House hunting used to be toil.

Many a woman has endured hardships during the period of house hunting preceding the period of moving that has told heavily on her strength. Do not wear yourself out looking for a house. Save your strength. You will need it in these first few days when you want to straighten up your new home.

Instead of trudging up one street and down another, simply turn to the Classified Columns of this newspaper. There you will find houses that are for rent.

If the kind of a dwelling that you want is not published, place your own advertisement stating what you want in next day's paper. Some landlord will see your advertisement and will come to you.

Fun For Our Readers

Down and Out.

In the game of Life, when your luck is strong.

And nothing in all the world goes wrong.

When you're flush in health, and in pocket,

And everything simply comes to you;

When you're near the finish, the goal in sight,

Through her tears of gladness, with love a light.

And the crowd is cheering you left and right;

When you breast the tape, and the race is done.

And the prize and the prize at last are won;

When somebody's eyes are beaming bright.

When somebody holds you warm within his arms,

In her pride to see you win.

Why, life is laughter, and life is good,

And everything's easy and understood.

With plenty to eat and drink and spend,

And enough to spare when there's need to lend.

When it's good to have, and it's good to give,

And life is so good that it's good to live.

In the game of Life, when your luck is strong.

And nothing in all the world goes wrong.

In the battle of Life, when you hear the going.

But you're down and out, and the fight's gone wrong.

When you're down and out, and the fight's gone wrong.

When you're down and out, and the fight's gone wrong.

Too Long.

Brown sat the opera—ten years are supposed to elapse between the third and fourth act.

Jones—Come out and have something. I don't imagine ten years having elapsed during which I haven't had a drink.

Domestic Bliss.

They had been trotting in double harness for seven long, weary months, and the honeymoon had bumped the bumps for fair.

"John," she said, as she dished out the breakfast food, "I need a little pin money this morning."

"What do you do with the $1 I gave you last week?" asked the man who had promised to love, honor and pay the freight.

"Oh, I don't remember," she replied. "It's so easy to spend $1 and have nothing to show for it."

"Richie you are," sighed John. "That was the amount I paid the minister for marrying me."—Chicago News.

Something Lacking.

The Doctor—You've never met Col. Flood, have you? You would like him. He's a perfect gentleman.

The Professor—A perfect gentleman? How can he be? You have told me yourself that you removed his vermiform appendix.—Chicago Tribune.

Dangerous.

"Don't you think," said the landlord, "that a law permitting drinks with Sunday meals would be a good thing?"

"Well," responded the guest addressed; "it would run the public digestion. No man could eat a dozen meals Sunday and keep well, sir."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Just Like a Man.

"He vowed he would love me always, no matter what happened."

"Well,"

"And got mad five minutes later because I had a pin in my belt."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Pardonable Curiosity.

"Rivers, what brand is that cigar you're smoking?"

"It's a Pler de Banke. Making a memorandum of it, Brooks? I'll tell you where you can."

"What's the name of it, old man, in my list of 'Things to be Avoided.'"

MEAS LES.

"We had a pretty wide-awake time up at our house last night."

"What was it? Burglars breaking in?"

No; baby breaking out."

FOR CHARITY. A FINE ONE.

How the Late Miss Doolittle Left Her Money.

St. Matthew's Lady Entertainers Score Another Success.

By her will the late Miss Juliet Wilcox Doolittle bequeathed an estate of $13,147, largely to religious and charitable institutions. Except for $347 in household furniture and cash in the bank the estate was made up of Steel & Iron Company stock. Each of two brothers, Charles M. and Wilcox Doolittle, received $1,000. A number of small bequests are made to relatives and faithful employees. The bequests to church and charitable organizations are: Domestic missions, 10 shares, $800. Foreign missions, 5 shares of stock, $400. Parochial work, Christ's Church Cathedral, 15 shares, $1,200. Holiday House, Beach, 15 shares, $1,200. Day Nursery, 10 shares, $800. Aged Women's Home, 5 shares, $400. Hamilton Health Association, 20 shares, $1,000. Salvation Army, $50.

TIMES PATTERNS.

No. 228—Ladies' Shirtwaist. Cut in sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 will require 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch material. Linen, cotton, voile and pongee are all suitable for making up. This design, which will be most appropriate for a separate blouse to wear with odd skirts or as part of a costume. The pattern provides for full length sleeves or shorter ones completed by turned back cuffs. A pattern of this illustration will be mailed to any address on the receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

DAY NURSERY.

Day Nursery in connection with Youmans W. C. T. U. was a very wet one, but a fair number of the ladies met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. L. Smith, on Rebecca street. The annual pound social was held, and each lady brought either groceries or money for the nursery.

Mrs. Warner conducted the Bible reading, which was a helpful one on comfort.

Mrs. Chadwick's report was, in consequence of the absence of that lady through illness, read by Mrs. Henderson, and was an interesting resume of the work and object of the Day Nursery, with thankfulness as its keynote. Mrs. Henderson added a few words of her own for the benefit of new members, giving the history of the nursery from its inception, fifteen years ago, by Mrs. Waters, the first president of Youmans.

Several items of business were discussed and laid on the table, to be settled at the next meeting, which will be on March 2.

Need No Longer Fear the Knife

Gravel Easily and Naturally Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Joseph Pelrine Who Suffered the Torments of This Terrible Complaint for Nine Months Tells How the Old Reliable Kidney Remedy Cured Him.

Port Felix East, Guyboro Co. N. S., Feb. 24.—(Special.)—That you need no longer fear the knife if troubled with gravel or other urinary troubles is the glad news from Joseph Pelrine, a well-known young fisherman here, is telling his friends.

"I suffered intense pain from gravel and other urinary troubles for nine months," Mr. Pelrine says. "But seven boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me completely. I heartily recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to anyone who is suffering from gravel or urinary troubles."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure gravel by dissolving the kidney. The urinary organs are entirely dependent on the kidneys. If the kidneys are not in good working order they cannot filter out the uric acid, and it combines with other products of the body and causes gravel. Healthy kidneys dissolve the stones and they pass off in the urine. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure gravel.

Ald. J. W. Benough has secured three months' leave of absence from the Toronto Board of Control to visit Australia. He will lecture there.

Seeing is Believing.

A United States agency that is selling books has a man who ought to write folders. Here is a sample:

"A tour of the world! What a fascinating prospect these magic words conjure up! A tour of the world! The first enchanting glimpse into the lands that lie beyond our doors; the mingling with entirely new peoples; the viewing of strange scenes and customs; the phenomenal mind-broadening effects; the liberal education it conveys. Perhaps you have longed many times to make this marvelous trip yourself, only to be obliged to dispel the idea because of business, health, family ties, or the question of finances. Is this so?"

Our answer to the question is, call upon Mr. Grant, city passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, get the tickets and see the things as they are, instead of staying at home and thinking how they may be. One thing is certain, wherever you want to go, whatever part of the continent or of the world, no company can take you as far or look after you as well as the C. P. R.

HERKIMER BAPTISTS.

Last Tuesday evening a very pleasant social time was spent in connection with the R. Y. P. U. of Herkimer Baptist Church. Solos were sung by Miss Lizzie Jackson, Mrs. Vinnal and Mr. Hill, and recitations were given by Miss Ethel Smith and Mr. Stanley Smith. An amusing duet, entitled "Matrimonial Secrets," was given by Miss R. Layland and Mr. Huron Beares. After the interesting programme, supper was served, which was enjoyed by all, and then a number of interesting and amusing one minute speeches were given. The president, Mr. F. Skelden, spoke a few words, and a very enjoyable social ended by singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."
