Big Decrease in British Revenue Receipts

Morgan to Have Another Try--De Valera Not a Delegate to London--B. C. Has War Memorial--Premier Squires. Criticizes Dr. Grenfell's Methods.

SQUIRES ON GRENFELL.
SYDNEY, Oct. 3. That Dr. Willfred Grenfell's methods in raising money in the United States for mission work in Labrador has been highly injurious to the credit of Newfoundland, is a complaint voiced by Sir Richard Anderson Squires, Premier of the Ancient Colony, in an interview on his way home from Washington, where he interviewed President Harding and the Senate Finance Committee with reference to the Foraker Bill on the United States-Newfoundland trade. He said Dr. Grenfell had been representing Newfoundland as a land of poverty and destitution, and that his exaggerations were injurious to the credit and reputation of the Island, whose people are thus placed in a very false and misleading light before the people of the Continent.

REVENUE STATEMENT BAD BUT EXPECTED.
LONDON, Oct. 3. The half year's revenue statement for the United Kingdom shows that whereas the Exchequer calculated for a revenue decline of two hundred million pounds for the whole year, there has been actual decrease of one hundred and sixty-three million pounds for six months. Large unexpected items of expenditure have arisen in connection with minimum agriculture wages, railways and general unemployment.

B.C.'S MEMORIAL.
VICTORIA, Oct. 2. Lieut-Governor W. C. Nichol yesterday afternoon planted the first tree in what is expected to be one of the outstanding War Memorials of the Empire, in the form of an avenue which, when completed, will contain one tree for each British Columbia soldier who lost his life in the Great War. A name plate will be embedded at the base of each tree.

DE VALERA NOT A DELEGATE.
DUBLIN, Oct. 3. Eamonn De Valera will not be one of the Sinn Fein delegation who will go to London to explore the situation with a view to settlement of Irish difficulties on October 11th, according to announcement made to-day by Desmond Fitzgerald, Sinn Fein Minister of Propaganda.

MORGAN RETURNING.
WINNIPEG, Oct. 3. R. C. Morgan, Supt. of Terminals for the Canadian Pacific here, has been granted leave of absence for six months to take charge of the Red Rd. Railway. Mr. Morgan leaves to-night for Newfoundland.

CREW SAFE; SHIP TOTAL WRECK.
QUEBEC, Oct. 3. Despatches reaching here to-night from Bonne Esperance on the Labrador Coast, state that the captain and crew of the Koren Rogenes, which is now jammed on the rocks at Burnt Island, are all safe at Oldfort Bay, about five miles west of Bonne Esperance. It is reported that the engine room of the vessel is full of water, and the ship is apparently a total wreck.

WILL IT BE CONTINUED?
LONDON, Oct. 3. Summer time in England ended last night. No legal provision has been made for continuing the expedition next year.

INDIAN URBEST.
LONDON, Oct. 3. A situation of the utmost gravity is developing in India, according to a despatch to the Labor Party's organ, the Herald. The despatch contains a declaration of the Nationalist leader, Mahatma Gandhi, that "it is sinful for anti-Muslim or Hindu to serve the existing Government."

FLOATING BAR BARRED.
BOSTON, Oct. 3. The schooner Arcthusa will not be accepted as an entry for the American elimination fishing schooner races to be held off Gloucester on October 12. The Arcthusa is a vessel alleged to have functioned as a "floating bar" off New Bedford and other ports during recent weeks.

ANOTHER WAR KING DEAD.
SPUTTGART, Oct. 3. Former King William II. of Wurtemberg is dead of a severe form of bronchitis. William II. abdicated in November, 1918, as a result of the great war.

IN MOROCCO.
MELILLA, Oct. 3. Continuing their advance against the Moorish tribesmen yesterday, Spanish troops engaged the rebels along a front of ten kilometers on the plains before Zeluán, inflicting casualties of more than one thousand on the Moors.

INVITATION DENIED.
BELFAST, Oct. 3. Reports that Ulster had been invited to send delegates to the London Conference next week on the Irish question, were officially denied here to-day.

HARDING'S REPLY TO HAIG.
EDINBURGH, Oct. 3. Field Marshal Earl Haig, who commanded the British forces in France and Belgium in the Great War, speaking at a grand rally of the Edinburgh branches of the British Legion held here, said he had written to President Harding congratulating him upon what he was doing in connection with the calling of a conference at Washington on the limitation of armaments and the problems of the Far-East, and that he had received a reply from the United States President to his communication. The Field Marshal read the President's letter to the audience. In it President Harding said he was deeply impressed with the warm congratulations upon "our efforts to establish more firmly the foundations of world peace."

Looking for "Soft" Jobs.
EVERYBODY WANTING TO GO TO HONOLULU.
Honolulu, T.H., Sept. (By Associated Press).—The romantic lure of the south seas has become so potent throughout the world that the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce is faced with an increasingly onerous and embarrassing problem. Its officials announced here recently. For inhabitants of the crass, cold commercial world of the Temperate Zone desire—and make their desires known in a pile of mail that is increasing constantly with each steamer—to leave their romantic atmosphere and come to Hawaii, the land of music and flowers, where tradition has the golden moon always full and where as person's life, according to popular belief, consists of loling on the shaded beach at Waikiki, fanned by the cooling trade winds and reaching up occasionally to pluck enough fruit from the overladen boughs to afford sustenance. The writers of the last steamer's mail ranged from stenographers, educators, chiropractors, ex-jockeys, to schoolboys and countless others. All emphasized the great sacrifice they would make in coming to the islands. The only condition they impose about the positions they hoped to obtain was that they be "soft," according to Mrs. E. K. Stone, acting secretary of the chamber. "That's all they want," she added. "The number of letters containing the same request is increasing with each steamer, and some drastic measures will have to be taken soon to cope with the situation. It can't go on, or the Chamber building will be inundated."
One graduate of four leading universities, with a long string of degrees capped with a "Ph.D." desired to come to some local corporation as an "efficiency educator." Another letter asked whether hemstitching was popular in the islands. If so, the woman desired to transport her sewing to Honolulu. A young man in the backwoods of Maine offered to travel 5,000 miles to Hawaii to instruct the residents in higher education. A girl in California referred to the spell that the Hawaiian moon has cast over her, and wondered whether she couldn't help out some business man by doing "just a little typing."
"Some of the letters show that the writers have at least a little knowledge about the islands," Mrs. Stone said. "Others are just as far fetched as that written recently by a man in a small Virginia town. He wanted to know whether there were any nice, warm tropical islands for sale in this vicinity. I answered that he could find, without any trouble, a real estate firm that would sell him part of this very island, but doubted whether he could even obtain a lease on all of it."
Another incident illustrating the lure of the tropics concerned a letter that some friends of an army enlisted man, stationed here, wrote to a newspaper in Portsmouth, England, signing the private's name without his knowledge. "This is more or less a lonely life for a fellow in Honolulu, as white women are scarce," the joking letter read. "More than one thousand women in England have written thus far, offering to marry the man, he said recently. The women range in age from 14 to 40, but all have felt the urge of the south seas. The letters are so numerous that postal authorities in San Francisco tie them in bundles of 50 each. The man said: "The truth of the matter is that I don't want a wife as I can't support one." Meanwhile the letters continue to pour in to this man at the rate of at least 500 every steamer."
