and when the soldier tries to stop it we will beat him up. Lee and Lantier started sparring around & Parsley stood by and shouted. An English soldier came up to them & Lee turned around & hit the English soldier. He knocked him down to the ground & he continued to beat him. The other three men just stood around. I saw there was nothing I could do to stop the fight & I went back to camp by myself. I saw Lee strike the soldier. I could not identify the English soldier.

Cross Exam:

I can't recall if there was a moon or not. It wasn't totally dark. I don't know whether the assaulted man was a Sgt. or not. I was about 20 feet away.

By the Court:

I was a private on 19 Aug 47.

The evidence is read over to the witness. Case for prosecution on 2nd charge is closed.
