

Mr. Roberts, teller in the Bank of Hamilton, at Indian Head, Sask., has been transferred to the bank's branch at Brandon, Man., where he will occupy a similar position. He is succeeded by H. B. North, of Winnipeg.

From the tasteful little volume containing the proceedings of the Fourteenth Annual Convention of the New York State Bankers' Association, comes this story:

Teacher: "Children, I want you to listen carefully to this question, and then take your slates and write an answer to it: What would you do if you had a million dollars?"

Almost immediately one bright little fellow put up his hand and signified that he had his answer ready.

The teacher remarked, "Have you written your answer so quickly?" The boy replied, "Yes, m'm." The teacher took his slate and read what the boy had written: "I wouldn't do a d— thing."
