

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Several cases of typhoid fever are at present in the city.

Mr. Charles F. Trace, home buyer of Gardiner, Me., is in the island.

The amount paid by Owen Connelly, Esq., for the Bovey House property was $7,000.

The Moonlight Excursion of the City Council Band last Wednesday evening was a very enjoyable affair.

Mr. H. T. Stevens, of the Moncton Times, and Mrs. Stevens, who have been visiting the island, left for Moncton on Monday morning.

Mr. W. H. Stewart, of the firm of Harris & Stewart, London, has arrived home on Thursday evening from a business trip to England.

Mr. James Pater, who has been in the "Old Country" purchasing goods for the firm of which he is a member, returned home on Thursday evening last.

Mr. William Rowe, one of the crew of the wrecked brigantine Birdie, arrived home on Monday evening, and is to be congratulated on his narrow escape.

Mr. J. W. Mansel, connected with Chapin Bros, Boston, is in the city. He has for the last few years purchased a large quantity of potatoes on the island.

We this week conclude the very interesting serial that has been running in the Herald for some months past. For the next few weeks we will give a completed story in each issue.

The "Nobleman" Magazine for October will contain Francis Davenport's first literary effort, entitled, "Is the Stage Immoral?" besides contributions from many other literary men and women.

The steamer Minia, of the Anglo-American Telegraph Co., arrived here from Halifax on Monday evening to register and carry overboard men. She will be engaged in overhauling the cable at Cape Travers.

John Ince, Esq., and Mrs. Ince returned home on Friday last. They have been spending the summer with their friends on their large ranch near Calgary, N. W. T.

Mr. Ince speaks highly of the country, and of the facilities for travel afforded by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

A six months' old child, who is infested with lice at the door of Mrs. Thomas McElrath, Covehead Road, on Monday night last. While Mrs. McElrath says for the present she is obliged to continue charge of the child, we trust the authorities will not be derelict in their duties in this matter.

Misses Frances F. Kelly and James Handrahan, of this city, left on Saturday morning to enter upon their studies at Bellevue Medical College, New York. We have no doubt that these young gentlemen will be successful as other islanders who have left here to study for the profession.

The Halifax market is as follows: Potatoes, 22 to 30 cents per bushel; Onions, 42 to 44 cents; R. E. Island Mace, 81B to 81A per barrel; Thin Mace, do, 81C; do Rump Pork, 81A, and Prime Mace Pork, 81A to 81B; Hams (P. E. Island) 12 to 15 cents per lb; Butter, 12 to 15 cents per lb; Cheese, 94 to 10 cents; Eggs, 13 cents per dozen; Hay, $10 to $14 per ton.

The steamer Worcester, Capt. Allen, sailed for Boston last Thursday evening at six o'clock, with a general cargo and the following passengers: Mrs. M. McLeod, Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. T. W. Ashton; Misses Rankin, Annie McKelvie, F. Mott, M. Mott, M. Stewart, B. Rhea, E. Gorman, S. Macdonald, E. Macdonald, A. Jenkins, M. Jenkins, E. Macdonald, M. A. Harper; Messrs. D. L. Lewis, F. Wyatt, J. Sullivan, J. A. Keanan, J. Stafford, G. Moore, W. Lewis, F. Dickson.

Reference to the picture of Mr. R. Harris at the Toronto Exhibition, held last week, a writer in the Globe says:

"Watching for the fleet," by R. Harris, is an admirable composition. The woman is well and characterfully depicted, and the dark purple water is very much alive. "Adversity" also by Mr. Harris, is one of those pictures that one must look into to get the full meaning of, as in the case with most of his pictures. Examination reveals the pallid lines about the mouth and the humid sadness in the eyes. Six yards away the maiden looks as if she were sentimentally over her last flirtation.

The meeting of the Episcopal Branch of the B. I. Society at County Line, on Saturday evening last, which was open to the public, proved of very successful result. The meeting room was densely crowded, and many were unable to gain admission. The principal feature of the evening was an address on the Irish question by Mr. James O'Hagan, which showed a deep study of the subject. Reading was given by Messrs. G. R. McMahon and J. E. Macdonald, recitations by D. Goodwin, P. Duffy and J. O'Regan, and singing by J. E. Macdonald and Thomas McKelvie. About thirty speeches were made, by Messrs. V. J. Hughes, Dr. Wall and P. Duffy, in which the Society, its members and lady friends came in for a share of commendation. Altogether the entertainment reflected credit on all concerned. At the close a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to the chairman, Mr. J. E. Murphy, who acknowledged the compliment in a becoming manner.

Mr. John MacMaster, a well-known resident of this city, met with a serious accident on Sunday morning last about 3 o'clock. His rooms are on the third floor of Queen and Railway Streets, and while descending from an attic story, to which he is subject, fell from there to the ground, a distance of some twenty-five feet. It is thought that he fell to the window to get air, and the fit coming on he fell to the sidewalk narrowly escaping to reach the Telephone Office, nearly two blocks away, where he was found by the policeman. One of his feet was badly swollen, and he complained of internal injuries. He was taken back by the policeman and others to Stevens's Building, where he remained all about noon on Sunday, and was then removed to the City Hospital. Mr. MacMaster met with a similar accident over two months ago. We understand that he is likely to recover.
