ROYAL OATH BILL PASSES FIRST READING.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, July 1.—Beginning by expressing the hope that it would not be controversial, Prime Minister Asquith in the House of Commons introduced the Government Bill altering the form of the King's declaration on his accession to the Throne. The introduction of the Bill was voted 383 to 42 and it was read the first time amid general cheers. The Prime Minister reviewed the history of the Oath which is offensive to the Roman Catholics of the Empire. He also said the language of the oath was emphatic, but it had been equalled by the 38 articles of the Church of Rome to convert in denunciation of the Protestant doctrines. Roman Catholics, he declared, enjoyed all civil and political rights, although they were barred from one or two offices. He also said he hoped the relics of the past would be removed. He continued: The Roman Catholic subjects of the Crown number 12,000,000, nobody doubts their loyalty and the declaration cannot fail to be offensive to the Sovereign himself. (Cheers). The late King found it a repugnant duty to sign the beginning of his reign by a repulsive formula directed against a n y of his subjects. (Cheers). Mr. Asquith expressed the hope that the House would not enter into full debate on the Bill. Mr. Balfour, leader of the Opposition joined Mr. Asquith in this wish. The introduction of the Bill was voted 383 to 42, and it was passed the first time amid general cheers.

GIGANTIC ARMADA.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, July 1.—The most powerful force of war vessels of one nationality ever gathered together will be engaged in the annual manoeuvres of the British Navy which now begin—45 battleships and 25 armored cruisers, with a displacement of 1,016,950 tons, representing five complete fleets. In addition there will be a large number of smaller cruisers, auxiliaries, destroyers, torpedo boats and submarines. Admiral Sir William May will be in chief command of this fleet, and it is estimated that he will have 300 vessels under his orders. Sir Arthur Wilson will be second in command.

"CARMEN SYLVA" ILL.

Special to Evening Telegram.

BOUMANIA, July 1.—The condition of Queen Elizabeth of Roumania, who is suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis, is reported to-day as improving. Her Majesty's physicians state that she is experiencing less pain than in the preceding days of her illness. The Queen is in her 67th year, and because her age much uneasiness has been felt. Elizabeth was crowned Queen in 1881, the same year in which Roumania became a kingdom. It has subsequently come known that she was a writer of poems, dramatic sketches and fairy stories under the pen name of Carmen Sylva.

ANNEXATION SENTIMENT.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, July 1.—Admiral Sir Lucius Douglas, retired, who is aboard ship returning to England from Canada, in a wireless message received to-night disclaims an alleged interview with him published in a Montreal paper. This interview quoted the Admiral as having said that many Canadians favored the annexation of Canada by the U.S. W. S. Fielding, the Canadian Minister of Finance, who was a guest at the Dominion Day dinner in London, in his address made reference to the subject, saying: "There never was a moment in Canadian history when less attention was paid to the idea of annexation to U. S. than now."

PORT ARTHUR A FREE PORT.

Special Evening Telegram.

TOKIO, July 1.—The announcement of the opening of Port Arthur as a free port of all nations, commencing July 1st, is published in the official Gazette. The decision some months ago of the Japanese Government to open Port Arthur as a free commercial port of entry caused some surprise, as this meant its elimination as point of strategy for military and naval movements and its development as a commercial city.

REDMOND'S DILEMMA.

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, July 1.—Chancellor Lloyd George having retained all the features of the previous Budget in the current Budget, will oppose its progress with the Redmonds, who are disappointed at the retention of the whisky tax, but it is not likely they will seriously obstruct the Budget, while the fate of the Veto power of the Houses of Lords is still in the balance.

AMERICAN YACHT WON.

Special Evening Telegram.

TRAVENUNDE, Germany, July 1.—The American yacht Westward won the Emperor's cup in the race from Kiel to Travenunde to-day. The Germania was second and the Hamburg third. The Emperor's yacht Meteor was towed in.

GOLD DUST FROM ALASKA.

Special Evening Telegram.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, July 1.—Three million dollars' worth of gold dust has been received by the Fairbanks banks since the season started, six weeks ago. More than one million of it has already been shipped and more will follow shortly.

CAPE REPORT.

Special to Evening Telegram.

CAPE RACE, To-Day. Wind west, light, foggy at intervals. A whaling steamer passed in at 8.30, and steamer supposed to be "Florida" was sighted 7 miles east at 9 a.m. also bound in. Good sign of fish on grounds yesterday; no news to-day. Bar, 29.30, ther 64.

Rev. J. W. Aikens.

Rev. J. W. Aikens is associated with Rev. Dr. Chown as Secretary of the Committee of Temperance and Moral Reform of the Methodist Church of Canada. Mr. Aikens was born in Ontario and has filled some of the most important charges in that province, and also in the Maritime Provinces. He is a most sympathetic speaker, and possesses in a large degree the power of enthusing his audience. His brilliant gifts marked him for promotion, and his appointment to the Secretaryship of the Committee of Temperance and Moral Reform has been more than justified by the excellent work which he has done since he took that position. The rev. gentleman preaches at George Street to-morrow morning and at Codrington Street Church in the evening. No doubt many persons will take advantage of this opportunity of hearing this great preacher.

To-Morrow at the Kirk

At the morning service at 11 a.m. the Highlanders parade and the service will be especially arranged for young men. The Rev. T. J. Power of Halifax will preach from the subject "The fast young man." In the evening Mr. Power again preaches, and those who have not yet heard him should take the opportunity, as he leaves by Tuesday's express.

Presented With a Pipe.

Conductor John Besant who had been in the employ of the Reid Nhd. Co. for the past 14 years, has severed his connection with the Company to take up other work. He was not alone liked by the principals of the Company but by all his fellow employees. On Tuesday last those waited on him at Brigus Junction and presented him with a handsome mesocham pipe and an address to which Mr. Besant fittingly replied.

McMurdo's Store News

SATURDAY, July 2nd, 1910. A neglected pin-scratch may end up in a very troublesome sore. It is precisely these "little things" that form half the danger to health and life. But the pin-scratch at any rate need give us no trouble if a bottle of New Skin is at hand. New Skin puts a clean, aseptic, waterproof coating over the cut, scratch, chaf, or abrasion, which protects it from dirt, germs, and further rubbing, and helps to heal it easily and quickly. Fifteen cents will buy a bottle.

When next you want a shaving brush come and look at our selection of Rubberset Shaving Brushes. That is the famous brush which hold on to its hairs till the end of the chapter. They positively will not come out. The Rubberset is no more expensive than any other brush and will last much longer. Price 60c. to $1.60.

BATTLESHIP LAUNCHED.

Special to Evening Telegram.

DANZIG, Prussia, July 1.—The Oldenberg, another great battleship to be added to the German navy, has just been launched here. Her length is 490 feet and 90 feet beam. Her armament is twelve 12-inch guns, 14 5.9-inch guns, and 20 4.1-inch guns. She will have a complement of 900 men and is designed to go 19.5 knots an hour.

DRAMATIST DEAD.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, July 1.—Capt. Robert Marshall, the Dramatist, is dead. He was born at Edinburgh, Scotland, June 21st, 1863.

Don't forget to secure your ticket for the Shamrock's Popular Excursion to Brigus, Eve of Second Holiday, July 13th. Special train leaves Tuesday night at 7.30. Return: leaves Brigus at 8.00 Wednesday night. Grand Social in Brigus after arrival of train. Sports to be held next afternoon. Remember you have a whole night's rest before work. Tickets, $1.25.—July 2.11.

Dr. H. S. Atkinson and wife, of Bay Roberts, are guests at Edism Place.

Nutritive Hypophosphites

When a person feels "blue"—"all tired out"—doesn't feel like doing anything"—cannot concentrate his mind on his work—feels weak mentally and physically—doubts his powers—complains of poor appetite and sleeplessness—suffers from headaches—then his nervous system is run-down and demands a good up-building tonic. Nervous exhaustion is a modern disease, caused by too close attention to business, overwork, worry, devotion to trying family cares overstudy, etc.

Nutritive Hypophosphites forms the best nerve and brain food known, and have restored thousands of sufferers to health. Large bottle, $1.00. The more you trade here the better you like this store. PETER O'MARA, The West End Druggist, 46 & 48 Water St., W. Telephone 334. Mail orders promptly attended to.

Here and There.

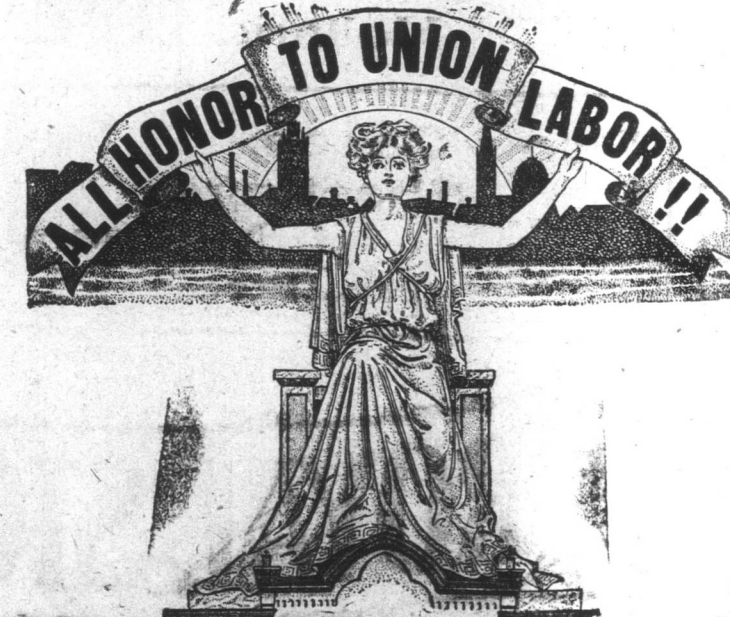

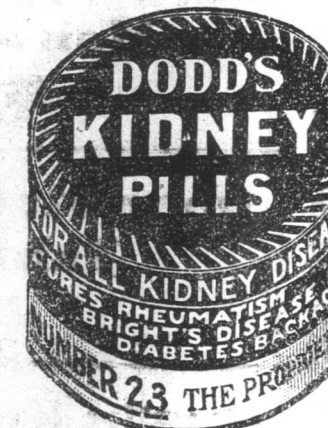

Don't forget the meeting at College Hall Sunday afternoon at 3.30. Rev. J. W. Aikens will speak.—July 2.11

METHODIST GUARDS.—The Methodist Guards will parade on Monday night instead of Tuesday next week.

His Excellency the Governor will preside at a meeting of the Natural History Society to be held in the Board of Trade Rooms, on Monday, at 4.30 pm.—July 2.11

COCHRANE STREET CHURCH.—The Pastor, Rev. Fred R. Matthews, B.A., will conduct the morning service and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Peter Pollett, of Manchester, England. In the evening Rev. J. W. Aikens, Secretary of the Committee of Temperance and Moral Reform, will preach. Listeners will be in attendance to welcome visiting friends.

EXCURSION TO BRIGUS.—The Shamrock Amusement Club's excursion to Brigus on the second holiday in July promises to be the most successful yet held. A large number of tickets are already engaged, and a large number have signified their intention of going. The great draw for this excursion is that the amount of rest lost on these trips will not be felt, as the return to the city is on the night before going to work. A social will be held in Brigus on the night of arrival, and the Shamrock boys have always given a good enjoyable time. A fine programme of sports is also being arranged to take place during the afternoon, and all that can be done to make the excursion a very enjoyable one. The Shamrock Club will be only too pleased to do.
