

- 186, 190, 197; amendments of act, 1917, 80, 92, 100, 112, 199, 205
- Munitions trades: war bonus, 60; profits limited, 60, 61; acceleration of production, 75, 76; local munitions committees, 70; proposals before conference of trade union leaders representing, 85; controlled establishments, 88, 90-94, 100, 140; wage regulation, 100-106; of women, 100-107; of men, 107-200; changes in wages, 145, 164; meaning of munitions work, 80-90; munitions volunteers 94-96, 104, 124, 126, 213; as alternative for conscription, 96; government orders relating to skilled labor, 98; army reserve munitions workers, 105, 106, 118, 126; overtime, 122, 123, 208; appeals for volunteers, 124, 126; compulsory registration, 120-127; restricted occupations and essential industries, 131; release of workers for military and naval service, 134; women in, 152-154, 160-162; table of numbers and proportion, 161; sources of supply of women workers, 171, 172, 173; recruited from non-industrial areas, 177; training classes for workers, 155, 157, 158; replacement of men by women, 178, 179; orders relating to health and efficiency of workers, 208; to hours of labor, 213; to holidays, 203; welfare work, 216, 217; Welfare Department, 217, 218; how conditions in munitions centers, 221; unemployment insurance, 226-227; employment of demobilized workers, 322
- Munitions tribunals: 100, 104; general, 106; local, 107; divisions of amended munitions act, 107, 108, 109
- Murray, Sir George, 86
- National Insurance Act, part 2, unemployment, 7, 35, 40; part 1, health insurance, 10-20; emergency grants under, 40-52
- National Labor Advisory Committee, 84, 181
- National Registration Act, 1915, 126-127
- National service: compulsory registration, 126-127; government scheme, 130-134; reasons for failure, 132; efforts to amend scheme, 132-134; new plan, 136-138; appeal for volunteers, 131; number enrolled and placed, 133; outline for enrolling, 137, 138; Ministry of National Service, 131, 132, 133; report of select committee on national expenditure, 133; employment exchanges, 135-136; industrial conscription, 138-139
- National Service Department, 133, 134, 136
- National Service, Ministry of, 131, 132, 138
- Newman, Sir George, 208
- Occupations: essential industries, 130-135; list of restricted, 131; list of protected, 134-135; list of certified, 136; table, analysis prewar occupations of women workers, 173
- Old age pensions: beginning of agitation, 11; law enacted August 1, 1908, 12; provisions of act, 12; advance estimate of number applying, 12; additional allowance during war, 12-13
- Overtime work: 98; acts regulating, 119-120; orders permitting, 120, 122, 123; rates for, 101; holiday work, 101; rate of pay, 198; effect on women, 208, 209, 207; Sunday labor, 101, 208, 209, 210, 212; overtime preferable to, 209; strain counteracted by increased pay, 212; objections to, 211; overtime should be concentrated, 212; economically extravagant, 213; opposed by Adult Education Committee, 214
- Panic: effect of war on industry, 32; advance of retail prices, 32-33; growth of unemployment, 33-35; methods of public relief, 35-36; trade disturbances less widespread than feared, 42. See also Readjustment; Reconstruction
- Pauperism: tendency and public tendencies, 4; causes, 5-7; reduction, 23-27; percentage August, 1914, 35-36; results shown by statistics, 225
- Payment by instalments, 52-200
- Pensions: delays in granting, 200. See also Old age pensions
- Pensions, Ministry of, 1910, 227
- Poor Law Commission: report quoted, 4; appointed, 4-5; findings and recommendations, 5-8; services of investigation and report, 8
- Poor laws, administration and history, 5
- Police, Factories, etc., (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 220
- Prewar conditions of employment, restoration of—see Employment
- Prices: wholesale, 24; retail, 24, 31, 32; changes in, 30, 60-62; table of percentages "above normal," 61; of food, 62; cause of industrial unrest, 246; government plans to reform, 264-265
- Production: of leading commodities, 23-24; value of imports, 23; value of exports, 23-24; employers and trades unions attempt to agree to program, 67, 68-70; reports of Committee on Production, 71; legislation to aid and increase, 74, 74; effects of overtime, 206, 207, 208; output in relation to hours of labor, 209, 210, 211
- Production, Committee on: appointment, 63; orders resumption of work in Clyde shipyards, 65-66; reports, 71; 1st, "Irregular time keeping," 71; 2d, "Shells and fuses and avoidance of stoppage of work," 71-72; 3d, demarcation of work, 73-74; 4th, Clyde strike, 65-67, 74; named tribunal to settle strikes, 74; to arbitrate labor disputes, Treasury agreement, 76; work, 1915, 79, 80, 81; recommendations, foundation Munitions of War Act, 86; awards of war bonuses, etc., 188; right to review wage rate of women, 194; award of bonus extended, 190
- Profiteering: cause of industrial unrest, 246-248; government plans to reform, 264-265
- Profits, excess, 69, 76, 81, 83
- Prosperity: tests applied to working classes, 25-26
- Protected occupations list, 134-135
- Public utilities nationalization, 313
- Railway Servants, Amalgamated Society of
—see Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants