

IN THE FEDERAL HOUSE

Wednesday's Session.

Ottawa, Dec. 16.—This was the last private members' day in the Commons before the Christmas holidays and a determined effort was made to dispose of as many resolutions and other matters as possible, the result being an unusually large parliamentary list for one day.

Mr. Aylesworth said that the matter of the cancelled contract referred to the cancelled contract between the North Atlantic Trading Company and the secretary of state had been referred to the Justice Department. The claim advanced by the company had no reference whatever to the payments already made.

Madame Guvin Murdered

Paris, Dec. 16.—Madame Guvin, widow of the president of the Bank of France, was brutally murdered late last night in a railroad train from Fontainebleau. The body was mutilated and thrown from the train near Fontainebleau. The crime was discovered when the train reached Paris. The compartment was found in disorder, showing signs of a terrific struggle. Search disclosed the body beside the tracks. There are few clues.
