Walters and others spoke in favor of the resolution, while the opposition speakers were Messrs. L. J. Breithaupt, C. Asmussen and Rev. J. E. Lynn. The citizens opposed to the resolution contended that the changing of the name of the city was unnecessary, and would cause considerable inconvenience. C. Asmussem, however, was the only person to siderable inconvenience. C. Asmussem, however, was the only person to vote against changing the name.

S. J. Williams emphasized the fact that, while the changing of the name would meet with the general approval of the Canadian people, it was also necessary that the young men of the city should fally around the colors and fill up the ranks of the 118th battalion. Unless this was done the changing of the name would serve no good purpose.

serve no good purpose.

The resolution was moved by Allan Eby, a great-grandson of the late Bishop Benjamin Eby, one of the founders of this city, and who named the village in May of 1826 as a com-pliment to the German settlers; and the seconder. George M. Debus, is a native-born citizen.

Service Bill Does

Here is a summary of the main points of the British Military Service Bill:—

The Compulsion Bill applies only to England, Wales and Scotland. It affects British single men and widowers without children dependent on them who were between 18 and 41 on August 15, 1915.

These men may voluntarily join the Derby groups.
