WEEKLY JOURNAL

ACY, ETC., ETC., IN THE 'QUIVER.'

'Oh, uncle! I'm so happy, I don't in such high spirits on your birthday?'

to get with a sovereign!

can't walk.'

looks so pinched and white. I go and trampled to death.

like a little run. I am so excited-I stricken heart.

Our Country with its United Interests.

Newcastle, Wednesday, August 16, 1893.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

WHOLE No. 1345

Charles J. Thomson

Vol. XXVI.-No. 45.

Solicitor for Bank Nova Scot a Barrister, Poctor for Estates, Agent for the Manufactures Accident & Life Insurance Company.

Notary Public, &c. OFFICE Over Mr. Thos. Russell's Store, Hays' Build ng, Newcastle, Miramichi, N. B.

O. J. MacCULLY, M. A. M. D., Memb. BOY. COL. SURG., LONDON. SPECIALIST.

DISEAS S OF EYE EAR THROAT Office: Cor. Westmorland and Main Stree . icton, Nov. 12, 188d,

Dr. R. Nicholson, Office and Residence,

McCUI-LAM ST., Jan. 22 1889.

Dr. H. A. FISH,

Newcastle, N B.

ilec. 23, 1991. W. A. Wilson, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon,

J. R. LAWLOR, Auctioneer and Commission merchant,

Newcaste, New Brunswick Prompl returns made on consignmen erchandize. Auct ons attended to in town

S. R. Foster & Son, MANUFACTUERS OF

WIRE NAILS. WIRE BRADS Steel and NAILS

And SPIKES, TACKS, BRADS, SHOE NAILS. HUNGARIAN NAILS, &c.

ST. JOHN N. B.

MILLINER

I have opened as usual an elegant line Ladies' and Children's NEW SPRING MILLINERY Also dress trimmings in Surah Silk, Lace, Je &c. Ladies' Whitewear, Corsets, Lace Mitt and Gloves, Infants' Robes, Cloaks, Hats, Bibs &c., and a variety of articles too numerous to

I have also on hand a lovely lot of Trimme MILIJNERY, ranging from one dollar upward which cannot fail to please. All orders executed in first class style. Newcastle, April 10, 1893.

TAILORING.

I wish to remind my patrons and the publicenerally that I am still Carrying on the Tailoring in the old stand over Messrs. Sutherland a Creaghan's Store. I have a fine LINE OF SAMPLES o select from. Parties furnishing the goods can have them made up in GOOD STYLE and Cheaper than elsewhere. Perfect Satisfaction has been given in the past and I can guarantee the same in the future. J. R. McDONALD. Newcastle Sept. 1862, MILLINERY.

I have just opened a beautiful line of Ladies and Children's SPRING MILLINERY yith all the newest trimmings. Also an a Ik and jet, suitable for dress trimmings, addies silk and nuslin Neckties, Aprons and Handkerchiefs. Children's Collogs.

Latest Novelties and Lowest prices. All work done promptly and in first class styl

JENNIE E. WRIGHT. Newcastle, April 18, 1893.

SHORTHAND.

JOHN B. SARGEANT, GEO. BURCHILL, Jr., Executors. Chatham Head, July 24, 1893. the above. Terms will be made known on Waverley Hotel.

The Subscriber has thoroughly fitted up and New Brunswick has McKeen house, Newcastle, and is prepared to ceive and accommodate transient guests. good table and pleasant rooms provide John McKeen. Newcastle, March 28, 1893.

R. R. Gremley's teams will attend all trains

The Derby HousE, NEWCASTLE, N. (Formerly Mitchell House.)

This Hotel has been refitted and newly furnished. Every attention paid to the of guests. Sample Room Free.

TERMS $1.25 per day. I P Leighton.

Clifton House. ST. JOHN N. B.

A. N. Peters, Prop'r. Heated by Steam throughout. Prompt at ntion and moderate charges. Telephon mmmunication with all parts of the city.

merejal travellers.

cester, N. B.

Manufacturers of Cedar Shingles, Box Shooks Dimension Lumber in hard and soft woods Spool Wood, etc.

Elm Tree, Petit Rocher, Nov. 19, 1892.

MUSICAL TUITION.

VOCAL CULTUKE.

Tailoring Establishment

Call at McLEOD'S and

Examine our Spring and

Summer Stock

BLACK, BLUE and Fancy WORSTEDS,

English, Seotch and Canadian TWEEDS.

and a great Variety of FANCY

-ALSO-

Remember the Place—Carter's Block

(Next Door to Bank of Nova Scotia.

Newcastle, May 1st, 1893.

SIMON MCLEOD

DR. CATES, DENTIST,

until further notice. Hoping to meet his pa-tients as formerly, for whom Satisfactory Dental work will be done in all branches.

Executors' Notice.

of Plain and Fancy Suitings,

at Reasonable Prices.

prepared to take pupils in Terms on Application. Newcastle, June 6th, 1893.

MIRAMICHI STEAM NAVIGATION CO'Y.

m. JOHNSTON, Proprietor.

Good Sample rooms for Com-"NELSON.

JOHN MORRISON & CO., for Douglastown for Newcastle, (Cail's Wharf) for Bushville, Newcastle & Douglastown Douglastown Bushville, Newcastle & Douglastown & Chatham, Solar Time.

9 00 a. m.
11 00 a. m.
11 40 a m.
12 10 p. m.
14 40 a m.
15 11 40 a m.
16 12 10 p. m.
16 12 10 p. m. Elm Tree, Petit Rocher, Glou-

CAPT. DEGRACE. PIANO FORTE, PIPE ORGAN, and

food to return same day.

Excursion tickets will be issued on Satur-them after a month's visit.

NOW That The Pic Nic SEASON

TROUSERINGS. which we Make up in good style and IS ON don't forget to buy your Ladies Cloaks Cut and made.

CHEAP CASH STORE.

at the

Thos. A. Clarke. Newcastle, July 11th, 1893.

Spectacles EYECLASSES nad CASES.

As usual we have a leader One Dollar Spectacle as the finest steel bows nickel plate l, and is he best value ever offered for the money.

Spectacles and Eyeglasses repaired. H. WILLISTON, & Co.

All persons having claims against the estate of the late Charles Sargeant will please forward the same duly attested.

And all indebted to the said estate are Job Frinting, plain and in colors in first class style 3m. at this Establishment.

One of the best known Belicted Eiterature. and ablest physicians in THE FLINTY SQUIRE.

said: I regard GRODER'S

BOTANIC DYSPEPSIA SYRUP

as an excellent remedy and one destined to attain a large sale.

has this to say

May 3rd, 1893. affering for about seven years with sovereign! Why, I've been turning it she nestled up to her uncle, drawing fully, of her new sovereign. I had tried so many with such in- times already!' cal of so called Sure Cures and it?' remedies, However, I am glad to 'Oh, I've planned it all out. Mam- father, mother, brothers and sisters to say that I tried your Groder's ma is to have a real Russia leather loving little Ella. Syrup to the extent of two bottles blotting-book on her birthday-that's and have never had a twinge of this day fortnight; and papa must have

The harmonious testimony of many winnesses should convince you that GRODER'S SYRU? CURES DYSPEPSIA.

CONVENIENT of Access,

will leave Chathan for points down-river, viz.

Miss Edith Troy.

Graduate of Mount

Graduate of Music,

Conservatory of Music

Wednsday and Fridays, and Bay du Vin on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, carrying named, and the "MIRAMICHI'S" passengers for points up river will be sent thereto by the "NELSON" free of charge. Meals served on board the "MIRAMICHI" at Ella was there, for the Squire had had no children to stay since his sister had brought her little regular hours and at reasonable rates.

Excursion Tickets from all Points, 50 cents, Good to return same day.

Excursion tickets will be issued on Scann.

which she had greatly revived.

thoughts would wander.

ys for points down river, during the months
June and July good for that day only, ures from Chatham 25 cents, Douglastown, ushville, 30 cents, Newcastle and Nelson

The childen cried at times, as children attention became wholly fixed on the

So he was glad to turn fidgeted their uncle; and the only one speaker.

Parties having Freight to ship to any points for whom the Squire had any liking was Could a little one such as she help wn-river must have it on the wharf not later an 8.30 a. m. All Freight charges must be epaid, on both boats, Freight will be at loving child, and always found pleasure oh! such a beautiful work! Yes, her

W. T. CONNORS, MANAGER. in sitting on the Squire's knee and going uncle had given her a half crown; that about with him, prattling the while in would do something. Then, when the such a pleasant, garrulous way that she question came of giving that which cost something, the shadow deepened True, he had almost forgotten her on Ella's face. What could she give after their visit; but hearing she had up?

been poorly he had written a few weeks since to his sister and asked that she might come down to get the fresh air of the country, under the influence of and self-surrender was fought out. No, she could not do that; and her He had not asked his sister, or her uncle might be displeased. That was husband, or any of the children to ac- out of the question; she put it from DRY GOODS company Ella, nor had he the slightest her. But the thought would come back again and again. When she got home At length the little girl was sobered she would do some work; she would by her active exercise, and came and make a collection for the cause. But took the old man's hand again, and the preacher had said, 'To give up our give it up' You see, it cost me some- It cost England twenty millions of Challies reduced 20 per cent, to walked demurely by his side down best and dearest hopes; tothrough the park, along the little vil- Yes, she might give up her best and but I'm so glad, because I'm a little like Napier of Magdala. Was not that a lage street, to the tiny ivy-clad church. dearest hopes; and, oh ! if God would you now, uncle !'

As they walked through the church- accept it! If her heavenly father saw about the porch, discussing the last worth the sacrifice? week's gossip, made their way into the That day the church wardens had church; whilst the sexton was apprised great surprise in the vestry.

stopped the bell as he came into church. was no less than £10. 'The Squire's mighty punctual this 'From the Squire,' said Mr. Holmes.

Having just received a complete assortment of interchangeable Spectacle and Eyeglass on the stroke of the half-hour.'

"From the Squire,' said Mr. Holmes on the stroke of the half-hour." 'Oh! he's got his little niece with 'Wonderful! they both exclaimed in a him, remarked the clerk, 'and looks an breath. inch taller and two inches more lively 'Why, there's a sovereign too!' cried

Mr. Prior. 'Who can have given for the love of Christ.

Jewelers, attention fixed on the service that morn-sovereign.

She tried her very hardest but her seemed. How calm and beautiful everything Holmes.

old church, with the sunlighed streaming through the colored windows; how They struck it on the table.

she liked to hear the villagers' voices inging! how strange it sounded to hear the true ring about it.' 'Good? I should think it is? It's got em sing 'Even the mune by night!' Well, twelve pounds five shillings BY THE AUTHOR OF 'AN EXPECTED LEG- How restful and pleasant it was, after and sevenpence haltpenny is the largest the crowded church, with its overdressed people, which she attended in collection we ever had at this church,' town! Then her eyes rested on the remarked Mr. Prior; 'and I feel proud clergyman sitting within the com- of it.' And little Ella Crawford caressed the munion-rails in the chancel. 'That's bony claw which she held between her the missionary,' she thought. What a The little group of villagers who were two soft, dimpled palms, as she trotted fat, happy, good-natured looking man congregated together, discussing the along gaily and sunnily that lovely he was! He was rather like her father sermon and the latest news, stood mer morning towards the village _ah! she would give her father a deferentially aside as the Squire and his flower vase: he was fond of flowers. little niece left the church.

'That's right,' said the Squire, relax- Then came a reproxing twinge of con- Ella no longer bounded along with the ing the stern set look which habitually science as she found her hand circling elasticity which she had displayed on dwelt on his face: 'but are you always that golden piece in her pocket. their way to church ; but, in place of it, Ella was very happy that morning a thoughtful expression had taken posses- with a touch of satire in his voice. 'Generally ; but I never never had and it seemed all too soon when she saw sion of her face.

This is to certify that after such a grand present before—a whole the missionary go into the pulpit, and She was thinking seriously, not sorrow-in fact, represented for the time being, minute.

dyspepsia since last November.

Yours, J. E. FOSTER.

Something, but I can't think what just sphere. The preacher was telling them now. Daisy must have a new hat. of Madagascar, where he labored, and the laby now. Jack a cricket-ball, and the baby new the cruel customs which prevailed there Equire's voice.

in regard to children. Children born on 'Dear me! that's a great many things two particular days in the year, he said, were sacrificed to their fertishes, or false Oh, but mamma will help me: she gods. The little babies were either a long way. But that isn't all. There's the little flower-girl's mother, who the little flower-girl's mother, who the little flower-girl's mother, who is the little flower-girl's mother. read to her sometimes; and she's to have Then he told them of those who were get all the money he wants.' read to her sometimes; and she's to have sometimes; and she's to have sometimes and offer it to you.

They will drink and offer it to you.

They will drink and offer it to you.

They will think it a manly practice, and Christ; of mothers bringing their little she added, as if to bring more vividly received on the morning he was starting them. Then what will you do?

'We are trying,' continued the mis- intended.' And so she bounded off among the trees, returning again and again to ment of a school for native boys and trees, returning again and believing ment of a school for native boys and the believed to fervent and believing to the said softly, 'you slightest clue whence the gift came, and again to ment of a school for native boys and one of these days I'll try to be like the has received to fervent and believing the has received to fervent and believing to the said softly, 'you slightest clue whence the gift came, and again to be has received to fervent and believing to the said softly, 'you slightest clue whence the gift came, and and one of these days I'll try to be like the said softly, 'you slightest clue whence the gift came, and again to be has received to fervent and believing the said softly, 'you slightest clue whence the gift came, and again to be has received to fervent and believing the said softly.

so little of the pleasures of love and un- girls. I have now been in England you.' nearly a year, and have to return in about a tortnight's time. So far, I have pleasure passed through the squire's heart. 9 40 a. m. 10 15 a. m.
11 40 a m. 12 15 p. m.
2 40 p. m. 3 15 p. m.
5 10 p. m. 5 45 p. m.
7 45 p. m.
45 p. m.
46 downwards. He was a hard man, too, and the third and the squire's heart. He was a hard man, too, and the third and the squire's heart. He was a hard man, too, and the third and the squire's heart. He was a hard man, too, and the squire's heart. He was a hard man, too, and the squire's heart. He was a hard man, too, and the squire's heart. He was a hard man, too, and the squire's heart. He was a hard man, too, and the squire's heart. He was a hard man, too, and the squire's heart. He was a stern man; that everyone been able to collect five thousand the squire's heart. It hadn't occurred to him for years, that thought of denial for anyone's sake. He had had no one to deny himself for, and her husband had left her by reason of the a citizen of Great Britain, as much as it turning home one night he found his since his sister had brought her little money but their lives to God. What family, four years ago; and then the can be more glorious than seeking to

for your father ?'

face ere she repliedisn't one you want to give him ?'

missionary school.'

'What, your new sovereign?' Yes; and I'm so glad I was able to home to England in safety. (Applause.) thing-a great deal at the time, really; pounds, and made General Napier Lord joyfully.

that the squire was approaching, and A piece of paper lay in the plate; it didn't know it was coming; and I want in safety. Who would not die for a lence is sweeping away our brightest and some day to be good like you, uncle country that can do that. and then I'll give ten pounds, if I have

> But the Squire was very thoughtful walking home, very thoughtful, too, all day long, and at night.

And he-what had he given?

planning and contriving, as they often operator showed him a proof.

did she was astonished to receive a | 'There,' said he, 'I think this is a letter in his almost forgotten handwri- pretty good likeness.' ting, and on breaking the seal read :

times I want to give you a present. I seen the Wild Man of Borneo, and he's can't tell what would be acceptable, but not half so ugly and frightful looking as it you will spend the enclosed in the this." purchase of something I shall be glad. | -'I really send it,' he added, in place of what Ella was intending to send you;

Dyspepsia, I was induced by a over in my pocket, and weighing it in his hand into herlap, and giving it a soft 'I'm so glad I gave it? she was saying And that was but the commencement Dyspepsia, I was induced by a trial my hand, and looking at it a hundred pat with her little hands from time to time to herself; so glad I could make up my of better times. Mrs. Crawford is now as an outlet for the affectionate thoughts mind to give it! Tis very little, after often at the Hall, and whenever the I had tried so many with such indifferent results that I felt skepti'And what are you going to do with passing through her mind. That hand all; but it was a real sacrifice for the children want fresh air, they are there too: whilst at holiday times the Hall

> But she soon became deeply interested presents for her father, mother, and things, the Squire is the chief gainer. in others beyond her own immediate brother and sisters, yet each thought. No one would recognize the kindly, pleasant happy face of today to be one Her reverie was broken by the and the same with that stern, suspici

'That was a very good sermon But he knows to whom he is indebted But he knows to whom he is made tice. You don't drink how, and it for his happiness, and he fixes the date as if you never would. But your temp-'Oh very good; I never heard such a when the change took place on a certain says she has to make a sovereign go such drowned or buried alive, or placed in the nice one before. I nearly cried when I Sunday morning, when a child's one act a long way. But that isn't all. There's gateway at the entrance to the village, heard of the poor little children who were of whole hearted unselfishness wrought

I certainly gave much more than I had that accompanied them was a slip of conscience making the whole draught paper, on which was written,, 'A Thank- bitter, and then go off with a hot head And so she bounded off among the sionary, 'to raise a sum of ten thousand 'Ah, uncle!' she said softly, 'you offering.' He has never had the and sulking soul that at once begins to family, who, after losing all the money admirable. It is worth something to be volver and loaded every chamber. Re

A COUNTRY TO DIE FOR.

So he was glad to turn to her and young man by the name of Campbell check. Well, have you thought of a present 4,000 feet above the sea level. Word ing but the mercy of the judge would was sent to Great Britain that he was have saved the boy from penal servi-A shade of regret passed over the child's there without the authority of law, and Great Britain demanded his release.—

Great Britain demanded his release.—

merciful, refused even to order a flog-Why, has he so many things that there isn't one you want to give him?'

"Indeed, no; only—"

Great Britain demanded his release.—
King Theodore refused to release. In 30 days time from the refusal, 10,000 to come up for sentence when called upon. Mark the result! From the board ships which, with their white wings spread, sailed down to that coast. wings spread, sailed down to that coast to become one of the bravest and most 'Indeed, no; only—
'Only what?' said the squire, seeing They landed upon that coast: they marched up the mountain heights and marched up the mountain heights and the consciousness of naval service; and the consciousness of 'We'l, uncle, I didn't wish to tell gave battle to King Theodore and his his own safety and the lad's peril so yon, but I haven't got my sovereign forces. They beat down the iron gates affected the drunkard that he became a and the walls of stone, and reached down into the dungeon and took that one tried but forgiving wife, lived happily Oh no; not lost it. I gave it for the British citizen out, and carried him down the mountain side across the swamps and morasses, and put him on true. the white winged ships and carried him

Krewskin looked at it and finally said, 'DEAR EVELYN: I am very much en- 'It'll do.' When he got home, he joying Ella's visit, and hope you will showed it to his wife and told her it was not want her back for a long time, as a picture of the 'Wild Man of Borneo she seems benefitting by the change. that was on exhibition at the town hall. 'I learn, by accident, your birthday 'You can't fool me,' said his wife, 1s at hand, and in rememberance of old examining the picture critically. 'I've Temperance.

NEWCASTLE W. C. T. U.

in the Mission Hall every Tuesday afternoon, commencing at 3 o'clock. Visiinterested in the Temperance

A WORD FOR THE BOYS.

And though her mind would wanter for an instant to the thought of the But of all those who benefit by these is a plan that is just as sure to save you

There is a certain missionary who is They will drink and offer it to you. The Steamer "Nelson" and "Liramichi" 'Well, and what are you going to gospei; of men and women abandoning 'Well, and what are you going to gospei; of men and women abandoning their habits of cruelty for the love of little girl. 'Ten whole sovereigns!' large sum of five thousand pounds, he a milksop if you don't indulge with before her mind the greatness of the from an anonymous donor, five onethe will be delicious! I can see how delighted they will all be. If you don't lighted they will all be. If you don't mind, uncle, she went on, 'I should mind, uncle, she we

A ROMANCE OF THE REVOLVER. Carrying freight and passengers between the points named.

RATES OF PASSAGE, Single fare between Chatham and Newcastle, or Nelson or vice versa, 20 cents. Return Tickets issued on board at 30 cents. Carry in fixets good for 25 trips issued at the rate of 12 cents a trip, to other points corresponding reduction will be made.

OTHER 16 AN ENEMY'S TRIBUTE to BRITAIN'S GREATNESS.

If Mr Charles Reale were alive he would paste into his dramatic scrap and it may be that even yet He will enable me to accomplish my pur pose. If people only gave that which cost them something—if they made some real self-sacrifice, if they gave up some treasured for the made and particularly. I do not think she treated us well in the war. Indeed I Daily Telegraph:—A placky ways bringing leak filling the rade.

Return Tickets issued on board at 30 cents. Carry at Portland.)

If Mr Charles Reale were alive he would paste into his dramatic scrap and sterner, and bleaker and dreatier, until it seemed as if the treasures of love and joy and pity were to be stifled and put aside forever.

Return Ticket sould paste into his dramatic scrap and it may be that even yet He will enable me to accomplish my pur pose. If people only gave that which cost them something—if they made some real self-sacrifice, if they gave up some treasured flinty hearted than the Squire.

Return Ticket sould paste into his dramatic scrap and dreatier, until it seemed as if the treasures of love and joy and pity were to be stifled and put aside forever.

Return Ticket sould paste into his dramatic scrap and sterner, and bleaker and dreatier, until it seemed as if the treasures of love and joy and pity were to be stifled and put aside forever.

Return Ticket sould paste into his dramatic scrap and it may be that even yet He will paste into his dramatic scrap and it may be that even yet He will paste into his dramatic scrap and it may be that the will paste into his dramatic scrap and it may be that the will paste into his dramatic scrap and it may be that the will paste int book for future use on the page the story told recently by Judge Denman damage done to the crops, referred them to his agent, who was, if anything more flinty hearted than the Squire.

And although he had such a grard hall, and such a heautiful park, and so many and such a heautiful park and such His pleasant thoughts ended in a vision enemy I think I can see something square, that if he ever dared to ill-treat mind of Widow Jones, with her large they may be located, is marvellous, and and brought a three and six penny re save souls for our master?"

During the sermon Ella's face had gradually deepened in thought as her late the sermon same and of many a similar piece of crushing that wonderful little episode in her his came the revolver, and the drunken late this moment, and you will remember it, despotism which the little girl's words that wonderful little episode in her his came the revolver, and the drunken tory where King Theodore seized a beast received the fourth shot full in the without any justification of law, and put him in the fortress of Kagdala, about with wounding with intent to kill. Noth-

WORK TO BE DONE.

ever after.' There are chords of human-great thing for a great country to do? among the pilgrims of Mecca, Arabia, for And she was again the lively, loving An eye sharp enough to see one of its the month of June, exceeds 5,000 and As they wasked through the church and sale was again the firely, the month of June, exceeds 5,000 and yard, the group of villagers lingering and knew all about it, would it not be Ella, skipping about and frisking along thirty millions of people, and an arm throughout the civilized world the press strong enough to stretch across the ocean is expressing the horror of the people at 'You see, they won't miss what I and morasses and pluck him as a brand the fearful decimation of humanity, and was going to give them, because they from the burning, and carry him home vet in cur own America, a fearful pestibest citizens. An army of men in Canada are engaged in the industry of mak-SHE HAD SEEN THE WILD MAN, ing paupers and beggars. The malt An attempt at a practical joke which 1892, averaged a half barrel to the man. had some real humor in it and which Can we, with consistency, weep over the The child had given all that she had resulted in a laugh for all hands mote of mortality in Arabia and remain was that which, according to an blind to the awful beam of misery, dis-English newspaper, a certain Mr. grace, and death in our own land. Bro. Krewskin endeavored to play upon his and Sister Good Templars, it is our today, Ella. You will like to give Then they went over every one in the So the days passed on, and the little wife. This story is to the effect that as especial providence as an organization, Then they went over every one in the something; so take this half-crown, and put it in the plate when it comes round. It was a sore trial to Ella to keep her attention fixed on the service that morn-attention fixed on the service that attention fixed on the service that morn-attention fixed on the service that morn-attention fixed on the service that morn-attention fixed on the service that attention fixed on the service that a service tha ing. Her thoughts would stray to the No; they went over each name twice, they were experiencing, he softened taken just for fun, he mentally remark-No; they went over each name twee, they were experiencing, he solution in her pocket, and, to the but got no nearer. It was a mystery, and delights which that sovereign was to purchase for her loved ones.

No; they went over each name twee, they were experiencing, he solution is they thought they were experiencing, he solution is they thought they were experiencing, he solution is they mark this only sister, and the feelings of entering the establishment. He was as good as his word. He sat for his pictures — Tintypes, doubtless — and they mark and delege the responsibility. A fortnight later, whilst his sister and flattered himself that he looked his best. of this work and do our part to keep 'A new sovereign, mark you!' said Mr. her husband were sitting at breakfast, When the sittings were over, the this great machine of Reform moving