16th September

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will, with a view to the Department and the public generally being informed of the future of the ex-pupils of the Institution under your care, furnish, with your annual report, a statement similar to that given by the Rev. Mr. [unclear] in his report of the [unclear] [unclear], as shown on page 14, part I of the Annual Report ^{of the Department} for 1890.

The statement should show what has become of the pupils who may have left the school during the year, but

To Rev. C. J. Wilson
