When will it end?

Thousands upon thousands, endless thousands, hold their lives cheap as the price of Victorious Peace.

And we—as we watch from afar their heroic efforts—may we be able to say, that the little we at home could do, we have done;

—that in so far as we could support them, lighten their burdens, bring them comforts, we have done it;

—that we have striven unceasingly to shorten their stay in the Hun made Hell;

—that freely, fervently, unitedly, we have laid our humble offerings alongside their noble sacrifices on the altar of Victory—and Peace.

Another opportunity to lend your individual weight to the blow that will shorten the war comes with the offering of Victory Bonds about to be made. Let not the privilege to do your share find you unprepared.

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in cooperation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

Refused a Decoration.

The London Gazette has announced that the name of James Wood, of the Canadian Munitions Board, should be omitted at his own request from the list of those receiving the Order of the British Empire.

Mr. Wood is a Toronto man. He was formerly connected with the Imperial Munitions Board, but has since resigned. He is president of the British Forgings Co., and also president of the Amalgamated Ammunition Co.

Change.

There is an alchemist I know,
And so I'll have to drop her,
For every time I'm out with her My silver turns to copper.

—Widow.

In These Days.

"It's as useless as the fifth wheel to a wagon."
"That adage is out of date. All automobiles carry an extra tire."

A Candid Editor.

A Canadian acknowledgment of exceeding frankness is this in the Morse News: We made an awful muddle in our last issue in announcing the arrival in town of Mrs. E. L.
Whitby and her sister, Miss Robb, getting Mrs. Whitby's name in as Mrs. Miles and Miss Robb's as Miss Rosa. We apologize for the error and leave our readers to form their own conclusions as to what was wrong with us.
