A SEARCH FOR HAPPINESS

"I am tired of the gloom of my own home town. It is lifeless and dull and dead. I will travel the world across, up and down. Till happiness found," he said.

So he started away with a heart that was light, And he searched and he searched some more, But he found only gloom that was darker than night, And was worse off than ever before.

But still he kept on this Happiness Quest, And many more months sped by He kept right on going without a rest, Until he gave up with a sigh.

And he started back home to the place he had left, Which was lifeless and dull and dead. He had tired of the search after joys bereft, And would stay in his home town he said.

And now you will see him as gay as can be, In the town he had hated before: For joys can't be got, on land or on sea, If you always ask for some more.

Now the moral, I'll tell you before I close, And I know that you will agree, That the saddest ones are always those That are where they have wanted to be.

BRAKE LININGS

A gap or open space of about a half-inch should be made when applying a new brake lining. This will lengthen the life of the lining, as a large amount of grease and grit will accumulate in the gap which would otherwise work into the lining.

More than a score of film stars and producers have formed the Independent Screen Artists' Guild for the purpose of censoring their own photoplays. The plan is to have every picture of these artists reviewed and if any scenes are deemed objectionable by the Guild they are to be eliminated.

Beg pardon, but we don't see you wearing that necktie the wife gave you for Christmas.

HYMENEAL

Newcombe—Cogswell
 The marriage took place Aug. 16th, at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Leonard Cogswell, Belcher St., Port Williams, of Miss Jennie Muriel Cogswell, elder daughter of the late Clayton C. Cogswell, to Mr. Robert FitzRandolph Newcombe, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton H. Newcombe, Belcher St.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. B. Layton, of St. Paul's Church, Kentville, assisted by Rev. Ross Collins, who has recently returned from Scotland, where he has been taking a post-graduate course. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Henry Cogswell, wore a lovely gown of white Duchess satin, and the Juliet cap and veil of tulle were caught with sprays of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was white br de roses, sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Her sister, Miss Claire Cogswell, as bridesmaid, wore a lovely frock of palest grey canton crepe and carried rose-colored sweet peas. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers. The drawing-room, where the ceremony was performed under a latticed arch of sweet peas and green, was entirely done in pink and white flowers. The dining-room color scheme was mauve and white, and the living-room and hall were most artistic in shades of yellow. At the entrance of the drawing-room seven young girl friends of the bride, carrying basketfuls of flowers and white ribbons, lined the pathway which the bridal party entered, as Miss Gladys Newcombe played the wedding march. They were the Misses Ada Harris, Annie Morline, Laura Hansen, Dorothy Illsley, Doris Runciman, Bridgetown; Mary Beckwith, Hantsport; and Lou Crowe, Berwick.

After the ceremony and when the bride and groom had received the congratulations of the friends, lunch was served on the lawn. Mr. and Mrs. Newcombe left in the early afternoon for a motor trip through the Province and will spend some time at Port Lorne, on the Bay of Fundy shore. Mrs. Newcombe travelled in a new blue suit and feather toque.

The gifts were lovely, including silver, china, linen and cut-glass. Both bride and groom are very popular, and satisfaction is expressed that Kings county is not losing one of her most charming daughters.

A large number of guests were present at the ceremony, including the bride's aunt, Mrs. Norman Marchant, Wollaston, Mass., and many from Annapolis, Bridgetown, Berwick, Hantsport and the surrounding country.

LORD NORTHCLIFFE'S FORTUNE

London, Aug. 21—The News of the World, Lord Riddell's paper estimates that Lord Northcliffe left a fortune of probably four million pounds. On that basis the death duties on the estate will amount to about $1,750,000.

It is understood that even members of his family had no knowledge at the time of Lord Northcliffe's death of the dispositions made in the will.

HERE'S THE BEST EVER ON TWILIGHT BASEBALL

A semi-pro pitcher, who joined Tris Speaker's Indians recently, being recruited out of the sandlots, tells this yarn on the Twilight League in Cleveland.

In a certain game the teams played extra innings and it was so dark you could hardly see your hand in front of you. The home club was at bat with a man on third and two out.

The visiting catcher, smart in his generation, walked out to the pitcher and said: "Give me that ball. Now you wind up and I'll punch the glove when you get through with your motion."

The catcher put the ball behind his protector and squatted behind the plate. The count was three and two and two hands were down.

The pitcher wound up and made the motion of throwing. The catcher slapped his glove and showed the ball right in behind the heart o' the plate.

"Strike three", yelled the umpire. "You blind fool", roared the batter, "that ball was a foot outside."

A CONCESSION TO HOME INVESTORS

In offering to renew the five and a half per cent. Canadian Government bonds maturing December 1st at the same rate of interest as is carried by the maturing bonds, and allowing a bonus of one month's interest, the Minister of Finance is making a material concession to the Canadian investor, as this rate is higher than was paid on the recent Canadian loan in New York. The high class of the security, which is the very best that can be offered in Canada, and the liberal rate of interest should lead to large investment in these Dominion bonds. Attention is directed to the official advertisement giving details.

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY FOR 1922

All the radicals, kickers, general objectors an' fault-finders shriek out loud when somebody says work is the foundation of happiness an' contentment. Just a scheme of the rich to keep the poor at the grind they say. Maybe. But why not fool 'em? Work ain't work when a fellow's doin' what he likes to do, and everybody likes to be a leader in his line, so if we can't get to do what we want to do, we can do what we have to do better than the other fellow an' lead the procession.

One step won't take you very far, You've got to keep on walking; One word won't tell folks who you are, You've got to keep on talking; One inch won't make you very tall, You've got to keep on growing; One little ad won't do it all, You've got to keep them going.

Nearly 250 children under nine years of age were burned to death in Canada last year, exclusive of Quebec, for which province there are no figures available. Nova Scotia's quota was 21.

Issued in 1917 and Maturing 1st December, 1922.

CONVERSION PROPOSALS

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers to holders of these bonds who desire to continue their investment in Dominion of Canada securities the privilege of exchanging the maturing bonds for new bonds bearing 5½ per cent interest, payable half yearly, of either of the following classes:—

(a) Five year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1927.

(b) Ten year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1932.

While the maturing bonds will carry interest to 1st December, 1922, the new bonds will commence to earn interest from 1st November, 1922, GIVING A BONUS OF A FULL MONTH'S INTEREST TO THOSE AVAILING THEMSELVES OF THE CONVERSION PRIVILEGE.

This offer is made to holders of the maturing bonds and is not open to other investors. The bonds to be issued under this proposal will be substantially of the same character as those which are maturing, except that the exemption from taxation does not apply to the new issue.

Holders of the maturing bonds who wish to avail themselves of this conversion privilege should take their bonds AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE, BUT NOT LATER THAN SEPTEMBER 30th, to a Branch of any Chartered Bank in Canada and receive in exchange an official receipt for the bonds surrendered, containing an undertaking to deliver the corresponding bonds of the new issue.

Holders of maturing fully registered bonds, interest payable by cheque from Ottawa, will receive their December 1 interest cheque as usual. Holders of coupon bonds will detach and retain the last unmatured coupon before surrendering the bond itself for conversion purposes.

The surrendered bonds will be forwarded by banks to the Minister of Finance at Ottawa, where they will be exchanged for bonds of the new issue, in fully registered, or coupon registered or coupon bearer form carrying interest payable 1st May and 1st November of each year of the duration of the loan, the first interest payment accruing and payable 1st May, 1923. Bonds of the new issue will be sent to the banks for delivery immediately after the receipt of the surrendered bonds.

The bonds of the maturing issue which are not converted under this proposal will be paid off in cash on the 1st December, 1922.

W. S. FIELDING,
 Minister of Finance.

Dated at Ottawa, 8th August, 1922.
