

THE CHARLOTTETOWN HERALD,

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1898.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

CHARLES ESTATE.....Tenders
THOMAS BROWN.....A Miser & Saver
P. R. J. HAILWAY.....Dominion Day
L. L. COOPER & CO.....Cotton Goods
JOHN MCLEOD & CO.....Short and Sweet

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

The Island delegates to the Ottawa Convention returned home Saturday evening.

The body of Capt. Munro Irving, who was drowned at Cape Traverse on May 14th last, was found Saturday at Cape Tormentin.

The grand jury found no bill against Mr. Alex. Cameron, of Amherst, N. S., charged with poisoning his husband, and she was discharged.

The work re-building the Elgin Classroom, recently destroyed by fire, has begun.

Mr. MacLennan has retired from the big dry goods house of MacLennan Brothers, and has opened his own store, which will rival the old one.

Ale. Hanson, the celebrated pianist, will give a solo recital to be given Saturday evening from 12 o'clock, noon, till the playing over at 8 p.m.

The trial of Mrs. Gurney, for manslaughter, at Charlottetown, N. B., finished Thursday. After deliberating for less than half an hour the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Rev. Dr. Doyle, of Vernon River, has been sent to the residence of a friend in New Haven, Conn., to recover his health. They will return to the alter of St. John's Church.

A woman who captured a trout at 12 feet back on the Miramichi River, N. B., is measured 11 feet 7 inches in length and 7 inches in girth. Everyone who threw a stone to help it, is received a present of bacon.

Two sailors, George Hould, Capt. Bentall, and John C. Wilts, wife, the following cargo shipped by her owner, Capt. Ayward: 540 bushels oats, 10 bushels flour, 100 bushels turnips, 10 head cattle, 4 horses, 10 sheep and 5 lambs.

The Cathedral Christian Doctrine class closed for the summer session Sunday afternoon in the presence of the Rev. Dr. Morris, Vicar of the cathedral, and Fr. de la Croix, of the presbytery. The prizes were distributed by Rev. Father Burke, and Rev. Dr. Morris also addressed the people.

William Karr, third engineer of the S. G. Danier, lying at the deep water terminal, Halifax, went ashore Thursday evening, and was given a drink of beer, and a cigar, and a few coins. It is thought that when going abroad later than eight hours, he fell overboard and was drowned.

The Northumberland went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

H. M. S. "Bellerophon" arrived Tuesday morning from the trip up the coast of Nova Scotia. She had been away for the first time since the 15th of May, and the steamer Charter is plying between here and Pictou. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip at Pictou for painting and repair, Monday.

John MacLellan, of the first class, was sent down the foredeck, and his place was taken by the Rev. Mr. John MacLellan, of the Lower Town, who will stay with him. The Northumberland will likely begin her trips again on to-morrow.

The "Bellerophon" went on the slip