Good Man

New British Ambassador at Washington is Popular.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the new Ambassador from Great Britain, although only here a few days as successor to James Bryce, already has shown the same democratic characteristics that endeared him to the people of the Swedish capital. It developed to-day that while the Ambassador was on his way to the Chivy Chase Club in the embassy automobile, the chauffeur became confused as to the direction. "Stop and we will enquire the way," ordered the envoy, observing a man approaching on foot. "Can you direct us to the Chivy Chase Club?" he inquired of the pedestrian, who stepped in the roadway as the big car came to a stop. The man was almost immediately struck by a car tearing citywards.

"Are you hurt?" asked Sir Cecil, jumping from the motor. The young man, who proved to be Odie Howie, a street car conductor off duty, protested that he was not, but found that his legs were injured so that he could not walk. Despite his protests he was bundled into the embassy car and whirled to his home. Sir Cecil himself lifting him in. The Ambassador will make enquiry into his condition to-day.

Sir James Surprised.

TORONTO, May 5.—"I am utterly astonished to see such an announcement in the Mail and Empire." Such was Sir James Whitney's comment to-day when asked if Hon. J. J. Foy, Attorney-General, was to retire from the Ontario Cabinet to enter the Senate. This was all Sir James would say, and it is a long way from a denial. At a dinner given by the Cabinet to the members of the Legislature a few nights ago Mr. Foy made a speech that was taken as his valedictory as Attorney-General. When the translation takes place, Hon. W. J. Hanna may succeed to the position of Attorney-General and Hon. I. B. Lucas take Mr. Hanna's place as Provincial Secretary. This will leave the treasurership still vacant. A. E. Donovon of Brockville and Dr. Preston of Lanark are mentioned in this connection, but there is the greatest uncertainty as to who will be selected to fill any position in the cabinet.

Laurier at Toronto.

TORONTO, May 5.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, accompanied by Hon. Chas. Murphy, Hon. G. P. Graham and Michael Clarke, M.P., arrived this morning for the great meeting in the Arena to-night. The magnificent new Ontario Club, the headquarters of the Liberal party in Toronto, made a fitting stopping place for the "Old Chief" and he lunched there after a short drive around the city. The Arena to-night will be packed to the doors, and literally thousands who desired to hear the Liberal leader have been unable to procure tickets of admission.

THE WHIR OF THIN

Without any question this is of whirl and hurry and da each year sees it more so.

Take Brantford as a small town.

It is not so many years ago that two young pastors came to Rev. Mr. Richardson and Rev. Mr. Tolmie, and they actually temerity to be seen in their garb, riding two high wheel cycles—not on Sundays—but days. Their course gave a shock to a great many excellent and they were at once known as the "sporting parson."

It was the same with auto who first ventured to use their seventh day. They were regarded as ignominious yet now outside almost everywhere, there can be seen an auto at service time. They devout worshippers there a take them home again with generally a pleasure spin in the noons.

And why not? If it is not a sin to take a Sunday it should not be a sin a bicycle, and if it is not a sin a carriage ride on Sunday they equally not a sin to use automobile.

And that which is true of ford is true proportionately of cities more so—all over.

The fact of the matter is average man and woman of sent day are very properly more broad minded view matters.

THE OTTAWA WIND J
Sif Edmund Osler, M.P., ronto, is rightly regarded as of shrewd business mind, and manding ability.

He has been a member House of Commons at great inconvenience, and has only persuaded to continue in public cause of the solicitations of He is not a frequent speaker House, but when he does talk ways has something to say point. Here are some extra his remarks on the closure:

"I think that the Canadian millions to the Motherland only to pay a little of what have received from her in of defence. If it is the wis Canadian people that they sponge on the Mother Country the future as in the past, portion of the House wish am not proud of being a C. "I have been in this House less for seventeen years been to me a wonder how of sane men and business who undoubtedly out House, are sane men and men—can waste the time country and of the House ing absolute rubbish. I say self that my judgment is it are not twelve speeches in this House since I have that would cause any man from 'Sixteen' or any other to listen to it if it were not tical purposes.

"If this body were a bo ordinary business in any of this politics, the whole by the country could be comp side of two months. Any comes to Ottawa with a business to do finds it a pious task, and if there is to talk, no one can come
