

And That Brings Us to Another Point.

The question of delivery.

We hope that, with the completion of the many projected pavements we will be enabled to make such good time with our deliveries that there will be no cause for complaint from our customers. We know it is most annoying to be kept waiting for goods that are not exactly on time but the delivery question in Chatham is at many times of the year a most serious problem. We do our best at all times and can only ask the kind consideration of our patrons if at times we seem to disappoint them.

Scientific BAKING POWDER..

No better leavener is known to science than the proper combination of pure cream of tartar and bicarbonate of soda. Its leavening strength depends upon its freshness and purity.

TURNER'S CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER..

Is guaranteed to be made of absolutely chemically pure ingredients and being made often you can be sure of its freshness. Many baking powders offered for sale contain alum or ammonia, are not wholesome and strength considered, cost twice as much as our pure powder.

The late Thomas McLachlan was 33 years of age. He formerly also lived at Cedar Springs. Mrs. Laird, Grey street, is a sister of deceased.

HONEST MEN

There are honest men in Chatham. The plural is used because there are two of them. School Trustee W. H. Bensen discovered the two. Unlike Diogenes Mr. Bensen didn't use a lantern, but he used a more modern method. He used a $5 bill. The story is quite interesting. Saturday morning W. H. Bensen lost a five dollar bill in his front yard. He was feeling real sorrowful over his loss when he went home at noon. Mrs. Bensen asked the school trustee if he had lost a five dollar bill, and if that was why he looked so sad. He thought that his wife must be a mind reader till she told him that two strangers had been in and said that they had picked a five dollar bill up on the lawn and asked if it belonged to Mr. Bensen. Mrs. Bensen knew nothing about her husband's loss at that time. The honest men gave their names as Messrs. Tree and Wade and said that they were stopping at the Aberdeen Hotel. Mr. Bensen went over and got his money.

OIL NOTES

O'Keefe's Pride, the big well of the Chatham Oil Co. pumped 50 barrels of oil Friday.

The Chatham Oil Co. have encountered many difficulties in the new well they are drilling in the Ball property. MacIntosh Bros. have also had trouble with boulders in the surface soil and may have to abandon the site of their present operations on the Woods farm, 8th concession.

GOOD YIELD

O'Keefe's Pride pumped a little over 40 barrels of oil on Saturday. So far 130 barrels of oil have been hauled from this well to the receiving tank at Richardson's Crossing. One car of oil has been shipped and another car is ready.

Shale was struck in the new well on the Ball property. After going down 23 feet into the shale the hole was abandoned and the rig is being moved back on to the Doyle farm.

DON'T MISS IT

This week's issue of the Big Saturday Planet will contain, in addition to the many entertaining special illustrated features, the opening chapters of The Planet's new serial story. There are stories and stories. Special care has been taken to select a serial that will delight everybody with the result that John Habberton's new and fascinating tale, "When Boys Were Men," has won the choice.

It is well written, in a modern and fascinating style. Watch for it. "When Boys Were Men" is a powerful war story, painting the soldier's life in camp, on the march, in bivouac and in battle. Full of human interest, portraying in the words and deeds of the soldiers and their individual characters.

Of course the hero had a sweetheart and the lurid skies of war are softened by love's rose tints of romance. Don't miss the opening chapters in next Saturday's big illustrated Planet.
