Said to Have Corralled Saitti. New York, April 28.—Pietro Pintello, fruit dealer, was arrested tonight by Detective-sergeant Petrie, charged with being the head of a gang of kidnappers. He is alleged to have kidnaped Salvatori Saitti, a young boy, who disappeared from his home, January 9. The police have been on the track for months and during the search arrested four other Italians and recovered the boy. Detective Petrie says he has ample evidence to convict all those arrested.
