CONTROL CONTRO

The Miner's Tact

THE COURIER

SEMI-WEEKLY COURIER-Published

WAR AND HUMAN NATURE

Norman Angell's peace movement is based on the belief that men wil to stem the tide of foreign immigra- new public building, that it takes any not go to war against their financia! tion somewhat by including an ele- and every opportunity to jibe at Mr interests. It is merely a revival of mentary literary test in the regula- W. F. Cockshutt, M.P. Now it basse one of the tenets of the Manchester tions under which men are admitted its criticism on the use of "Yankee" School of Political Economists. to the country will be followed with stone secured because the George-Charles Dickens more than once eclinterest by Canadians. Of 1,387,318 town variety could not be secured for pressed his opinion of laissez-faire aliens admitted to the United States the job in less than two years. Mean and of all the other doctrines of this last year no less than 322,381 could while, had the Expositor's friends respecial group. In one of his letters not read nor write at the time of he wrote: "The Manchester school their admission. deserves all the schooling it can get Opposition to the proposed test touching its reduction to the grossest would be more pronounced than it is absurdity of the supply and demand if the people were assured that it is indefinite period. Mr. Cockshutt obdogmatism, and its pig-headed re- not a kindness to aliens to keep them tained what Messrs. Heyd and Harris liance on men not going to war from swelling the ranks of those in couldn't. That's where the shoe against their interest; as if the vices America who cannot obtain employand passions of men had not been ment. While it is very easy to attack running counter to their interests this ummigration restriction upon sensince th ecreation of the world."

REFORMING JERUSALEM. dering to America gravitates to the great and increasing, and a proposal cities. He seems to belong by ancient to make the restrictions more drastic tradition to a city. The Jews came is worth serious consideration. If first from Jerusalem the old home- we admit that the unemployed probplace of the race," as the Jewish phil- lem is somewhat pressing in America,

Straus is out with a scheme for lows that a test of the kind pro- best known educationists on the due largely to the want of any public waterworks, and by the general precurse to the foreigner coming to Amvalence of disease and starvation, erica. though the site of the city is so fair upon a hill.

lem, what is drunk being kept in "The Rise of South Africa" (Long-his interest in the national game by cisterns under lock and key. Pump- mans), an account is given of the taking office in various athletic or ing stations are to be provided, if Mr early British settlers in that country. mote its welfare. Dr. Hughes made Straus' plans work out, to raise the Though the English took the land himself water from its plentiful sources in the from the Dutch in 1806, it was not till teachers of Toronto and was favor region around. He has already es- 1820 that anybody came from Britain only in Canada but in the United tablished a board of health, and soup outside of the official establishments. States. He is a brother of Colone kitchens which feed over 300 people The reason why 4,000 settlers suddaily and has in view a social survey denly went to the Cape in 1820 lay in for bringing Jerusalem up to date. the distress of the English masses janitor for many weeks. The billet thirds rather otherwise, "low in moroffered at least the foundation of a als or desperate in circumstances." few miles away the Queen City was ment some time to settle into trying to care for hundreds of men who should and probably would have were well placed on good land. been glad of such a job.

York Times that he and other farm- is that it was simply forced on the ers take no stock in stories concerning the unemployed, for he and the other farmers he knows would like oth to get help, but are unable to do so. or the Portuguese as colonists. But who cheers, whose cheeks are of the "I have been for months," he says, Britons as well as others love their briny traceless. "trying to get a man to take care of home and hate to leave it. It took my small barn and its appurtenances religious persecution to settle the —clean my horse, wash my carriage, beat the rugs in the house and attend the furnace. I myself can do all that the furnace in five house of labor. I require done in five hours of labor, its start. But once driven into forat a comfortable rate of progress. I eign parts, the man of Britain or of pay $26 per month and give my employee a clean, comfortable bed in a stove heated room in the barn. His stove heated room in the barn. His family 62 s from day to day."

And he adds: "We have many they cannot get good men who will work on their farms for from $30 tc professions? $40 per month, good board and lodging additional. You can get like tesemployment on farms within twenty nature. miles of the city."

tion of those out of work know no- are classified as indications of thing of farm life and have no agri- spanking breeze. cultural skill. A still greater number In the Old Land the Unionist dislike the country and cleave to the have captured the West Division of city out of sheer love of city life even Bethnal Green by 24 votes. Last time in the face of most distressing odds. the seat went Liberal by 184. The re-This passion of the multitude for ur- sult is all the more significant as the ban existence has become universal. Asquith candidate Masterman was It is even more marked in free trade seeking re-election because he had Britain than in protectionist America, just been given a seat in the Cabinet. Rural life has to be made more at- The voting took place from 7 a.m. tractive. Meantime let us have some to 9 p.m. in order to give workers efficent machinery for getting the time to cast their ballots. This is an unemployed of one locality into the excellent idea and might well be adjobs awaiting them in other parts of opted in Canada to the advantage of timental grounds, it may be possible also to defend it upon humanitarian It is not strange that the Jew wan- grounds. The flood of immigration is anthropist, Nathan Straus, calls it. and the lack of education is a handi-Retired from active business, M1. cap to the man seeking work, it folmodernizing that "old home-place." posed in the United States, and American continent, is sixty-eight Visiting Jerusalem last year, he was which the House of Representatives vieted with educational work all his horrified by the insanitary conditions, has approved by a huge majority, may life and is now devoting his attention.

BLESSING OR CURSE?

BRITISH COLONIZATION.

What a wail should go up from after the Napoleonic wars. Heavy mediaeval enthusiasts like Mr. Ches- taxation, the corn laws, the general terton over the modernizing of Jeru- introduction of machinery and the salem. It might seem like the end of factory system had combined to all things to clean the beggars off the spread suffering and even starvation streets, substitute hospitals for the over England. Agitation and rioting pool of Siloam, vaccinate against arose in various cines as well as in typhoid and war against malarial rural districts. The British Parliamosquitoes. But the world moves on, ment, accordingly, voted £50,000 to a black dog howled beneath my caseassist settlers to go to South Africa, THE UNEMPLOYED AND JOBS which seemed to be a pleasant, un-The need of a national system of occupied country, with an easy cli- the dead, as though his soul were labor bureaus to bring work and mate. Each man being promised a torn by devils, while I kept throwing workers into touch grows daily more grant of 100 acres on easy terms, ev- at his head old hammers, planes and apparent. At Georgetown, 30 miles from Toronto, a strong and prosper- South Africa, about one-third conous church was without a regular sisting of respectable persons, twoliving for a man and his wife. Yet a Naturally, it took this crude assort-

A correspondent writes to the New original colonization of South Africa,

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

farmers here who raise celery, lettuce rose "the millionaire minstrel" used spinach and truck of that sort. These to be a bell boy in the Tecumseh It appears that George H. Prim farmers unanimously complain that House, London. Who couldn't get Burke that an unknown person, sup-

A big delegation will go to Ottawa timony from hu wireds of New Jersey and Long Island market men. Without doubt 10,000 or more men and the same token many other demands blind man to buy a watch, but the latwomen could immediately get steady at the Capital are also of a raidial ter refused, saying he had no money.

The Guelph Police Magistrate, in Meloche did so. During the present serious state of the case of erring boys orders a good unemployment unfilled positions old home treatment by the police. In awaited many men on the farms of that burg these days, when yells are Ontario. Of course a great propor, heard coming from the station, they loss is estimated at $15,000.

The local Grit organ is so annoyed The attempt of the United States every time it sees Brantford's fine mained in office, there wouldn't have been any sign of a structure; the employes in the post office and customs departments would have still been

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY TWENTIETH James L. Hughes, former inspector ciated with educational work all his taken a leading part in every movement with which he has allied him self. In his younger days he was very Water is a scarce article in Jerusa- In the recent book by Mr. Cory on crosse player. He has since shown ganizations which have sought to provery popular among the

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

SUPERSTITION.

Last night, to my intense despair, nent; and at his head I threw a chair and all the stovewood in the base ment. And still he howled to raise and morning found me full of woe "When howling bandogs are abroad," I said, "there's dire misfortune due me: all things will travel wannerjawed, and I shall harvest prunes, beshrew me!" Then I went down to get my mail, and found four checks from eastern journals, and also sun-An interesting thing about this dry chunks of kale from Matthew Georges and other colonels. Then dire forebodings flew away like mists settlers. Much has been said of the before a zippling zeplyr, and I sent

WALT MASON.

Robbed Blind Man

Threatened to Beat Him if He D Not Hand Over Fifty Dollars

COBALT. Feb. 20-One of the meanest thefts ever perpetrated in the North Country was brought to the attention of the Cobalt police yes terday when Adolphus Meloche. blind man considerably over middle age and totally unable to defend himself against attack, reported to Chief posed to be a French-Canadian, had lured him out to a lonely spot beyond the Hudson Bay Camp and there held him up and robbed him of $50 or he would beat him up, and

The big water tank under construc-

(Continued from Page 1) yould not share his coal with Brad dick and then arose a business split wheel mentioned to the police and His Doctors Insist That He gave it up, saving he thought it was stolen and that he had bought it for Standing in the box in a defiant attitude. Braddick answered the Crown was a pawn in the hand of Smick. peculiar marks upon them and renew- 5.30 to 6

Another charge of theft was preferred against Braddick. John Muradian lost his machine on April 27, 1912, and he identified it although was changed. Braddick is said to have stolen this bike as it was found among his stock. He said he paid $4.50 for this wheel also, although when he bought it the frame of the frame was obtained at the scrap yard. The cases against defendants were diourned until Monday.

(Continued from Page 1)

ants believed that public feeling was such in Brantford that a fair trial would be out of the question. so they obtained a change of against them, but on appeal the Meredith was given leave to sue the defendants individually. This she is doing.

Education last night, Trustee Vokes charged that the masonry work in the new $2,000,000 technical able that an enquiry will be conduct- Boston.

Cease Rising as Early as 4.30 a. m.

ROME, Feb. 20.-The frequen Attorney without flinching and in- reports that the Pope is indisposed criminated Smick at every turn. He have induced a correspondent admitted enamelling the new wheels make an inquiry as to what the rea of a bike, but Smick had told him to condition and present mode of life do so. He could not read or write and of His Holiness. He will be 80 years on that score excused statement made of age on June 2, 1915, and he at the police station which conflicted nearly eleven years older than where with his present evidence. His know- he was elected Pope. Therefore his ledge of receipts was similarly limit- intimates and doctors have insisted on his taking care of himself and Mrs. Braddick gave evidence favor- using certain precautions, which are ing her husband and from her state- quite justifiable for a man even 20 ments it would appear that Braddick years younger. He has yielded their reasonable suggestions, and s Ray Codd of 23 Sheridan street, he does not now get up at 4.30 testified that his wheel had been stol- the morning, as he had always done en during December. He identified a in the summer, but stays in bed un saddle and mud guards as his from til "late," as he calls it, rising from

Dresses Himself.

Contrary to the custom observed with his aged predecessor, he re quires no assistance in dressing, a shortly after rising celebrates mas in his private chapel, and nears another celebrated by one of his secre taries, generally Mgr. Brassan Breakfast follows, not as light as the past, when he used to have nachine was broken. The substituted nothing but a cup of black coffee, he having consented to add to it the yolk of an egg beaten up with

After this His Holiness leaves hi private apartment, and without using the elevator, descends to the library where he receives first Cardina Merry del Val, who makes a repor on the political affairs of the Holy See, which he is warned by the doc tors to make as short as possib! These instructions he finds difficul follow, as Pius X. wishes to know the least detail of every subject. The Secretary of State is followe by one cardinal, sometimes two, and some great personage or Italia ### or foreign bishop. Has Audiences

This year there were frequently American cardinals, as the five year in which they have to pay their visi "ad Limina," expire in 1915. For thi At a meeting of the Toronto Board purpose there are now in Rome Mgr Beavon, bishop of Springfield, Mass Mgr. Rice, bishop of Burlington, V and Mgr Walsh, bishop of Portland school had been skimped. It is prob- Me., all belonging to the province o

The Pope has consented to cut down the time of his audiences also and now Mgr. Ranuzzi, his chamberlain, only grants private audiences to large collective audiences during and pink-and white complexion which, according to circumstances ne either simply appears, imparting the apostolic livers a short address, or even goes about giving his hand to be kissed by each person.

By the time this is over it is halfeast 12 or 1 o'clock, when the aged head of the church takes luncheon. which has also undergone some by Jimminy ma'am, ain't you goin changes in the substance and quan-look good in black, though?—Phil tity of the ingredients according to the suggestion of Prof. Marchiafava, delphia Record. who also abolished the wine which all Italians drink at meal times. In the early afternoon the Pope inlulges in a little rest, and later resumes audiences with leading ecclesiastics. The evening meal is very simple, and he retires at between age estimated at from $500,000 to $1,-000,000 was wrought by the storm which sent a record rain to six me he had two half sisters, but Southern California counties during guess I know enough about fraction the last two days.

How many men can boast of s full a life at nearly 80 years?

A miner got killed and a taction special persons and on important widow. So the tactful fellow called a house and said.

> am, you'd break every heart in too benediction or de- if you wore widow's weeds." blushed for pleasure.

"O, go on," she said. "And you are a widow, too, the tactful miner quickly seizing chance. "Bills legs and arms

Young Albert was a practical you and everything that school he endeavored to apply in daily life and work.

friendly with a little boy who lately moved in that vicinity and afternoon his mother asked him Whereupon Albert looked very and triumphant.

"He's got just one sister, for that.'-Harper's Magazine.

TO THE

Electric Consumers OF THE CITY OF BRANTFORD:

We have made arrangements with

T. J. Minnes & Co. 64 COLBORNE STREET

Efesca Patent Wire Lamps

These Lamps are BEST BRITISH make, have stood the test against all good lamps. Consume 1 1-10 watt per hour to

A 32-candlepower Idealite Lamp consumes 35 1-5 watts per hour, producing 32 c.p. A 16-candlepower carbon lamp consumes 55 watts per hour,

Twice the light with a saving of 20 watts per hour. Think this over and phone 301 for sample order. Factories Hotels and Public Buildings ask for quantity

EFESCA LAMP CO'Y.

BULLER BROS. - BULL ER BROS. -

A Great Seven Day Sale of Extraordinary Bargains in Patent Medicines, Toilet Articles and Rubber Goods!

out nato l'atolle l'iouloillo.

Extra Bargains in Patent Medicines

50c Fruitatives31
50c Gin Pills for29
25c Syrup White Pine and Tar13
50c Beef, Iron and Wine35
25c Bromo Seltzer17
75c Jad Salts59
50c Zam-Buk33
25c Chamberlain's Liniment15
25c Mecca Ointment15
$1.00 Emulsion Cod Liver Oil.39
$1.00 Pinkham's Compound72
50c Dander-Off35
25c Chamberlain's Cough Syru
15
25c Laxative Bromo Quinine. 15
25c Chamberlain's Pills15
60c Chase's Ointment39
$1.00 Mells' Tonic50
25c Hamilton's Pills17
25c Nature's Remedy15
P

EXTRA! EXTRA! CHOCOLATES Assorted Flavors. Regular 50c lb.

Special 29c lb.

Soap Bargains
25c Castile Soap, long bar. 15c Pears' Unscented. 15c Peroxide Soap. 35c Toilet Soap, 3 in box. 5c Castile Soap. 10c Baby's Own Soap. 2 for	. 1 . 1 . 1
10c lb. Soda.       5c         10c lb. Epsom Salts.       5c         10c lb. Sulphur.       5c         10c lb. Borax.       7c         40c lb. Cream Tartar.       29c
Old-fashioned Horehound

			~	Ju	r		••	ŧ	,	~.	•••	-	•
15c 15c	Pe Pe	ars'	Un de	sce Soa	nted p		 									 		1
5c	Cas	tile	Soa <sub>l</sub> Soa <sub>l</sub> Ow	D			 								. 2	2 1	or	•
10c 10c 10c	lb. lb. lb.	Eps Sul Bot	la som phu ax. am	Sal r	ts		   										5c 5c 7c	]
					hion t, re	gu	r	20	c	11	).,	f	01	•

Bargains in Rubber Goods

$2.00	Hot Water Bottle$1.29
	Guaranteed 2 years.
$3.00	Ladies' Syringe $1.98
	Hot Water Bottle 85c
	tomizer39c
	Fountain Syringe790

Toilet Articles

15c Carbolic Tooth Powder1	0
25c Almond Cream1	9
35c Djer-Kiss Talcum2	5
35c Pond's Cream2	5
50c Pompeian Massage Cream
	8
15c Vaseline Camphor Ice1	0
25c Taylor's Tooth Paste2	0
$1.00 Corylopsis Face Powder.6	9
75c Derma Viva4	9
25c Blue Bird Face Cream20	0
\

COME AND GET YOUR SHARE

BULLER BROS.

Bell Phone 1357

108 COLBORNE STREET

HYDRO RAT

FRIDAY, FEBRUAR

Claim Made That Than Western Charge

At the Hydro question was aske garding Hydro-lchurches. The was obtained. Th churches is exac commercial lighti it as follows: Three cents p

the first thirty of installed capa One and o watt hour for th use per month Seventy-five cent per kilowat consumption. Ten per cent from the entire ment. This brit churches dow equality with private compa large, and in many evening ing the week siderably less pany's rate. churches in the of the church been secured that still more decide to use ! rent for lighting.

Women's I

Men's Lace

lar S2.

SIZE

13. -Sat

Small Bo

