THE SITUATION.

The fighting between the Allies and the troops of the Kaiser still continues with remarkable tenacity on both sides. The enormous preparedness of the German war machine has been thoroughly demonstrated. They were equipped to the last rivet and to the last buckle, whereas in the case of John Bull he is even now preparing to cope with a finished article. That under the circumstances there should have been so much of an effectual check is little short of miraculous.

But what does this mean? It means the Kaiser will hurl into the last deadly fight every German soldier, every German ship and gun and every German dollar, for while it is true that Germany will survive this war, the Kaiser and his caste of war worshippers will not. They will be wiped out of existence and they know it. Hence the desperate character of this conflict. There is no truce, nor can be. No peace is possible. Two sets of principles are locked in death grips—the principles of the empire builder against the will of a free people, justice as an international arbiter as against the sword of the mighty, international honor as an eternal obligation rather than a mere temporary convenience.

SIERRA LEONE AND THE WAR. A little newspaper, the Weekly News, from the British Protectorate of Sierra Leone, published at Freetown—the West African port where a settlement of emancipated slaves, freed from the Southern States of America, established themselves, contains a leading article written evidently by a West African negro, explaining to his native readers the origin of the European war. The whole tone of the article is refreshing and stimulating, as these few extracts indicate:

At present the talk everywhere in the Colony and Protectorate of Sierra Leone is that of the European war in which England, our own over-lord, under whose rule and governance we are proud to be, and are content to abide, has become involved. In the strict sense of the word we are not a nation, and the charge we have to keep seems for the present to be nothing more than our own body and soul. We are wards of another by whom we are protected, and who has to subsume and take that nothing may go wrong with us.

A careful and really remarkably well-informed resume of the circumstances leading up to the war follows, and then the writer adds: "The war is not England's at first hand, and we say it with utmost pride that England was unwilling that this war should take place, and did all she could to prevent it from breaking out. The present war has its significance. It would appear to us that the nations have been summoned by Jehovah to check the arrogance of Germany and to punish the pride of Austria."

Let there be no fear. England will suffer no harm in connection with this melee. She is discharging a trust, and even if she had entered the struggle before Germany has hissed to other nations to strengthen her hands that the arrogance of Germany may be put down and that the progress of the world and the purpose of God may not suffer harm.

Let us who belong to England will pray for England, not because she is our ruler, but because we are certain that she is fighting on the side of righteousness.

CANADA'S DUTY

The following are extracts from an article by Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) of Winnipeg: "There is no place for pessimism on the part of any Britisher in this war. The outcome is assured—we shall win, and win completely. The gaze of the German Kaiser and of his Prussian Junkertum, hurled in the teeth of Christian civilization, has been taken up and the fight will go on until democracy, liberty and law among the nations will triumph. But those cheery optimists who foresee a speedy end to this strife, and who picture joyous jaunt under den Liden for the Allies, can hardly be regarded as harmless lunatics, for harmless they are not. The sooner Canada realizes that this war is a stern serious business and that it will grow in desperation as the long weary months drag their terrible length through winter and perhaps through summer and through winter again the better it will be."

Let us make no mistake. No sudden rage, no fluke of diplomacy, not Austria's treacherous ambition leading to the chance of war afforded by the wicked act of a mad Serbian student—not these things nor things like these have caused Germany to plunge into this war. Never did a nation more deliberately take a purpose and long-planned step. For forty years, Germany has cherished ambitions, has fed upon philosophies, has extended her commerce, has built up her industries, has established her fortresses, has perfected her siege guns, has built her navy, has constructed her aerial fleet, has hoarded her gold, has filled her young men with lust for the satanic glory of war with one purpose, and one purpose only—that she might win in a supreme effort at world power, incidental to which is the crushing of France to the position of Portugal among the European nations, the absorption of small countries like Belgium, Holland and Denmark, and the extermination of hated Britain.

Upon this issue Germany stakes her existence, that Europe may be Germanized and a World Empire established greater than the world has ever seen, with colonies on every sea, built upon highly scented brute force that knows no law but that of might and derides the Christian virtues as contemptible and utterly unworthy of the superhuman.

For this enterprise the Kaiser believes himself God-anointed and God appointed. With him to-day stand the haughty aristocracy of Prussia and all the war caste of Germany, and behind them a united front in a mad deluded enthusiasm, stand as yet the German people to a man.

Victory for the allies, therefore, means the dethronement of the Kaiser and his military brood, the annihilation of the war caste and the smashing of the war machine. Nothing short of this will be accepted as victory by any of the allied nations. Nothing less than this would be worth fighting for.

But what does this mean? It means the Kaiser will hurl into the last deadly fight every German soldier, every German ship and gun and every German dollar, for while it is true that Germany will survive this war, the Kaiser and his caste of war worshippers will not. They will be wiped out of existence and they know it. Hence the desperate character of this conflict. There is no truce, nor can be. No peace is possible. Two sets of principles are locked in death grips—the principles of the empire builder against the will of a free people, justice as an international arbiter as against the sword of the mighty, international honor as an eternal obligation rather than a mere temporary convenience.

What, then, is Canada's immediate duty. It stands clear as the morning sun above the prairie rim. The Empire stands to-day for Liberty, Justice, Honor among nations as among men, and Canada stands with the Empire for these. It is no longer a question of a colony giving support to the motherland. We have gone far past that. It is a question of whether Canada shall stand with the free nations who believe in government by free choice, justice among nations, honor as an eternal obligation, and with her last man and her last dollar, fight for these things that determine a nation's character and its place in history. I repeat that it is no longer a question of aiding the motherland in a fight for national or Empire existence. Canada is herself a nation with a proud sense of nationhood. Canada's future is involved in this conflict, and with every instinct of her national soul and with every throbbing of her national life she hates and opposes the spirit, the ideals, the methods for which the German Kaiser with his Prussian Junkertum is now so desperately contending.

And how is Canada to fulfil her obligation as a nation in this world crisis. Our Government has done well, has given a splendid exhibition of efficient dispatch in mobilizing and equipping an army of 200,000 men and ships between 30,000 and 40,000 men in the short space of two months. But it is not, I repeat, a matter of contingents, one two or three. Rather must Canada with a calm deliberate, clear-eyed purpose, make resolve that she is committed to this conflict to her last man and her last dollar, not for her own sake and sake alone, but for her own sake and the sake of her national ideals. And when once Canada has clearly conceived it as her obligation to throw her entire national life and resources into this conflict, the problem then becomes a very simple one, namely one of administration.

GREAT SEND-OFF

(Continued from Page 1) dertaken, and indeed, it was no light job. Not far away was Lieut. Dickson and beside him his bride and his mother. They were as calm and collected as any present. Everyone had a word for the lieutenant. Close beside was Lieut. Cockshutt with his circle of friends. These little groups were soon broken up as the trainmen shouted for "All aboard."

Entrained, the soldiers waved farewell. Windows were full of familiar faces, and many adieus were shouted. Slowly the train moved forward, and a sigh rose from many breasts as the second contingent proceeded on its way to Toronto. The multitude dispersed and Market Street was filled with an impressed and visibly affected crowd. One of the most striking features of the parade was the appearance of the Public School Cadets.

DUNKIRK FEELS

(Continued from Page 1) "The main fighting is now proceeding further south around Arras and on the frontier line, a few miles east of Neipper. The air is burning and batteries. The allies have been in and out of the city and our shells set the town alight at the western end. If we cannot hound the enemy out we must drive him towards Flanders with flame and smoke."

"It is reported that Emperor William with his staff is directing the whirlwind from Tournai, Belgium, with Boulogne and Calais as the objective via Hazebrouck and St. Omer, where, if the Germans can break through there is a clear road to the coast. The battle here will not be decided for several days."

GUNS BROUGHT UP. LONDON, Nov. 6.—An Amsterdam despatch to the Central News states that forty heavy guns arrived at Aix La Chapelle yesterday from Essen. Twelve long empty trains are also proceeding to Namur and six armored automobiles, with mitrailleuses, have left Aix La Chapelle, according to the same advices.

HOLD THE RIVER. LONDON, Nov. 6, 9.30 a.m.—A despatch from Amsterdam to Reuter's Telegram Company says: "The Telegraf learns from Sluis, Holland, that the Germans have retired from the Yser and that the Belgians have occupied both banks of the river. The last village evacuated was Stuyvenskerke, the troops returning from there to Bruges."

"The battle is proceeding in the triangle of Dixmude Reulers and Ypres. Many of the inhabitants are leaving Bruges and are making their way towards Holland."

GAVE ADDRESS TO DELEGATES

President of the Hamilton Conference at Epworth League Convention

The annual convention of the Epworth League of the Hamilton conference was opened yesterday in the Wesley Church, when the Rev. W. S. Daniels, president of the Association occupied the chair. "A feature of the convention is the fact that it celebrates the silver anniversary of the Epworth League. The afternoon session yesterday was principally occupied with the departmental conferences of the workers. These conferences were for the discussion of methods of work, and the giving out of new ideas. They were eminently successful. Rev. Dr. Stephenson, head of the Young People's Forward Movement of Missions of the Methodist church and one of the best known men in this line on the continent, was set and Rev. Dr. Stephenson. They are an enthusiastic pair and are favorites at all conventions.

The evening session was very large and splendid. Rev. Mr. Daniels was in the chair and conducted a short song service. The speaker of the evening was Rev. H. W. Crews of Woodstock, president of the Hamilton conference. The Methodist church is an interesting and a favorite with young people. He based his address around "The Strength of the Word." He said he would not mention any weaknesses—they were in the minority and few in number. He spoke of the organization, the sociability, the propagation, and the expansion of the church. He also admonished the leaguers to be not ashamed of their religion, never to take a "snub," for their profession, to stand up straight and strong. No Christian should make an apology for his faith—in this respect the heathen religions and followers taught Christians a lesson. He punctuated his remarks with apt illustrations and stories. He is an attractive platform orator.

The second part of the evening programme was given over to Missionary Moving Pictures. The operator had a little difficulty at first with the pictures were plain and the views interesting. The general conference in Victoria film was a good one and it was comparatively easy to distinguish the delegates as they passed by on the screen. Views of the Brandon Indian Institute for boys and girls at their different vocations, and many views from Japan and China were shown. The operator promises that everything will work with precision this evening, when more and different views will be shown. The Wesleyan quartette rendered a splendid selection during the service.

The church is profusely decorated with mottoes and flags, some of the former are quite catchy and apt, and are the subject of general comment. Dr. Stephenson has an exceptionally fine display of missionary literature and league helps, and this is quite one of the features of the convention.

SEVERE PAINS AROUND THE HEART

Are Nearly Always Caused by Stomach Trouble.

Don't let a pain in the region of the heart frighten you into thinking you have heart disease—just as a pain in the back seldom indicates kidney trouble, so pain near the heart is scarcely ever present in organic heart disease. The pain is nearly always caused by indigestion, the food does not digest, and the heart and stomach are connected by many nerves, and gas on the stomach causes pressure on the heart.

The alarming pains will disappear if you tone up the stomach, eat the right things and don't worry. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the best stomach tonic. One or two Pills after each meal soon produces a healthy appetite, the food does not distress you, you are no longer troubled with gas, sour risings in the throat, and those misleading pains around the heart. Strength and energy return, and the rich red blood carries renewed vitality to every part of the body. Mrs. Henry Connolly, Brookvale, P.E.I., says: "For a number of years I was a great sufferer from indigestion which, despite all the best medical I took, was gradually growing worse. I would sometimes feel as though I was smothering, and when the trouble came on I would suffer from violent palpitation and pain around the heart which greatly alarmed me. I was under doctor's treatment for a long time, but with no benefit. A friend suggested Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to try them. In about a month I felt much better and by the time I had taken another four boxes I was in the best of health and able to eat all kinds of nourishing food. It is now several years since I was cured and I have never felt a symptom of indigestion since. I take every opportunity of recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to friends who are ailing."

If your dealer does not keep these Pills you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SILVER AND THE EUROPEAN WAR. The European war is bound to create an extra demand for silver. Messrs. Charles A. Stoneham and Co. of Toronto and New York have issued a pamphlet showing why this should be the case and incidentally giving interesting statistics of the different leading silver mine companies.

This pamphlet which has thirty-six pages, is ordinary magazine size and will be sent free to all who apply for it. It is worth your while to secure this copy without charge. Write for one to Messrs. Charles A. Stoneham and Co., 38 Meinda St., Toronto.

The new Italian cabinet under Salandra has been completed. A serious engagement between Generals Villa and Carranza in northern Mexico is reported.

NO WORD RECEIVED. No word up to this afternoon had been received by Colonel Ashton that he would be required to go to the front with the artillery. The Hamilton unit under Colonel Lodge, to which the Brantford battery is attached, has been ordered out, but it is not thought that this order includes the 32nd.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE. A small fire occurred at the home of Mr. Clifford, 60 Alfred street, this morning. The attic took fire and was blazing when the fire brigade arrived. Cutting a hole in the roof, they poured in some chemicals and quickly extinguished the flames. Very little damage was done to the property.

TUTELA FOOTBALL. Tutela will play a picked team from the rest of the league on Saturday at Tutela Park, kick off 3.30 p.m. The following will represent Tutela: Goal, C. Gore; backs, T. Mason, R. Burns; half backs, N. McLeod, R. Vining, P. McLeod; forwards, S. Thibault, J. Humeley, E. Hamilton, G. Bailey, F. Clark, Referee, C. Smith.

A., to-night at 8.15 p.m. This aggregation is to form part of the newly formed international basketball league, composed of Detroit, Cleveland, Rochester, Toronto, Hamilton and Brantford.

A PRESENTATION. Lieutenant Dickson, who left this morning with the active service volunteers, was given a token of esteem and respect by the School Board, trustees at the beginning of the week. He was presented with a complete smoking and shaving outfit and given the best wishes of the trustees, and he suitably replied, thanking the trustees for their kindness.

FIFTY PER CENT NEEDED. At a meeting of the directors held last Saturday, it was generally agreed that 50 per cent of the amount which had been subscribed would be needed before this season is over. Subscribers who are urged to make the payment due by April, now in order to obviate the necessity of the association borrowing the money to finance their requirements.

ALL FOR BELGIANS. Four boxes of food stuffs, not small boxes, but large ones, and six bales of clothing were the net result of the work of the Masonic Association league for the relief of the stricken Belgians. This clothing included all sorts of apparel for men, women and children, while the food stuffs were not of the serial variety, and will stand transit. The shipments have been made this week and the ladies are thankful for the contributions received from many citizens.

PATHETIC SCENE. A very pathetic and heart-rending scene transpired at the station this morning when the soldiers were leaving, when an old lady, with wrinkled face and whitened hair, tottering with the assistance of a cane, asked to be given a position so she could see her grandson leave for the front. Kind and stalwart hands raised the dear old lady on an express truck, where she with tear-dimmed eyes waid a last fond farewell to her loved one.

A JOLLY DANCE. The officers and members of the Shriner's Club held their annual ball in the Masonic Temple last night, when a large number of young people tripped the light fantastic to the splendid music which was provided by Stevenson's Orchestra of Toronto. The affair was one of the jolliest dances of the season, the orchestra playing many popular airs. "Tipperary" seemed to be the favorite, and the musicians were forced to repeat the piece numerous times. Good credit is due to the committee, who did everything in their power to make the evening pleasant and enjoyable for their guests. The happy affair came to a close with three cheers for the King and the singing of the national anthem.
