

Mary, The Perfect Mother and the Christ Child.

A true illustration of the ideas set forth in Chapter XII, Part I of Culture.

"Mary had already partially educated her child as He had lived under her heart, and now, as He went to sleep upon it, she must have sung to Him songs such only as she learned in heavenly music."