Mr Bryce, submits alternative draft treaty, 7; advocates independent treatment of certain questions, 8; submits draft treaty re St Mary and Milk Rivers, 9; submits draft treaty re Niagara falls, 9; objection to governing principles, 8,9,10; his counter proposals, 10-11, 19; concedes navigation as paramount interest on Great Lakes, 11,12; attitude of U.S.Government, 14,15; appreciates value of tribunal, 22; on St Mary and Milk Rivers apportionment, 48; on governing principles, 53; arbitration clause, 58; suggests power to administer oaths, 60; on Senate resolution, 61,63,65

Root draft treaty, 7,18,20

St Mary and Milk Rivers, Root's draft treaty, 9,20; provisions of final treaty, 48; Mr Bryce on, 48; Mr Root on, 48; views of Canadian government, 48-49; Anderson on, 49-50; Dr King on, 50-51; Magrath on, 51; Sir Wilfrid Laurier on, 51; Oliver on, 51; Mr Borden on, 51; Pugsley on, 51

Sault Ste Marie, provisions of Senate resolution, 6; negotiations, 62; discussed in House of Commons, 63; U.S.Attorney-General's opinion, 63-65; Root's views, 65; Mr Knox on, 66; Aylesworth's views, 67-68; case in U.S. Supreme Court, 67-68

Signal lights of vessels, in draft treaty, 18

Smith, W.A. (U.S.Senate) Senate resolution re Sault Ste Marie diversions, 61,62,65

Sources, 1

Spirit of Treaty, 13-17, 18-22

Supreme Court of United States, on boundary at Sault Ste Marie, 67

Tawney, James A., scope of treaty, 16

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers

Memoranda & Notes

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA